ABOUT THIS GUIDE

Latest figures show the Essex-Hunterdon-Morris-Somerset area served by The New Jersey Hills Media Group with more than 220,000 residential households, including single- and multiple-family dwellings.

The area is a diversified one inhabited by high-level corporate executives, middle management, and trade and service employees in all fields. Schools are ranked with some of the best in the state and cultural offerings are plentiful.

Residents can enjoy music, art, theater and other endeavors as spectators or participants. Recreation opportunities abound with many playing fields, bikeways and other sites for the active. Scenic parks beautify the area for the passive. Community service clubs and other organizations are plentiful, forming the lifeblood of our communities.

Our Town is a guide for both the newcomer to the area and the longtime resident. In it you will find brief histories of our communities, listings of service clubs and organizations, health care facilities, schools, places of worship, libraries and the key people to contact for any of those organizations.

You will also find listings of the key players in municipal government. Not sure of the name of the president of the local Board of Education? You can find it in this book. Want to contact the chairman of the Planning Board? You can find it here.

The map at the top of this page shows the entire area covered by the New Jersey Hills Media group, the name of each newspaper and the area it covers.

Browse through Our Town, keep it on the kitchen counter, the table next to the recliner, the magazine rack in the family room. Refer to it often.

>> MORRISTOWN FESTIVAL OF BOOKS

New Jersey's premier book festival, the Morristown Festival of Books, is held every fall in downtown Morristown. A keynote speaker leads off the festivities on Friday night followed by a free day-long event featuring more than 40 award-winning authors. This year the event will be held on Friday, Oct. 11 and Saturday, Oct. 12. The keynote speaker at 7:30 p.m. Friday at the Mayo Performing Arts Center will be Preet Bharara, U.S. attorney for the Southern District of New York from 2009 to 2017 and author of "Doing Justice: A Prosecutors' Thoughts on Crime, Punishment, and the Rule of Law." The free day-long event follows on Saturday with more than 40 authors for young and old alike. For more information, go to morristownbooks.org.

CHESTER BOROUGH

The borough, renowned for shopping, schools, restaurants and cultural opportunities, is located in southwestern Morris County and is completely surrounded by Chester Township like the hole in a doughnut.

Incorporated in 1930, the borough enjoys a flourishing commercial area with modern shopping centers along Route 206 and a quaint historical district filled with upscale boutiques and shops, although most of the land area of its 1.59 square miles is devoted to single-family housing.

Historic Chester, along Main Street (Route 24), was known as "Black River" in the early 1700s. The area, at the time, was rich with farming, mining, milling and inn-keeping until iron ore brought prosperity to the area in the latter half of the 1800s. The majority of the buildings erected along Main Street during this boom period were used as shops by local merchants; many continue today in the same capacity, although there was a major change in the 1990s, as the town evolved from a well-known antique center to a more diversified shopping area offering a selection of specialty stores.

One special use of a historical building is the Black River Playhouse on the corner of Grove Street and Maple Avenue (down the street from the fire station). This 104-seat theater-in-the-round is in a 140-year-old building that once served as a community church and Chester Borough Hall, but now hosts quality productions.

The Historic Chester Business Association sponsors numerous events throughout the year (see www.ilovechester.com), including one of the largest craft shows in the Northeast, usually held the second weekend in September. These events and those of surrounding farms (including one of the most complex corn mazes every fall at Stony Hill Farm), parks and scenery draw people from points far and wide.

Chester Borough and Chester Township share a K-8 school district, public library, first aid squad, fire department, community pool, athletic programs, and many civic organizations. High school students attend the highly regarded West Morris Mendham High School, which has one of the few International Baccalaureate programs in the state.

According to the 2013 borough statistics, the borough's population is 1,675. Residents are governed by a voter-elected mayor and six-member council who meet at 7 p.m. the first and third Tuesday of the month in the municipal building at 50 North Road. The police department and municipal court are located at 300 Main Street.

CHESTER TOWNSHIP

The 30 square miles that make up Chester Township completely surround Chester Borough and the township itself is surrounded by Mendham Township, Randolph, Mount Olive, Washington Township and the border of Somerset County.

While Chester boasts many modern homes on sprawling lots, historic buildings from the 1700-1800s still are found in abundance, giving the community a historic country ambiance.

Once known as Black River in the early 1700s at a time of active farming, the area enjoyed an iron ore boom period in the late 1800s.

Mining subsequently declined and the area returned to farming as the primary business of the area. Farm stands and "pick-your-own" fields continue to operate in the Chester area.

The township has been aggressive in farmland and open space preservation. In addition, much of the town is Highlands preservation area, aimed at maintaining a clean water supply. This also serves to thwart development and maintains Chester's rural atmosphere.

Much of the parkland in Chester follows the Black River from the Wildlife Management Area on the east side of the town southward past Cooper Mill in the Milltown section into Black River County Park and Hacklebarney State Park.

Chester residents use routes 206 and 24 when commuting and as access to interstate highways, employment centers and local shopping.

Even though the two Chesters separated in the 1930s over a dispute over construction of a public water supply, they still share a public library, first

BASKING RIDGE ANIMAL HOSPITAL

Basking Ridge Animal Hospital is proud to announce the completion of our new facility still conveniently located at 340 South Finley Avenue in Basking Ridge. We are one of the few hospitals accredited at the highest level by the American Animal Hospital Association (AAHA) which sets us apart from other practices in the Somerset Hills area. Our goal is to provide superior and convenient service to our patients and clients. Our new facility resembles a historic horse barn on its exterior with state of the art amenities on its interior. Your pets will receive the best possible care and comfort during their visits while the clients wait in a culturally uplifting environment full of historic memorabilia and remarkable artwork.

We are "Triple A" rated!

Ernó L. Hollo, DVM
Kelly B. Vex, DVM
Melissa A. Rotella, DVM
Emily Denning, DVM

Christopher Thacher, DVM, DACVS
M.J. Hamilton, DVM, DACIVM (oncology)
Cathryn M. Calia, DVM, DACIVM (internal medicine)

Your pet deserves the best!

340 S. Finley Ave. Basking Ridge, NJ 07920

908-766-4211 • www.baskingridgeanimalhospital.com

Hours: Mon-Fri 8am-7pm • Sat 8am-4pm • On call Emergency Service available 24 hours

AVAILABLE

Basking Ridge Animal Hospital offers extended office hours, 8am – 7pm weekdays and 8am – 4 pm Saturdays. At Basking Ridge Animal Hospital, our veterinarians can see your pet the same day you call. Our doctors are also conveniently available for after hour emergencies and house calls as needed.

AFFORDABLE

Basking Ridge Animal Hospital bases our fees on the quality of service we provide, the expertise of our employees, and the advanced equipment we use. Our clients receive many of the specialized amenities of a larger referral hospital in the more comfortable setting of the general practice they have come to love. In order to prevent a delay in care, we offer specialists in our offices, including Dr. Calia, an internal medicine specialist and ultrasonographer, and Dr. Hamilton, a board-certified oncologist. In addition, multiple board-certified surgeons are available by request for intricate soft tissue and orthopedic procedures including Dr. Chris Thacher.

AFFABLE

The comfort, convenience and continuity of care provided by our family practice along with the experience of our referral center, optimizes your pet's treatment. Friendly and familiar faces are waiting to help and comfort you and your pet. Local veterinarians who reside in Somerset, but work elsewhere, take their pets to our hospital for treatment. If you want the best for your pets without having to compromise, please call to make an appointment.

HARDING TOWNSHIP

Named after President Warren G. Harding, this quiet enclave of roughly 3,200 residents is best known for its rural rolling landscape and affluent population. Harding boasts one of the highest per capita family incomes in the country at a median of $130,000. While in eastern Morris County, close to New York City and surrounded by upscale suburban towns, shopping centers and major highways, Harding Township itself literally has no downtown. There is only a very small commercial area long Mount Kemble Avenue (Route 202) and a dabbling of local businesses in Green Village and New Vernon.

The desire to preserve Harding's rural character was evident even in 1928 when an unusual private land preservation effort began with the New Vernon Neighborhood Restrictive Agreement. Several estate owners convinced many others voluntarily to place a restrictive covenant on their land to limit development and save the pastoral qualities of more than 1,000 acres.

These efforts influenced subsequent zoning codes and the town's strong notions of the landscape value. In the late 1960s, Harding gained national attention for defeating a proposal to build an airport in a local swamp area. Forty percent of this 20-square-mile township is protected open space and includes large portions of the Great Swamp National Wildlife Refuge and Morristown National Historical Park (Jockey Hollow). The rural atmosphere is enhanced further by a three-acre per home minimum zoning in most of the community.

Harding is surrounded by Long Hill

Township and Chatham Township to the east, Morris Township to the north, Mendham Township on the west and Somerset County to the south. Harding is governed by a voter-elected five-member Township Committee which elects one of its members to serve as mayor for the year.

The committee meets at 7:30 p.m. the first and third Monday of each month at Kirby Hall Municipal Building at Blue Mill and Sand Spring roads.

Harding Township is in the 11th Congressional District and is part of New Jersey's 21st Legislative District, covering western portions of Essex County, all of Morris County, and sections of Passaic County, Somerset County and Sussex County. It is represented by one of its own in Washington, D.C., Rodney Frelinghuysen, R-11.

The town has its own K-8 school and sends public secondary school students to nearby Madison High School.

HARDING COUNTRY AUCTION

Anne Malinowski of Harding Twp. and hundreds of other local volunteers worked to get ready for the Harding Country Auction. The annual auction, a fund-raising event for the privately funded Harding fire and first aid departments, draws thousands of people each year to the New Vernon Firehouse. It is traditionally held on the last Saturday in September.

MENDHAM BOROUGH

Common lore states that Mendham's name is derived from a local Revolutionary-era seamstress who could "men 'em" for the soldiers, although another (probably more reliable) account says the name was given by Ebenezer Byram in 1745.

In 1906, Mendham Borough separated from Mendham Township during a dispute over the need to construct a public water system.

The borough of slightly more than 5,000 residents is known for its quality schools and small-town sense of community. With only two traffic lights, the historic center of town is at the crossroads of Route 24 and Mountain Avenue/Hilltop Road where the landmark Phoenix House and Black Horse Inn stand, as well as a collection of antique shops, interior decorators, gift shops, spa, and boutiques.

The Mendham Village Shopping Center is on the eastern end of Main Street toward Morristown.

Mendham Township surrounds the borough on three sides like a horseshoe and Bernardsville is its neighbor to the south. Only 35 miles from New York City, the Mendhams do not have any direct access to a major highway, which has helped it avoid overdevelopment over the years and maintains its genteel atmosphere.

Annual civic events include the Labor Day weekend celebration sponsored by The Pastime Club that features a carnival, child-friendly games and contests, band concert, small-town Main Street parade and evening fireworks.

The Pastime Club also manages one of the community's hidden treasures, a four-lane bowling alley called the Pastime Lanes.

The children of Mendham Borough attend their own elementary and middle schools, then join Mendham Township and the Chesters at the highly rated West Morris Mendham High School, which boasts one of the few International Baccalaureate programs in the state.

The borough is governed by a voter-elected mayor and six council members, two of which are elected to three-year terms each year. The mayor, who has a four-year term, presides over Borough Council meetings and votes in order to break a tie.

He can veto ordinances and appoint subordinate officials, ad hoc committees and certain officials to boards, committees and commissions.

The council confirms the mayor's appointments and can override his veto by a two-thirds majority of members.

Meetings are held at 8 p.m. the first and third Mondays of each month in the Garbrant Center at 4 Wilson St.

MENDHAM TOWNSHIP

Within the 17.8-square-mile horse-shoe-shaped township are large, sprawling residential properties and the historical districts of Ralston and Brookside. Mendham Township maintains its rural atmosphere with large-lot zoning and preservation of parkland. According to the township, the median value of a single-family home is $470,000.

Except for Sammy's restaurant on Route 24, an established, family-owned eatery in a white house with no sign, and one small artist studio next to the historic Brookside Post Office, the township does not contain any commercial zoning.

Mendham has much to offer for its slightly more than 5,400 residents from the Brookside Community Club, a frequently used community center, to its annual Fourth of July Parade, fishing derbies and Brookside Beach, a pond next to the elementary school that is open for swimming during the summer and skating in the winter.

Much of the community's charm has to do with its unique isolation from major highways yet still managing to be just an hour from New York City. The township surrounds three sides of Mendham Borough, has Bernardsville and Harding as neighbors to the south, Chester to the west, Randolph on the north and Morris Township to the east.

In addition to Patriots Path, which meanders through town, other public parks include Buttermilk Farms in the northwest corner of town which is a natural area for hiking and cross-country skiing; Dismal Harmony Natural Area in the Ralston section of town for horseback riding and long walks; and the Schiff Nature Preserve in the southwest for passive recreation and educational programs for adults and children.

on Route 24 served as the center of community life at the time. Open on Sundays and holidays, it is the oldest post office building in the country and houses 18th century memorabilia maintained by the Ralston Historical Association.

The Fourth of July Parade and Festival is an annual event in the Brookside section of town. The Main Street parade includes civic leaders, local float entries, bands, fire trucks, antique vehicles, clowns and occasionally, farm animals.

The parade route ends at the Brookside Community Center where families can participate in games and contests or buy a hot-dog or hamburger at the Rotary Club food booth. Other local events include a clam-bake and pancake breakfasts sponsored by the local fire company.

Mendham has its own television station on Patriot Media's Channel 25. Events of interest to residents are aired on a scrolling bulletin board, and more enhancements are expected in the future.

The highly rated K-8 Mendham Township school district serves about 900 children, while students in grades 9 to 12 attend the highly regarded West Morris Mendham Regional High School with one of the few International Baccalaureate programs in the state.

The township is governed by a five-member voter-elected Township Committee, which selects one of its own annually to serve as mayor. The committee meets at 7:30 p.m. the second Monday and fourth Tuesday of each month at the municipal building on Cherry Lane in Brookside.

MORRISTOWN
FESTIVAL OF BOOKS
 WHERE READERS & AUTHORS MEET

OCTOBER 11 & 12, 2019
 www.morristownbooks.org

Morristown Festival of Books set for Oct. 11 through Oct. 12

New Jersey's premier book festival, the Morristown Festival of Books, is held every fall in downtown Morristown. A keynote speaker leads off the festivities on Friday night followed by a free day-long event featuring more than 40 award-winning authors. This year the event will be held on Friday, Oct. 11 and Saturday, Oct. 12. The keynote speaker at 7:30 p.m. Friday at the Mayo Performing Arts Center will be Preet Bharara, U.S. attorney for the Southern District of New York from 2009 to 2017 and author of "Doing Justice: A Prosecutors' Thoughts on Crime, Punishment, and the Rule of Law." The free day-long event follows on Saturday with more than 40 authors for young and old alike. For more information, go to morristownbooks.org.

FROM DIAGNOSIS, THROUGH TREATMENT AND INTO SURVIVORSHIP SUPPORT AT ANY STAGE.

Emotional support for cancer patients and their loved ones.

When Cancer Hope Network was founded in 1981, our work was innovative, cutting edge. There was no “Doctor Google” or oncology social workers waiting to help guide patients after diagnosis. Fortunately, things have changed.

Today, there’s more information and wider support for adults facing cancer. Cancer survival rates continue to improve and dramatic progress is being made. Despite this progress, hearing the words “you have cancer” is no less devastating now than when our organization was founded.

That’s where CHN can help. Each of our 400+ trained Support Volunteers is at least one year post-treatment or successfully undergoing maintenance therapies.

They have faced more than 80 cancer types and speak 15 languages.

WASHINGTON TOWNSHIP

At 45 square miles, Washington Township is one of Morris County's largest municipalities and is located in the county's most westerly edge. Although the community technically is composed of several neighborhoods with names such as Schooley's Mountain, Naughtright and Pleasant Grove, most people refer to the area collectively as Long Valley.

Known for hundreds of years as German Valley for the original German Protestants who settled the area, the name was changed during World War I, a time of anti-German sentiment which residents feared would be directed against them.

Although there has been much growth in town in recent years, mostly of upscale residential homes, the town still is characterized as rural with many working farms, as well as "pick-your-own" farms that attract day-trippers from out of town.

The section of town known as Schooley's Mountain was probably America's earliest summer resort and spa. The pure mountain air, romantic surroundings, and mineral spring, which in 1815 was declared to be the purest and best chalybeate water in the country, attracted people to the area who came to drink and bathe in the waters which were believed to heal all types of disorders. The Lenape Indians, of course, long had known about the waters which drew healing powers from the iron deposits in the nearby mountains.

Recreation is an important aspect of life in Washington Township, which enjoys easy access to a number of township, county, and state recreation facilities. Running through town on the south side of town and into Hunterdon County is one of the state's best native trout-fishing rivers, the South Branch of the Raritan River.

Washington Township has its own K-8 school district. Children now attend one of the four elementary schools before progressing to Long Valley Middle School, then West Morris Central High School, a highly rated school with one of the few International Baccalaureate programs in the state.

The township is governed by a five-member elected Township Committee, which meets at 7:30 p.m. the third Monday of every month in the municipal building on Schooley's Mountain Road.

The mayor is selected annually by his peers on the Township Committee.

Morris County: A Rich History

Centrally located in the Highlands region in northern New Jersey, Morris County blends natural landscapes, a history spanning the Colonial era through the technological breakthroughs of the 20th and 21st Centuries, with charming communities and impressive corporate campuses.

Situated about 30 miles from New York City, Forbes Magazine described Morris County as "... a suburb of the New York area which reaps the benefits of the big city's financial industry." Forbes also rated Morris as one of the top 10 wealthiest counties in the country. Between 2015 and 2019, Money Magazine has selected several communities in Morris County as being among "The Best Places to Live."

U.S. News and World Report in 2019 named Morris County as one of the top 30 counties in the nation. And Morris County was ranked as the healthiest county in N.J. in 2019 by the Robert Wood Johnson Foundation.

Morris County was incorporated on March 15, 1738/1739, from portions of Hunterdon County. The inconsistency in the year relates to the Old Style (OS) and New Style (NS) calendars being used during the colonial period. Morris County was named in honor of the first Governor of the Province of New Jersey, Lewis Morris (1671-1746).

Within its 469 square miles of land area, the county contains 39 municipalities with a 2014 population from the U.S. Census Bureau estimated to be 499,727, making it New Jersey's 10th most populous county. At its most distant points, the county stretches 30 miles from east to west and 30 miles from north to south.

Roads, bus and rail service link the 39 municipalities in the county to the metropolitan region. Two public airports, the Morristown Municipal Airport and the Lincoln Park Airport, are located in Morris County.

There are also an additional 12 FAA certified private corporate heliports and airports, one military heliport at Picatinny Arsenal and one medical helipad at Morristown Medical Center in Morristown. Three major airports, Newark Liberty International, John F. Kennedy and LaGuardia International Airport, are accessible by highway, train, and bus lines.

The area's civilian work force exceeds 263,000 as of 2014. According to the U.S. Census Bureau, the percentage of the adult population possessing a college degree is estimated to be 51 percent.

The county is home to more than 50 Fortune 500 companies, several with their corporate headquarters located within the county's border.

Morris County is rich in history and home to more than 150 historic sites listed on New Jersey's Register of Historic Places, with most also being included on the National Register of Historic Places. Four of these sites – Morristown National Historical Park, Historic Speedwell, Stickley Museum at Craftsman Farms, and Villa Fontana, home of Thomas Nast – have been designated as National Historic Landmarks by the Secretary of the Interior.

Strategic Location

During the Revolutionary War, Morristown's strategic location between New York City and Philadelphia prompted General George Washington and the Continental Army to make their winter encampments in Morristown in 1776-1777 and 1779-1780. Washington used Colonel Jacob Ford Jr.'s mansion as his headquarters during this time. The mansion is the centerpiece of the Morristown National Historical Park, the first national historical park in the country.

It also was in Morris County, at what is now Historic Speedwell in Morristown, where Alfred Vail and Samuel F.B. Morse perfected and first publicly demonstrated the electro-magnetic telegraph in 1838. Vail's distant cousin, Theodore Vail was educated in Morristown and served as the first president of the American Telephone & Telegraph Company (AT&T).

Noted statewide for its recreational facilities and preservation of natural landscape, the Morris County Park System (www.morrisparks.net) is the largest county park system in New Jersey based on acreage.

The park system attracts about 3.5 million visitors annually, encompass more than 18,800 acres, 150 trail miles and 38 recreational, historical, horticultural and environmental facilities. These include the Patriots Path hiking trail network, which includes accommodation for the seeing impaired; active and passive recreation fields, four award-winning golf courses, picnic sites, gardens, camping, cross-country skiing, and lakes. Some notable locations in the county park system include, Fosterfields Living History Farm, the Frelinguysen and Willowood Arboretums, Mennen Sports Arena, Central Park of Morris County, Historic Speedwell Village, and Lee's County Park Marina on Lake Hopatcong.

Education

Education in Morris County commands a leading role, with outstanding public and private elementary, secondary and higher educational facilities. The Morris County School of Technology in Denville offers high school students and adult learner's vocational education and training. The School of Technology offers both shared and full-time programs for the county's high school students and continuing education programs for adults.

Fairleigh Dickinson University's Florham Campus in Madison, the College of St. Elizabeth in Morris Township and Drew University in Madison, and the two-year County College of Morris (CCM) in Randolph, provide easy access to higher education.

County College of Morris offers more than 25 Associate Degree and certificate programs in 16 different fields with affordable tuition. Popular programs include Liberal Arts and Sciences, Communications, Cyber Security, Humanities, Business, Management, Marketing and Related Support Services, and Health Professions and Related Programs.

While the seven-member Board of Chosen Freeholders oversee and approve activities relating to the business of running the county, such as county budget, road construction and repairs, appointments to the various county commissions and agencies, and other miscellaneous county issues, the county administrator supervises day-to-day operations of the many departments of county government.

The county administration building is located on Washington Street and Court Street in Morristown. The phone number is (973) 285-6010 or visit morriscountynj.gov.

RECONNECT WITH NATURE. CONNECT WITH THE SCHERMAN HOFFMAN WILDLIFE SANCTUARY.

Year round, the Scherman Hoffman Wildlife Sanctuary offers a wide range of ways to reconnect you, and your family, to nature. Field trips, adult natural history programs, eco-tours, school programs, lectures, summer camps for kids, weekly nature-infused yoga sessions, volunteering opportunities — Scherman Hoffman offers so much to inform, interest and inspire. Why not become a member and play your part in our 275 acre oasis of natural beauty bisected by the Passaic River? Or just pick a program that inspires you.

To find out more about how you and your family can reconnect with nature, either call us at 908-396-6386 or visit our website at www.njaudubon.org.
