You will always be missed
no matter how much time has gone by.
We want to ask, but shouldn't but we need to know why?
You were a great sister, daughter, fiancee and friend!
To Heaven is now where we have to choose our love to send.
We know He had a reason and we have to accept His way,
but to say it's extremely difficult is not very easy to say.
So till we see each other to hug you and touch you for real,
We will continue to love and miss you, and ask God for us to heal.

Deeply loved and missed,
Mom, Dad, Carisa and Kyle
