God took you to Heaven
22 years ago today.
The pain doesn't seem to fade
My tears still flow
When I think about you --
I hold onto memories of us and cherish them with love
You were gone so soon
But I will never forget you,
You will always be a part of me -- Residing in My heart

Love Always,

Your Linda
