*I have so much to thank you for,
for all the help that you've been throughout my life, for the sacrifices you've made, and the patience you've shown. I have so much to thank you for, but most of all, thank you for your love.*

*Your endless devotion to me not only as a child and young adult, but even now, I can never thank you enough.
Thank you for your loving inspiration and constant encouragement in all that I attempted to accomplish.
You were always lovingly there to share each and every moment of my life.
You taught me how to be caring and giving.
Your countless examples of generosity to others were my best teacher.*

Your love for me, Frank, and each other will give me courage to continue on, for that love was so strong, and our closeness was unparalleled, so unique.

Thank you Mom and Dad for giving me a lifetime of love and happiness.

I know now that you are together again, sharing your special gift of love.

I will always love you, and I hope that you know how very proud I am to call you my parents
