

ODNR Fall Color Update: September 29, 2022

Condition	Location	Region
Mostly Green	Alum Creek/Delaware/Mt. Gilead	Central
Mostly Green	Buckeye Lake	Central
Mostly Green	Burr Oak	Southeast
Mostly Green	Caesar Creek/Cowan Lake/Little Miami	Southwest
Changing	Clifton Gorge SNP/John Bryan	West
Mostly Green	Deer Creek	Central
Changing	Dillon	East
Changing	Eagle Creek/Triangle Lake/Kent Bog SNPs	Northeast
Changing	East Fork/Stonelick	Southwest
Changing	Geneva/Pymatuning	Northeast
Mostly Green	Grand Lake St. Marys	Northwest
Mostly Green	Great Seal	Southeast
Mostly Green	Harrison Lake	Northwest
Changing	Hocking Hills/Lake Logan	Southeast
Mostly Green	Hueston Woods	Southwest
Changing	Indian Lake	West
Mostly Green	Lake Hope/Zaleski State Forest	Southeast
Changing	Maumee Bay	Northwest
Mostly Green	Mohican	Northeast
Changing	Mosquito Lake State Park	Northeast
Changing	Paint Creek/Rocky Fork	Southwest
Mostly Green	Pike Lake/Lake White	Southwest
Changing	Portage Lakes/Wingfoot	Northeast
Changing	Punderson State Park	Northeast
Mostly Green	Salt Fork	Southeast
Mostly Green	Scioto Trail (Park and Forest)	Southeast
Mostly Green	Shawnee/Adams Lake/Chaparral Prairie	Southwest
Mostly Green	Shawnee State Forest	Southwest
Changing	Strouds Run State Park	Southeast
Mostly Green	Tar Hollow (Park and Forest)	Southeast
Mostly Green	Tranquility Wildlife Area	Southwest

Color Condition Key: Mostly Green – no real fall color seen. Changing – still mostly green, less than 25 percent color. Near Peak – significant color showing – anywhere from 30 to 60 percent color. Peak – peak colors – as much as 85 percent showing. Fading – fading from peak conditions, and leaves falling to forest floor.