

All of the front windows of Rog & Scotty's Super Valu, 3435 W. Broadway, were blown out by the storm as were several windows in the parking lot. One of the store's employees said he was getting into his car when the tornadoes hit, blowing his back window out and sending glass flying at him in his front seat. — Photo by Kevin McAndrews.

Railroad cars were easily pushed off their tracks like so many model trains in the Union Pacific railroad yards in
