Gators hoping to start reversing gridiron fortunes

The road has been rocky for the East Columbus Gator football squad the past couple of years as it has won only one game in that span.

The Gators are hoping to pull out of those doldrums this season under new head coach Maurice Huey.

Huey was hired last spring after serving as an assistant at St. Pauls and at some Cumberland County schools prior to that.

Huey, a native of Hoke County, is hoping to build a new attitude and solid approach to the game this year.

He replaces Rocky Lewis, who accepted the head football coaching

Leumichael Jones

Kenji Bowen

job at South Brunswick last spring.

Huey becomes the ninth Gator head coach in the school's 25-year history.

"We feel like we have the personnel capable of starting to turn the program around," said Huey. "A lot of the players on this team have played a lot of varsity football as freshmen and sophomores and they are showing some good leadership skills.

Huey's team was very active in pre-season scrimmages, traveling all the way to Biscoe to play in a six-team Jamboree at East Montgomery, and making the trek to Pender for a multi-team scrimmage the next day.

Junior quarterback Leumichael Jones is among returning starters from the ECHS team that went winless in the Three Rivers Conference for the second straight year.

Young Stallions looking to retain solid footing in TRC

The 2016 football season appears to be lining up as another good one at South Columbus.

After claiming ties for the Three Rivers Conference championships in each of the past three years, the young Stallion team looks like it could well be a title contender again under first-year head coach Russell Dove.

Dove came to South Columbus last spring after serving three seasons as head coach at West Bladen where his teams were noted for a strong running game and aggressive defensive play.

The 2015 South Columbus team opened its season by losing all four its non-conference games. But just like in 2014, the Stallions made a big run at the Three Rivers Conference title and went into the final week with a chance to claim a share of the conference title.

In the regular-season finale, Coach Kyle Hutchison's Stallions pulled out a 16-11 upset victory over Whiteville to tie both the Wolfpack and Fairmont for the title. The Stallions advanced to the second round of the state 2A playoffs where it lost to Fairmont and finished with a 7-6 record.

Following the season, Hutchison was reassigned and later in the spring, he joined the Whiteville High School faculty and football staff. Dove hopes to keep the Stallion football tradition in good standing while bringing his system Vinegar Hill.

"South Columbus has always been known for its football teams and the school has had some outstanding players and coaches.

port and excitement," he added.

South Columbus, saw several key players graduate in the spring, but it returns with a strong, hard-working group that includes 11 sophomores.

Key returnees are senior running back Dennis Leggett (who has rushed for more than 2,000 yards over the past two seasons), junior quarterback/defensive back Robby Spencer and senior linebacker/fullback Kendrick Green.

The Stallions gave a strong showing in the BB&T Jamboree scrimmage on Aug. 12, taking a 7-0 decision over an explosive North Brunswick team.

The Stallions will open their 2016 season on Aug. 19 when they travel to Elizabethtown to take on longtime rival East Bladen. They will be looking for the first non-conference win since the 2013 season.

Dove has become the sixth head coach for the South Columbus team, which heads into its 25th season. The school was formed by consolidation in 1992.

West Columbus

Viking football trying for an upgrade in 2016

West Columbus will be out to improve on last year's 3-9 finish when it takes the field at South Brunswick in Aug. 19 its season opener under first-year head coach James Pierce.

Pierce served as an assistant for the Vikings before being elevated to the head coaching position last spring. Jason Jones, WCHS head coach the past two years remains on the football staff as well as serving as the school's athletic director.

West Columbus has not had a winning football season since 2005, and Coach Pierce is hoping that Viking football can start making a climb back toward a winning tradition it has held during several periods of the school's 51-year history.

Marco Torres

Pierce held a football camp for youth this summer that drew a high number of participants as well as a lot of interest from the community.

Nick Godfrey

The Vikings will play the 2016 season without the overall team speed it has had the past two seasons. Running back Fred Evans, quarterback Johnny McFadden and wide receiver Brad Wilder all played their final seasons last fall.

Evans was a state-ranked sprinter on the WCHS track team and Wilder and McFadden also had game-breaking speed.

Shawn Tyson has stepped into the starting quarterback position, replacing the talented McFadden. Skylar Ritchart brings speed to the line-up. Marco Torres and Nick Godfrey are among the returning players who saw plenty of action on both sides of the ball last season.

Pack anticipating another strong run in 2016

After posting back-to-back 11-3 seasons in 2013 and 2014, the Whiteville Wolfpack's final record for the 2015 season slipped to 8-4 following an upset loss to Mount Airy in the opening round of the state 1A football playoffs.

The Wolfpack, which has won or shared the last three Three Rivers 1A-2A Conference championships, is carrying title hopes again this year as it returns with a good nucleus, mostly juniors, from last season.

Coach Luke Little heads into his fifth season as WHS head coach. It will be the Wolf-pack's final year in the 1A ranks as it is projected to go back to the 2A level in 2017.

The Wolfpack will miss the services of quarterback Nydir Carr the 2015 Columbus County Player of the Year and Three Rivers Conference offensive player of the year as well as the linebacker tandem of Andrew Powell and Garrett Wilson, and two-way back Nate Powell as they were part of a strong senior class.

Phillip Powell, a flanker last season, steps into the starting quarterback spot, and Monchovia Gaffney and Roshad McNeil are back to anchor the defense.

The Wolfpack suffered a blow during pre-season preparations when senior defensive back Raeqwon McAllister was diagnosed with a torn ACL and is projected to miss the entire season.

McAllister, who has been a starter since his freshman season, has committed to play college football at Furman.

Coach Little is optimistic about his team's outlook as it appears to be balanced in most areas.

"The sophomores who played a lot last year are now pretty experienced juniors," Coach Little said. "We feel like we line up better all-around than last year."

The Wolfpack is expected to have a strong running game with players like Powell, Keshawn Bellamy, Jamario Norton and Bradley Pridgen.

Roshad McNeil

The Wolfpack had a tough outing in its Aug. 12 BB&T Jamboree scrimmage with Wilmington Laney as it committed four turnovers in a 20-6 setback.

The Wolfpack will open its season on Aug. 19 with an away game against longtime rival North Brunswick.

Wishing You a Safe and Successful Season!
