TO OUR VETERANS

within the Strack & Van Til family, and to those among our customers, vendors, and community partners, please accept our deepest gratitude. Your bravery, leadership, and dedication are truly inspiring. We are proud to employ and continue hiring veterans whose strong values, work ethic, and sense of service strengthen our company and the communities we serve. We also recognize the families who have stood beside you, offering unwavering love and support throughout your service.

Thank you for your extraordinary sacrifices, for defending our country, and for continuing to strengthen our workplace and our communities through your example. We honor you today and every day.
