The TradeWinds Community Pantry is a vital resource for families across Northwest Indiana who are facing rising food costs and limited access to healthy essentials. More than a pantry, it is a place of dignity and care—where every visitor is welcomed with respect and offered real choice.

Each month, the pantry distributes fresh produce, shelf-stable foods, hygiene items, some pet food, and household staples to hundreds of households. Thanks to generous partners and volunteers, TradeWinds continues to meet the growing needs of local families.

The pantry also provides meaningful job-training opportunities for TradeWinds clients, who help manage inventory, stock shelves, and build customer service skills that support future independence.

Your support—whether through food donations, volunteerism, or financial gifts—helps ensure no neighbor in Northwest Indiana faces hunger alone. Together, we are building a stronger, more nourished community.
