ORDER CERTIFYING INTERLOCUTORY APPEAL

The Court, having read and reviewed the Joint Motion to Certify Order for Interlocutory Appeal filed by the defendants Smith & Wesson Corp., Sturm, Ruger & Company, Inc., Colt's Manufacturing Company LLC, Beretta U.S.A. Corp., Phoenix Arms, Glock, Inc., Beemiller, Inc. d/b/a Hi-Point Firearms, Browning Arms, Taurus International Manufacturing, Inc., Blythe's Sports Shop, Inc., and Jack's Loan Office, Inc. and the Response of the plaintiff City of Gary, Indiana now finds that Court's Order of August 12, 2024 does dispose of a substantial claim, or a party, in this litigation.

The Court further finds, pursuant to Appellate Rule 14(B)(1)(c)(iii), that the issues decided in the August 12, 2024 hearing present substantial questions of law, the early determination of which will promote an orderly disposition of this case.

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED by the Court as follows:

1. the Joint Motion to Certify Order for Interlocutory Appeal filed by the defendants Smith & Wesson Corp., Sturm, Ruger & Company, Inc., Colt's Manufacturing Company LLC, Beretta U.S.A. Corp., Phoenix Arms, Glock, Inc., Beemiller, Inc. d/b/a Hi-Point Firearms, Browning Arms,

Taurus International Manufacturing, Inc., Blythe's Sports Shop, Inc., and Jack's Loan Office, Inc. is granted.

2. The Court's Order of August 12, 2024 is certified for interlocutory appeal.

Dated: September 9, 2024
