OLEAN — The Archdiocese Walsh/Southern Tier Catholic School building and property at 228 N. 24th St. are for sale, the Diocese of Buffalo recently announced. A “for sale” sign from Howard Hanna Professionals is posted in the front lawn near West State Street.

“This is the best policy, and the honest answer is the official sales process offers clarity on the future — and a fair chance at potentially retaining the building that has been the Catholic school’s home since 1959.”

OLEAN — Dr. Genevieve Morris attended her first regular meeting of the Olean Board of Education earlier this week since assuming her new role as district superintendent.

Officially in the position for about four weeks, Morris took her oath of office in front of the board, school officials and the public to kick off the meeting.

During her report, Morris gave an overview of her first 100-day plan for the district, which includes listening and learning about the district processes, the different goals the district has and how they will achieve those goals.

“The first three months, I want to spend collecting that information so that we can get on top of the process of creating a strategic plan,” she said. “Maybe midway through the fall, we’ll start with OEBD ...”

Nearly $1M for almost-done airport taxiway project

BOCHICA — Another grant to improve the Cattaraugus County-Gliick Airport is on the way, as the area’s senators reported Thursday, as city leaders noted the project is nearly complete.

U.S. Senate Majority Leader Chuck Schumer and U.S. Sen. Kirsten Gillibrand announced almost $2.29 million in funding on Thursday for the Cattaraugus County-Gliick Airport through the Federal Aviation Administration’s Airport Improvement Program.

“This federal investment from the Bipartisan Infrastructure Investment & Jobs Act, which I championed in the Senate, will help Western New York’s airports and local aviation industry take off,” Schumer, D-N.Y., said in a press statement. “These airports connect our businesses and residents and allow economic opportunities for our local economies.”

Gillibrand, D-N.Y., said Western New York’s airports are critical aspects of the region’s economy and they need to be safe, modern and efficient in order to facilitate tourism and spur local economic growth.

“It’s time to rebuild our state’s crumbling infrastructure and this is a critical step in the right direction.”
