LET'S GET COOKING

Because every great gathering starts with food

When it comes to Halloween parties, the truly legendary ones need three things: top-notch costumes and lots of food and decorations. Spooky treats are the ultimate way to really keep the thrills coming, and we've got the recipes for any sort of get-together, whether you're hosting or heading out.

RECIPES FOR HALLOWEEN

'Tis the season for pumpkin

PUMPKIN CHOCOLATE CHUNK COOKIES

We couldn't wait to try this cookie as soon as it came out of the oven. All the great tastes of fall are in this cookie. It's a fluffy, moist cake-like pumpkin cookie that's full of chocolate chunks. And they don't have a strong pumpkin spice flavor, as the spices are mixed in with the pumpkin pie filling. It's a great balance of flavor. This tasty recipe is also easy to make, so the whole family can pitch in.

- INGREDIENTS:
- 1 cup canned pumpkin pie filling
 - 1 cup sugar
 - 1/2 cup canola oil
 - 1 egg
 - 2 cups all-purpose flour
 - 2 teaspoons baking powder

- 1 cup semi-sweet chocolate chunks
- 1 teaspoon baking soda dissolved in 1 teaspoon milk
- 1 teaspoon cinnamon
- 1 teaspoon vanilla extract
- 1/2 teaspoon salt

- DIRECTIONS:
- By hand, beat together the pumpkin pie mix, egg, vanilla and oil.
 - Beat in the sugar.
 - Add flour, baking powder, dissolved baking soda, salt and cinnamon. Mix well.

- Fold in chocolate chunks.
- Drop cookies onto lightly greased cookie sheet or one lined with parchment paper.
- Bake 10-12 minutes at 375 degrees.
- Remove and let cool for 15 minutes before serving.

CROCK POT PUMPKIN AND TURKEY CHILI

This chili recipe is rich, hearty and super easy. It doesn't have the same flavor as a Tex-Mex chili but the basic flavors are there. The cumin and chili powder are just right, making it not too spicy. This is a great meal to throw together on a busy fall day, letting the crock pot do all the work for you.

- INGREDIENTS:
- 1 pound ground turkey
 - 1 medium yellow onion, diced
 - 1 green bell pepper, chopped
 - 2-3 garlic cloves, minced
 - 15-ounce can pure pumpkin puree
 - 14.5-ounce can kidney beans, drained
 - Two 14.5-ounce cans black beans, drained
 - Two 14.5-ounce cans fire-roasted diced tomatoes, undrained
 - 8-ounce can tomato sauce
 - 2 tablespoons chili powder
 - 1 tablespoon cumin
 - 1 tablespoon pumpkin pie spice
 - 1 teaspoon sugar
 - Salt and pepper, to taste
- DIRECTIONS:
- Brown the turkey in a large pan over medium-high heat.
 - Toss the turkey in the crock pot and add in the bell pepper, onion and garlic.
 - Add in the tomatoes, beans, tomato sauce, pumpkin and all of the spices.
 - Stir everything together.
 - Set to cook on high 6-8 hours or on low for 8-10. You can add a little chicken broth if it's too thick for your liking.
 - Add any chili toppings of your choice such as sour cream, cheese, green onions, corn chips or more. This would also go great with cornbread.

MINI CREAM CHEESE POUND CAKES WITH PUMPKIN GLAZE

This mini pound cake is dense and moist with a subtle sweet flavor. These delightful cakes are made all the more delicious by the addition of a wonderful spiced pumpkin glaze that adds a bit of sweetness to this dessert. They are a holiday must.

- INGREDIENTS:
- 1 1/2 cups butter, softened
 - 8 ounces cream cheese, softened
 - 3 cups granulated sugar
 - 6 large eggs
 - 3 cups all-purpose flour
 - 1/4 teaspoon salt
 - 1 teaspoon real vanilla extract
 - 1/2 teaspoon almond extract
- FOR THE GLAZE
- 1 cup powdered sugar
 - 2 tablespoons pure pumpkin (not the pie mix)
 - 1 tablespoon water
 - 1/4 teaspoon cinnamon

- DIRECTIONS:
- Beat butter and cream cheese with an electric mixer until creamy. Gradually add sugar, beating well. Add eggs, one at a time, beating until yellow disappears.
 - Combine flour and salt. Gradually add to butter mix, beating at low speed just until blended. Stir in vanilla and almond flavorings.
 - Spoon batter into paper-lined muffin cups, filling three-quarters full.
 - Bake at 350 degrees for 16 to 18 minutes or until a toothpick inserted in the center comes out clean.
 - Cool in pans for 10 minutes. Remove from pans and let cool completely on a wire rack. Remove cupcake papers and place cakes on a pan or serving dish.
 - For the glaze, mix powdered sugar, pumpkin puree, water and cinnamon until well blended.
 - Drizzle pumpkin glaze over cooled cakes and serve.

CHOCOLATE PEANUT BUTTER CHEX MIX

This recipe takes Chex mix to a whole new level. It's filled with cereal, Reese's mini cups, marshmallows, peanut butter chips and chocolate chips. The recipe makes quite a bit. This is perfect for a party or to leave on the counter during the holidays.

- INGREDIENTS:
- 8 cups Chex cereal
 - 6 tablespoons butter
 - 3/4 cup brown sugar
 - 3 tablespoons corn syrup
 - 1/4 teaspoon baking soda
 - 8-ounce package Reese's mini cups
 - 1 cup dry roasted peanuts
 - 1 cup marshmallows, mini
 - 1 cup chocolate chips (milk or semi sweet)
 - 1 cup peanut butter chips
 - 2-4 tablespoons heavy cream

- DIRECTIONS:
- Line a large cookie sheet with waxed paper and set aside. Melt butter, brown sugar and corn syrup over low heat in a large pot. Stir until combined and add the baking soda.
 - Add cereal and stir until evenly coated.
 - Pour mixture onto cookie sheet and spread out evenly.
 - Pour bag of mini Reese's over warm cereal mix. Add nuts and marshmallows.
 - In same pot (now empty), add 1 cup peanut butter chips and 2 tablespoons of heavy cream. Stir until melted.

- When melted, drizzle over the mix on cookie sheet.
- Repeat the same steps using the chocolate chips.
- Drizzle chocolate. Allow mixture to cool, and break into pieces.

A LOOK AT HALLOWEEN TRADITIONS

As with many celebrations, Halloween is steeped in traditions — many of which can be traced back quite some time. Since Halloween is believed to have originated from Celtic pagan, ancient Roman and early Christian events, its traditions are varied. The following is a look at some associated with Halloween.

BONFIRES

Historians trace many traditions of Halloween to a Celtic holiday known as Samhain (pronounced sow-in). The Celts lived 2,000 years ago in parts of what is now Northern France, Great Britain and Ireland.

During Samhain, people believed that the door between the worlds of the living and the dead was blurred. On Samhain, Celts believed the ghosts of the dead returned. It was customary to build large, sacred bonfires and burn crops and other sacrifices to the Celtic deities.

WITCHES

Almanac.com indicates that, during the Middle Ages, women who practiced divination were dubbed "witches," from the Anglo-Saxon word "wicce," or "wise one." It was believed the witches could go into a trance-like state, and would do so in front of their fireplaces. Superstitious people believed the witches could fly out of their chimneys on broomsticks and terrorize others with magic.

TRICK-OR-TREATING

Christianity spread throughout Celtic regions and blended with other rituals. Pope Gregory III expanded on a holiday Pope Boniface IV established to honor Christian martyrs to include all saints and martyrs. All Saints Day on Nov. 1 commemorates the venerable saints, and All Souls Day on Nov. 2 celebrates loved ones who went on to eternal rest. All-Hallows Eve (Halloween) was a time to pay homage to the dead. Poor children would go door to door in more affluent neighborhoods offering to say prayers for residents' deceased loved ones in exchange for some food or money. This was known as "souling," which became the basis for trick-or-treating. Later the tradition became known as "guising" in areas of Scotland, where children would go around in costumes.

CARVING PUMPKINS

Removing the insides of pumpkins and carving them into funny or fearsome faces may be messy work, but it's tradition on Halloween. Turnips were the material of choice in ancient Ireland, but were replaced by pumpkins when immigrants came to America. The "lanterns" were made with scary faces and lit to frighten away spirits.
