PARIS 2024

Simone Biles still adding chapters to her historic gymnastic career

BY JESSICA HARRIS
THE SHOPPER STAFF WRITER

Simone Biles, the most decorated female Olympian in the world, is back in the spotlight. After a hiatus from the sport due to mental health concerns, she has returned to the Paris 2024 Olympics with a new lease on life and a renewed passion for the sport. Biles, 29, is competing in the vault, uneven bars, and floor exercise events. She is also a member of the U.S. National Team and is currently ranked second in the world in the vault and uneven bars.

Biles' return to the sport has been a journey. In 2020, she announced her withdrawal from the Tokyo Olympics due to mental health concerns. She took a break from the sport and focused on her mental health. In 2022, she returned to the sport and competed at the World Championships in Doha, Qatar. She won the vault and uneven bars titles and was named the Most Outstanding Female Athlete. She also competed at the Paris 2023 World Cup, where she won the vault and uneven bars titles and was named the Most Outstanding Female Athlete.
