Taking care of your health.

If you are turning 40 this year - it is time to schedule a yearly mammogram. Mahaska Health has you covered.

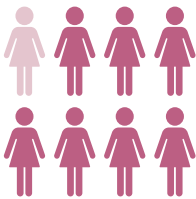

Prevention is peace of mind - get the care you need

Mammograms can save lives. October is Breast Cancer Awareness month, we care about you and encourage you to schedule a mammogram once a year with our expert Medical Imaging team here at Mahaska Health. The American College of Radiology recommends scheduling a mammogram every year starting at age 40 or as determined by your family history and individual risk factors. To schedule your mammogram call 641.672.3322.

3D Mammography

Mahaska Health mammography is accredited by the American College of Radiology. The ACR is recognized as the Gold Standard in medical imaging. With 3D Mammography, our highly specialized, board-certified radiologists have you covered.

1 in 8 will be affected by breast cancer

If a first-degree relative has been diagnosed with breast or ovarian cancer, you have a higher risk of being diagnosed with breast cancer in the future. Your risk increases if your relative was diagnosed before the age of 50.

You're not alone

If you're undergoing treatment for cancer - no one battles alone. Mahaska Health's Oncology Care Team is dedicated to helping patients during their cancer journey, our compassionate care team is here for you each and every day.

Compassionate care from trusted health experts

Always let your Family Medicine provider know of any changes in your health history. Keep your health on track - at any age with important health screenings. Visit mahaskahealth.org, or call 641.672.3360.

Women's Health Night

Join us for an evening of fellowship, food, health information, and community! Featuring a panel of experts from our 75+ medical specialties to present on topics such as mammography, medical imaging, general surgery, surgical oncology, cancer care, ob-gyn, cardiology, and family medicine. Our Mahaska Health caring and compassionate team of professionals are here to help you stay healthy all year.

By Charles Apple | THE SPOKESMAN-REVIEW

NBC’s skit comedy show “Saturday Night Live” kicks off its 50th season Saturday, which means its popular “Weekend Update” fake news segment is nearly a half-century old.

What’s more, the current anchor team was formed on Sept. 27, 2014 — a decade ago — when Michael Che joined Colin Jost on the “Weekend Update” desk.

MICHAEL CHE: SNL’S SECOND LONGEST-LASTING CO-ANCHOR

After just one season on the writing staff for NBC’s “Saturday Night Live,” Michael Che left in 2014 to become a correspondent on Comedy Central’s “The Daily Show” — which, at the time, was anchored by Jon Stewart.

Three months later, NBC called Che back to offer him one of comedy television’s prime gigs: As co-anchor of SNL’s “Weekend Update” segment.

Che was the first African-American to anchor or co-anchor “Weekend Update.” And his pairing with Colin Jost — who, at the time, was a co-head writer for “Saturday Night Live” — was the first time two men had co-anchored the show’s fake news segment.

“Weekend Update” has been a part of every episode of “Saturday Night Live” since the show’s launch On Oct. 11, 1975, except for one: There was no news segment on the broadcast of Dec. 8, 1984.

This took place during a two-year period in which “Weekend Update” saw its name changed and was staffed by a rotating roster of SNL cast members, guest stars and, on two occasions, real-life veteran NBC anchor Edwin Newman.

Che joined Jost on the anchor desk on Sept. 27, 2014, and has served, along with Jost, as a co-writer for the show for five seasons. The two have now co-hosted “Weekend Update” for ten seasons: Jost has made 198 appearances and Che has made 190 as co-anchors of the segment. Season 50 is set to begin Saturday.

THESE ARE THE COMEDIANS WHO ANCHORED ‘WEEKEND UPDATE’ ... AND YOU’RE NOT

 1975-1976 CHEVY CHASE Would sometimes seem to get caught in naughty phone calls with a girlfriend. Started each newscast with: “I’m Chevy Chase ... and you’re not.”	 1982-1983 BRAD HALL The segment changed name again, to “Saturday Night News.” Brad Hall anchored for a season and a half: “Thanks for coming out in the rain!”	 2000-2004 TINA FEY and JIMMY FALLON Fallon ended each news segment by throwing his pencil at the camera and then cheering if he managed to hit it.
 1976-1977 JANE CURTIN Filled in for Chase when he injured his back and then stayed when he departed the show. “Goodnight ... And have a pleasant tomorrow.”	 1983-1985 ROTATING For nearly two seasons, the segment was hosted by various cast members and guests. Finally, Christopher Guest settled in at the desk.	 2004-2006 TINA FEY and AMY POEHLER Fey and Poehler have reunited several times over the years, for a comedy tour and to host the Golden Globes four times.
 1977-1978 JANE CURTIN and DAN AYKROYD Aykroyd co-anchored for one season, participating in popular “Point/Counterpoint” faux debate segments.	 1985-1991 DENNIS MILLER The “Weekend Update” name returned and Dennis Miller became anchor, closing each segment with: “Guess what, folks? That’s the news, and I. Am. Outta here!”	 2006-2008 AMY POEHLER and SETH MEYERS The duo became known for a segment in which they’d comment on news items and trade barbs: “Really?” “Really!”
 1978-1980 JANE CURTIN and BILL MURRAY Murray co-anchored for two seasons and is remembered best for making Oscars predictions but admitting he hadn’t seen the films.	 1991-1994 KEVIN NEALON Nealon spent nine years on SNL and three of them as “Weekend Update” anchor. “I’m Kevin Nealon,” he’d sign off, “and that’s news to me!”	 2008-2013 SETH MEYERS Meyers set a record for most appearances as “Weekend Update” anchor or co-anchor — 154 — before departing in 2013 to host “Late Night.”
 1980-1981 CHARLES ROCKET Rocket anchored for one season after the original SNL cast departed. He’s best known for dropping an F-bomb once on live TV.	 1994-1997 NORM MACDONALD MacDonald anchored for four seasons but was reportedly fired by NBC for refusing to stop making O.J. Simpson jokes.	 2013-2014 CECILY STRONG and COLIN JOST Strong joined Meyers in 2013 and then paired up with Jost. She stepped down in 2014, saying she preferred to play “characters.”
 1981-1982 BRIAN DOYLE-MURRAY The news segment changed to “SNL Newsbreak.” Doyle-Murray hosted, along with Christine Ebersole and Mary Gross.	 1998-2000 COLIN QUINN For a few episodes in 1998, Quinn provided commentary and comedy about news stories before starting his “Weekend Update” anchor duties.	 2014-PRESENT COLIN JOST and MICHAEL CHE Jost and Che celebrate the show’s annual Christmas episode by writing jokes — particularly tasteless, embarrassing ones — for each other.

Spinal Decompression Provides an Alternate Solution to Surgery

"...I consulted Dr. Throckmorton and he recommended Spinal Decompression Therapy which I'm doing now. I noticed a difference after my first treatment. I've had six treatments and it's getting better every day and I have no more pain!"
- Margie H.

"I've lived with constant pain for years. I've had spinal epidurals and other pain injections and they either didn't work or didn't work as well and I was taking a lot of pain medication. Dr. Throckmorton suggested Spinal Decompression Therapy to me. Since I came to See Dr. Throckmorton, I've already cut down the amount of pain medication drastically and I'm also able to stand and walk for much longer periods of time, and I'm sleeping through the night now. I'm looking forward to more treatments and more improvement! Thanks to Dr. Throckmorton and his warm staff, I have my life back."
- Shirley J.
