

PRESS RELEASE:

February 14, 2019

The Decatur Police Department reports that on Monday, February 11, 2019 at approximately 7:48 AM Decatur Police Patrol officers responded to a residence in the 1800 block of East North St. in reference to an unresponsive 2-year-old female. Upon arrival of officers and medical personnel, the 2-year-old was immediately transported to St. Mary's Hospital. The 2-year-old was pronounced deceased upon arrival at the hospital.

At the time of the incident the Decatur Police Department began an investigation into the death. After conducting interviews, gathering evidence at the scene and from medical personnel, probable cause was developed to arrest the mother of the child, Twanka L. Davis, B/F, 21. On February 13 Twanka was arrested and booked into the Macon County Jail charged with Murder, Involuntary Manslaughter and Endangering the Life and Health of a Child.

This is still an on-going investigation at this time. The Decatur Police Department has no additional information at this time.
