REAL ESTATE PROFESSIONAL

Five Years of Gratitude. A Lifetime of Roots.

To my clients, neighbors, and friends throughout the Rim Country:

I am deeply humbled to be voted the Best of the Rim Top Real Estate Sales Professional for the fifth consecutive year. While this award is a high honor, the true reward is the trust you place in me during the most significant transitions of your lives.

As an Arizona native with thirty-six years of experience in real estate, my connection to the Rim Country isn't just professional—it's personal. Over the decades, I have developed a deep passion for this market and a level of knowledge that only time can provide. This experience has shaped me into a skilled negotiator who is dedicated to protecting your interests at every turn.

I believe that every real estate journey is important, and I take great pride in treating every transaction with the same level of care, regardless of the price point. By choosing to work with me, you benefit from a lifetime of local expertise and the combined strength of the team at Arizona Resource Realty, which has successfully closed over 1,000 properties.

Whether you are selling a family legacy or searching for your first mountain retreat, you deserve an advocate who combines professional skill with genuine empathy. I am here to serve you, your family, your friends, and your neighbors with the same dedication that has defined my career for over three decades.

Thank you for making me a part of your story.
