In keeping with our commitment to transparency and accountability, and in fulfillment of our obligations under the Act, we are referring this matter to your office for your awareness and any further review you deem appropriate. Should you require further documentation or information, we will fully support your office in any follow-up. Our priority remains to ensure the highest level of safety and care for the students entrusted to us.

Sincerely,

Tracy Beaulieu

Tracy Beaulieu

Director