training for elementary school grades contributed to the complaint in April 2024, so based on his training, he was allocated to high school grades.