AARON TRUJILLO

Aaron,
As your big sister, I was always the one meant to protect you. But somewhere along the way you became the protector. Being an Offensive Lineman isn't always about the glory, but you give it everything.

You may not score the touchdowns, but you're always the reason they happen. Always remember that I'm extremely proud of you and will forever be your biggest fan.

Love,
Big Sister & Brother In Law
