

Guadalupe “Lupe” Garrison

Guadalupe “Lupe” Garrison, 65, of Eloy, Arizona transitioned from this life to her heavenly home on September 4, 2021 after a courageous battle with cancer.

Lupe had a bright and energetic personality and was known for her ability to sense when people needed her help. She served her community in different roles as a bookkeeper on multiple committees within the City of Eloy. She was an active member of First Southern Baptist Church as church secretary, preschool Sunday School teacher and Vacation Bible School teacher. She accepted Christ as her Lord and Savior and prided herself on being a Christian. She was the family matriarch event planner. Besides spending time with her family and friends, Lupe had a passion for traveling, shopping on Amazon, wandering the aisles of Hobby Lobby for new home decor and spending time at the family’s happy place in Williams, Arizona.

Lupe was a devoted daughter, sister, wife, mother, grandmother and friend. Lupe was born on October 24, 1955 to John and Rosa Escarcega of Eloy, Arizona. She was the second oldest of four children, John Escarcega Jr, Steve Escarcega and Anna Lucas. At the age of 27, she married the love of her life, Roy Garrison, and they built a beautiful life together. She was a loving mother to five children, Mandy Mendoza, Amber Rodriguez, Michelle Garrison, McKinley Garrison, Roy Garrison Jr. and two bonus children, Aeissa Montijo and Solyna Gutierrez. She loved her sons-in-law, Thomas Mendoza, John Rodriguez, Felipe O’Dell and John Maes. Her pride and joy was being a grandmother to 17 grandchildren and two great-grandchildren.

She is preceded in death by her father, John Escarcega and her brother, Steve Escarcega.

Family and friends are invited to attend a Celebration of Life gathering to be held at First Southern Baptist Church of Eloy, 107 West 6th Street on September 11, 2021 at 10 a.m. The celebration is open to the public and face masks are required.
