Dear Jen,

Please be advised that the Central Arizona Community College District Governing Board has engaged a Human Resources consulting firm to conduct an independent investigation into complaints that have been directed towards the Central Arizona College administration.

The name of the consulting firm is Revolutionary HR Consulting (RHRC), Ms. LaCoya Shelton, CEO. They have been provided with a copy of your complaint along with other material relevant to the investigation. You should be contacted by them in the near future, and you will be requested to participate in an interview to discuss your complaint in greater detail. RHRC will handle the details of scheduling the interview with you.

Because this is an independent investigation, CAC will have no involvement other than providing RHRC with information they need to address all relevant issues.

The Governing Board appreciates your cooperation with their investigation.

Thank you,

MaryLou Hernandez
