

Ricky Woodcock

Ricky Woodcock entered into Eternal Life on Sunday, July 11th, 2021. Ricky was born Thursday, August 14th, 1980 in Brownwood, Texas to Ricky Woodcock and Bernadine Andrews. Ricky married the love of his life, Helen, June 27th, 2008 in Casa Grande, Arizona. He was a resident of Casa Grande for 11 years and moved to Arizona City in 2011, where he settled with his family, until God called him home. He was born a Texan, but claimed Arizona as his home of heart with his family. Ricky fell in love with the Arizona desert. The extreme heat never bothered him. He enjoyed the outside activities. He was introduced to the beautiful Sonoran Desert, thanks to his best friends, Roger and Shelly Sargeant, with their loving family, riding his 4x4 through the trails of the desert. Grilling was a great passion of his. He looked forward to the weekends to grill for his family and friends. We can say he was a “master griller”. He was a true Dallas Cowboys fan. Moving to Arizona his nephew, Dimitri, turned him into a Cardinals fan, and eventually became a Diamondbacks fan because of his mother-in-law, Julia.

The biggest joys of his life were his wife, Helen; his children, Maizzie, Caleb, Jozelyn; godson, Nathan, and god-daughter, Maiya. The greatest joy came October 17th, 2017 when he became a grandpa to Maivis. They were two peas in a pod, him calling her Diggy and her calling him Gramp-Gramps. Ricky was a loving father, grandpa, brother, uncle, cousin, son and friend who will be greatly missed but will forever remain in our hearts.

Ricky is survived by his wife, Helen Woodcock; his three children, Maizzie De La Cruz (Johnny Reyes), Caleb Woodcock and Jozelyn Woodcock; his granddaughter, Maivis Reyes; his mother, Bernadine Andrews (Ken) and father, Ricky Woodcock (Sheila); his sisters, Deanna Ballard (Ray) and Tish Woodcock. Ricky is greeted in Heaven by his grandparents, Veda and Earl Woodcock, Hubert Gresham and Wanda Wells.

A celebration of Ricky’s life will begin with his family greeting extended family and friends on Thursday, July 22nd at 9:00 a.m. at The Gardens Chapel, J. Warren Funeral Services, 525 North Peart Road, Casa Grande, Arizona 85122. Holy burial will follow at Mt. View Cemetery in Casa Grande, Arizona. Floral arrangements may be sent to J. Warren Funeral Services, 525 North Peart Road, Casa Grande, Arizona 85122 and online condolences may be given by visiting jwarrenfuneralservices.com. Funeral services are entrusted to J. Warren Funeral Services.