

Lorenzo Vidal

Lorenzo Vidal, 38, of Eloy, Arizona, passed away on November 3, 2025. He was born on October 12, 1987, in Phoenix, Arizona, to Josephine Vidal and Patrick Rosales.

Lorenzo was full of life and excitement; there was never a dull moment when he was around. All it took was one encounter with Lorenzo and you had a friend for life. His heart was full of love and generosity. He truly paid attention to people, sharing a strong laugh and a gorgeous smile that lit up every room. Always well-kept, neat, and organized, Lorenzo lived for every moment, making memories with those around him.

He gave of himself freely and loved deeply, especially his mother, his family, and his beloved nana, who he helped care for and who affectionately called him "Kitty Bear." He was the strong back of his home and took pride in cooking for his nana, known for making the best omelets and breakfasts.

Lorenzo shared a special bond with his niece, Haileigh, whom he called "Bunny" and loved and adored dearly. His connection with his mother was unbreakable and filled with deep love and respect.

He had attended Central Arizona College, once pursuing nursing, a reflection of his caring and compassionate heart. Lorenzo was open about his struggles and often shared how completing the Turtle Program and finding God transformed his life. His faith became his foundation, and from then on, he walked by faith and by the Lord.

God and church truly changed his life. Lorenzo served as Assistant Youth Leader at First United Pentecostal Church in Eloy, where he loved spreading the Word and guiding others toward faith. He cherished his church family and always prayed that his sisters would join him in worship.

Lorenzo was also a proud member of the J. Warren Funeral Services family, where he worked as a florist. He quickly excelled in his work, creating beautiful arrangements and forming close, meaningful bonds with his coworkers.

He is survived by his siblings, Sheena, Sherri, Joshua, Juan, Khrystila, and Karissa; his father, Patrick; his grandparents, Richard Sr. and Janie Vidal; his uncle, Richard Vidal Jr.; niece and nephew, Haileigh and Noah. He passed away alongside his loving mother and was preceded in death by his brother, Santos Ramirez and his uncle, Donnie Vidal.

Lorenzo will be remembered for his laughter, faith, generosity, and boundless love for his family and friends. His light continues to shine in the hearts of all who knew and loved him.

Funeral Services will be held Friday, November 14th at the First United Pentecostal Church in Eloy, Arizona with visitation at 9:00 a.m. and funeral service to follow. After the funeral service there will be a reception at Troy Thomas Community Center, 3650 N. Shedd Rd., Eloy, Arizona. Burial will be at 10 a.m. on Tuesday, November 18th at Eloy Memorial Park, 5839 E. Milligan Rd., Eloy, Arizona.
