

Melba Joan Hulse

November 13, 1941 – June 8, 2019

Melba J. Hulse, 77, of Casa Grande passed away in Stafford, Virginia on Saturday, June 8, 2019 after an extended illness. She was born in Marietta, Oklahoma on November 13, 1941 to Orville and Pauline Wilson. Melba moved to Gilbert, Arizona as a child and graduated from Maricopa High School, class of 1960. After high school, Melba moved to Stockton, California where she made her home for many years. Melba worked for Mutual of Omaha in Stockton and was self-employed as a medical transcriptionist in Lodi. After retiring, Melba moved to Casa Grande, Arizona where she enjoyed dancing and spending time with friends at the Dorothy Powell Senior Center. She was a life-long learner, loved reading and gardening, and became a Master Gardener. Melba loved to travel with family and friends and enjoyed meeting new people. Melba was predeceased by her husband, Paul F. Hulse, in 2005. She is survived by her children, daughter, Melanie Moschella (Anthony) of Stafford, Virginia; and sons, David Hulse (Erica) of Portland, Oregon and Tim Hulse (Julie) of Clovis, California; as well as seven grandchildren, two great-grandchildren, and many more family and friends.

Melba will be dearly missed.

A memorial service will be held Saturday, August 10, 2019, 11:00 a.m. at Dorothy Powell Senior Center, 405 E. 6th Street, Casa Grande, Arizona.

In lieu of flowers, donations may be made to the Alzheimer's Association.