

Carmen D. Taylor

Carmen D. "Flo, Lolita, Nonnie, Grandmal" Taylor passed away August 2, 2019. Carmen D. is survived by her children: Lori Rodman of Casa Grande, Joshua Taylor of Phoenix and Kyle Taylor of Glendale; her siblings: Teddy Valencia of Casa Grande, Eleanor Weiss of Tucson, Patricia Wyatt of California, Cecil Torres of Casa Grande, Frank Torres of Casa Grande, Kathy Torres of Casa Grande, Gilbert Torres of Casa Grande, Frances Wilcox of Tucson, Emma Torres of Casa Grande and Arnold Torres of Casa Grande; her grandchildren: Brianna Sanchez of San Diego, Tiffany Robinette of Casa Grande, Taryn Rodriquez of Casa Grande, and Caden Rodman of Casa Grande; she is also survived by five great-grandchildren. Carmen is preceded in death by her parents, Sally G. Torres and Frank Torres Sr.; two of her sons, Brian Anthony Rodriquez and Andrew Russell Taylor. Carmen D. was the best bowler, pool hustler, softball player, dancer, cook, and bartender. Carmen was a very loving and giving sister, mother, grandmother, great-grandmother, aunt, nina, cousin and friend. Carmen lit up every room she entered and was always the life of the party. Carmen touched the hearts of many and will be missed by all.

Visitation will be held Friday, August 16, 2019 from 6:00 p.m. to 8:00 p.m. at The Gardens Chapel. Rosary will be held Saturday, August 17, 2019, 9:00 a.m. and Mass, 9:30 a.m. at St. Anthony of Padua Catholic Church.

"Buh Bye" –Carmen D.