

Frances Roberta Williams

Frances Roberta Williams, 66, passed away on Wednesday, May 29, 2019 at her home in Coolidge, AZ with her family by her side. Frances, the daughter of Joe and Flossie Pate, was born in Superior, AZ on September 22, 1952. Growing up Frances attended Coolidge Schools and on August 16, 1975, she married Donald Williams.

She is survived by her husband, Donald Williams; her daughters, Melissa Brady and Monica Hulsey (Patrick Harris); three sisters, Carolyn Jo Osborn (Ray Osborn), Beverly Fowler, Crystal Hall; grandchildren, Joseph Harris, Aiden Harris, Starr Hughes; great-grandchildren Kourtney Hughes and Jessie Hughes. Frances is preceded in death by her parents, Joe and Flossie Pate and son, Donald Williams Jr.

Frances' greatest joy in life was her family. As the matriarch, her love for them, desire to help others and her faith gave her strength of character. She was an example and instilled in her family strength, love, compassion, independence and perseverance. Frankie loved family traditions, with her favorite being able to gather her family together and celebrate Christmas. She is loved by family and friends and will be missed by all.

The Celebration of Life for Frances Williams will begin at 10 a.m., Saturday, June 15 at the Boulevard Baptist Church in Coolidge.
