

Laura Marie Lopez

November 15, 1950 – September 7, 2026

A Life of Love and Generosity

With heavy hearts we announce the passing of Laura Marie Lopez on September 7, 2026. Surrounded by loved ones, Laura left this world wrapped in the warmth and love of her beloved family.

Laura was born on November 15, 1950, in Casa Grande, Arizona. She was the daughter of Filiberto and Mercedes Lopez and the youngest of 11 children.

She was preceded in death by her parents and her siblings, Eleanor Zaragoza, Rebecca Lopez, Filiberto Lopez Jr., Carlos Lopez, and Filiberto Lopez.

Laura is survived by her daughters, Reina Bolen of Casa Grande, Arizona, and Jennifer Bolen of Coolidge, Arizona; her son, Carlos Coronado (Krushara) of Coolidge, Arizona; her sisters, Virginia Myers of Coolidge, Arizona, Teresa Clark of Blythe, California, and Carmen Fasig of Harbor Springs, Michigan; and her brothers, David Lopez (Antonia) of Temecula, California and Robert Lopez of Jocotepec, Jalisco, Mexico. She will also be lovingly remembered by her 13 grandchildren and three great-grandchildren, who were the light of her life, along with a host of nieces, nephews, extended family and friends.

Laura will always be remembered for her generous heart and the genuine care she showed to others. She was always willing to help and would give even the last of what she had if it meant making someone else's life a little easier. Her kindness was quiet, sincere, and unconditional.

Laura enjoyed spending time with her family, dancing, and going to the casino. Above all, she cherished the people she loved and the moments they shared together.

Though our hearts ache with her absence, we find solace in the memories we shared. Laura's unwavering love and the lives she touched will keep her memory alive. Her greatest legacy is the kindness she shared with others, a kindness that will continue through everyone who had the privilege of knowing and loving her.

She will be deeply missed, lovingly remembered, and forever cherished.

Funeral service will be September 25, 2026 at 11:00 a.m. at J. Warren Funeral Services, The Gardens Chapel, 525 N. Peart Rd., Casa Grande, Arizona 85122.
