Developer's corner:

An excellent place for advanced users of BLOX Digital.

Submitting a ticket

If you are needing to submit a case with BLOX Support, the easiest way to get there is by selecting the Submit a Ticket tile.

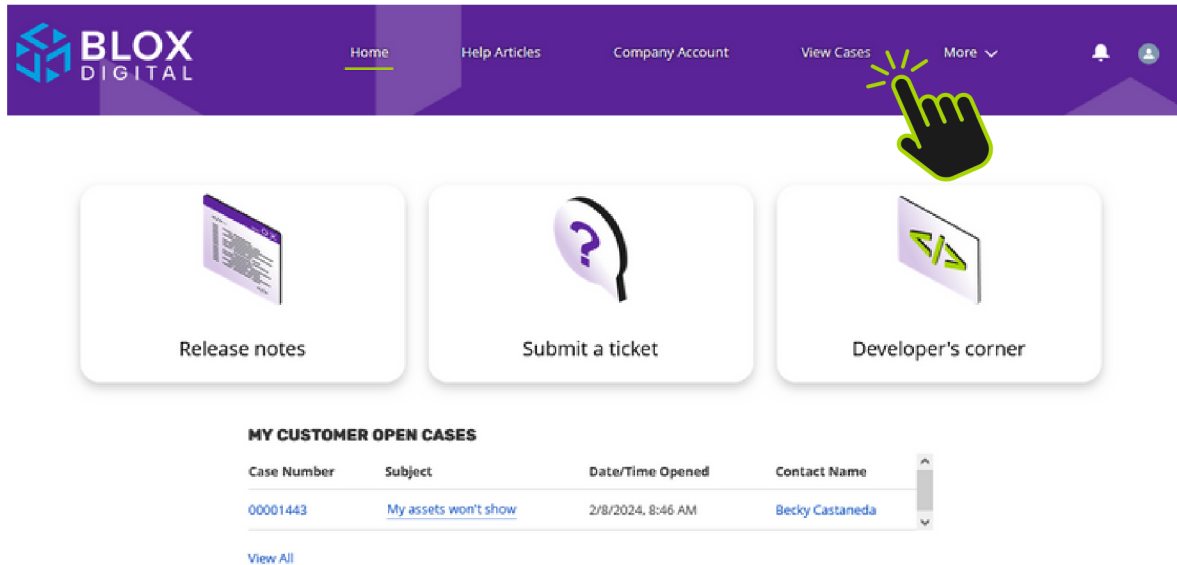

Once there, you will be met by this screen:

A screenshot of the BLOX Digital ticket submission form. The form is titled "Please fill out the information below." and contains several fields: "Priority" (dropdown menu with "Normal" selected), "Type" (dropdown menu with "--None--" selected), "* Subject" (text input field), "Description" (text area), "Choose Affected Domains (Optional)" (search input field with "Search undefined..." placeholder), "Upload files here." (button with "Upload Files" text and an upload icon), and a "Submit Case" button at the bottom right. The BLOX Digital logo is visible in the top right corner of the form's header.

Fill out the fields with as much information as possible, including uploading supporting files or screenshots. After you hit "Submit Case", the ticket will be sent directly to our Customer Support team to help!

Viewing your cases

If you'd like to check the status of support tickets you've submitted, you can view open cases on the home screen or by clicking on "View Cases."

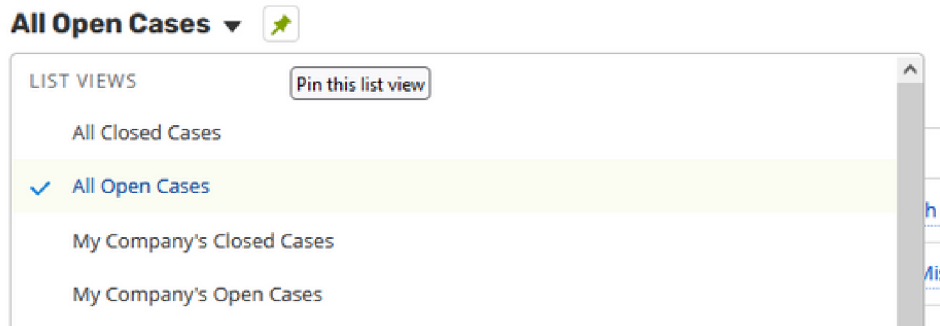

Clicking on "View All" on the bottom, left-hand corner of the quick view will also take you to view your submitted cases.

In the full screen view, you can toggle between the case views:

To set the default view that is most useful for you, select the view you'd like to see and click on the thumbtack image next to it:

When viewing your case list, you can choose from list view, kanban view, or create a printable view in the top right-hand corner.

Kanban view shows where your ticket is in the process from being worked on all the way to closed.
