Rich Schermerhorn owns many hundreds of apartments in dozens of complexes throughout the area, although it's a challenge to put exact figures on his holdings.

In 2015, a Post-Star story reported he had developed about 25 complexes with more than 1,500 units. Since then, the paper has reported on his development of several more housing complexes.

His company's website lists 22 separate developments (20 of which are seen here), but it appears not to be a comprehensive list of Schermerhorn's properties.
