Exhibition: Your Land, My Land: Immigrant Artists in the United States
September 1 - December 31

September 1 - December 31:
Exhibition: Your Land, My Land: Immigrant Artists in the United States.

Munson-Williams-Proctor Arts Institute. 310 Genesee St., Utica, NY. We are a nation of immigrants. Many “American” artists, such as Thomas Cole, were actually born in other countries. In the arts, as in other areas of life, persons who have come to the United States have been inspired by their new home. This gallery is dedicated to showcasing aspects of the collection that reflect the rich tradition of artists who traveled to the United States as children or adults, developed their talent, and shared it for the appreciation of all.

September 21: 2019 Ontario County Fun on the Farm.

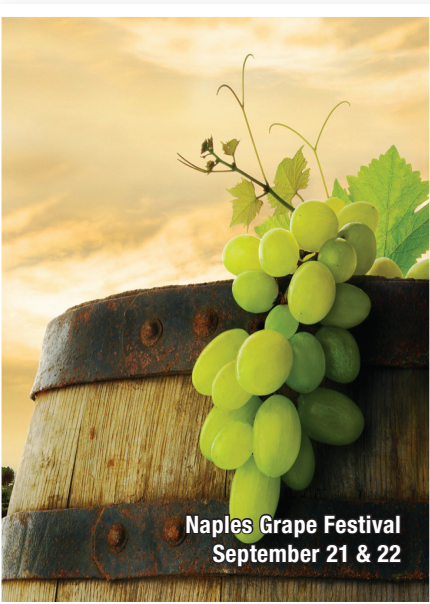

11am - 4pm. J. Minns Farms and Sons. 3379 Seneca Castle

Rd., Seneca Castle, NY. Fun on the Farm happens every other year. This is the 15th event in 26 years. It is planned and executed by volunteers from the Ontario County Agriculture Community as they want to be able to teach others about the agriculture industry. Fun on the Farm works to educate non-farm public and our neighbors about agriculture around them. It is fun and educational. This event is put on by agricultural businesses, agri-services, and people directly involved in the business of agriculture. There are many agricultural products that are available to be sampled. It is the perfect place to try that product you have seen in the store but didn't want to commit to purchasing. Food is available to purchase for lunch. It is provided by a local service group. Our audience ranges from young families to senior citizens. Free. <https://www.ontariocountyfunonthefarm.com/>
