WINGS TO MAKE ANY BARBECUE FAN BLUSH

Chicken wings are beloved by people of all ages and appetites. While many people only eat wings when out on the town, this lovable bar food can be enjoyed at home as well. The next time the big game is on or you simply have a hunger for homemade wings, try your hand at the following recipe for “Virgil’s Smoked Chicken Wings With Blue Cheese Dip” from Neal Corman’s “Virgil’s Barbecue Road Trip Cookbook” (St. Martin’s Press).

VIRGIL’S SMOKED CHICKEN WINGS WITH BLUE CHEESE DIP

Serves 4

FILLING

BLUE CHEESE DIP

- 2 cups blue cheese crumbles, divided
- 1 cup mayonnaise
- 1/2 cup buttermilk
- 2 teaspoons hot sauce
- 1 teaspoon Worcestershire sauce
- 1/2 teaspoon kosher salt
- 1/4 cup finely chopped scallions
- 1/4 cup finely chopped celery

MARINADE

- 1/2 cup vegetable oil
- 1/2 cup hot sauce
- 4 tablespoons Virgil’s Dry Rub (see below)
- 4 tablespoons granulated garlic
- 4 tablespoons granulated onion
- Juice of 1/2 lemon

WINGS

- 8 large chicken wings
- 1/2 cup Virgil’s Dry Rub (see below)

SAUCE

- 10 tablespoons unsalted butter
- 1 teaspoon cornstarch
- 4 tablespoons white vinegar
- 3/4 cup hot sauce
- 1/4 teaspoon cayenne pepper

VIRGIL’S DRY RUB

Makes 5 to 5 1/2 cups

- 2 1/2 cups sweet paprika
- 1 cup granulated sugar
- 1/2 cup Texas-style chili powder
- 1/2 cup minced onion
- 1/2 cup granulated garlic
- 1/4 cup dried parsley flakes
- 6 tablespoons kosher salt

Combine all of the ingredients in a medium bowl and whisk together until completely incorporated. Transfer to a covered bowl with a tight-fitting lid. Store in a cool, dry place.

1. To make the dip, combine 1 cup of the blue cheese, mayonnaise, buttermilk, hot sauce, Worcestershire sauce, and salt in the bowl of a food processor and blend on low until smooth.
2. Remove to a medium mixing bowl and fold in the rest of the blue cheese, scallions and celery, being sure to break up the larger blue cheese crumbles. Place in a covered container and refrigerate overnight.
3. Mix all the marinade ingredients in a large mixing bowl. Place the wings in a large container with a lid and pour the mixture over the wings. Toss until the wings are thoroughly coated. Cover and refrigerate for 2 days.
4. Preheat the grill or smoker to 245 F.
5. Spread out the wings on a sheet pan and wipe away any excess marinade. Sprinkle liberally with the dry rub, coating the wings all over.
6. Position the wings on the grill away from the direct heat of the coals or burners, and add hickory to the smoker or hickory chips on the coals or gas burners.
7. Cook the wings for about 3 hours, flipping every 30 minutes (their internal temperature should be about 165 F when cooked).
8. While the wings are cooking, cut the butter for the sauce into 1-inch cubes and refrigerate. Whisk the cornstarch into the white vinegar, in a small bowl.
9. In a medium sauté pan over medium heat, bring the hot sauce to a simmer and whisk in the thickened vinegar. Return to a simmer, cook for 1 minute, and remove from the heat.
10. Add the cayenne and slowly whisk in the cold butter. Keep warm until serving.
11. Remove the wings from the smoker or grill and put half of them into a bowl, cover with the sauce, and toss. Repeat with the remaining wings and serve on a platter, with the blue cheese dip on the side.

A BLT THAT THINKS OUTSIDE THE BOX

Few sandwiches are more widely enjoyed than BLTs. When hosting parties, hosts often look for foods that will appeal to their guests, which makes BLTs a great appetizer option. Those hosts who want to take a chance on a less traditional “BLT” might want to consider the following recipe for “Inside-Out BLTs” from Bob Blumer’s “Surreal Gourmet Bites” (Chronicle Books). Unlike traditional BLTs, this recipe includes cheese and some additional unique properties guests are sure to love.

INSIDE-OUT BLTs

Yields 12 bites

8 strips premium bacon, sliced crosswise into 1/8-inch strips

8 firm Roma tomatoes or green (unripe) tomatoes, cut into 1/4-inch-thick slices

1 cup flour

3 eggs, beaten

2 cups bread crumbs or panko

3 or more tablespoons olive oil

Salt

Freshly ground black pepper

1 4-ounce log goat cheese, approximately 1 1/2 inches in diameter, sliced 1/8-inch-thick

24 arugula leaves, lower stems discarded

Cook bacon over medium heat until crispy. Drain on a paper towel.

Select the 24 most uniform tomato slices and save the rest for tomorrow’s lunch. Dredge slices in flour, then in eggs, then pat down in bread crumbs. Reserve on plates, but do not stack.

In a sauté pan over medium-high heat, add 3 tablespoons oil. When oil is hot, add as many breaded tomato slices as the pan can accommodate without them touching. Fry for approximately 2 minutes per side, or until browned and crispy. Remove from pan and drain on paper towels. Add more oil if necessary for subsequent batches.

To assemble, line up 12 fried tomato slices. Season with salt and pepper, then top each with 1 cheese slice, a mound of bacon shrapnel and 2 arugula leaves. Cover with a second fried tomato slice. Secure with a toothpick. Let cool for a minute before serving. (Tomatoes have a surprising ability to hold the heat.)

COCKTAIL GLOSSARY FOR AMATEUR MIXOLOGISTS

When entertaining, hosts are sometimes called on to make and serve mixed drinks for guests. Making drinks may seem as simple as throwing a few ingredients into a shaker and pouring the resulting mix into a fancy glass, but authentic cocktail creation requires a little more effort than that. A cursory knowledge of common words and phrases can help you become a master mixologist in no time.

Bitters: Made from herbs and berries, bitters can add a diverse flavor profile to your cocktails and balance out sweeter drinks.

Boston shaker: Device used to make shaken drinks and chill them thoroughly.

Flute: A long, narrow glass used to serve champagne and sparkling wines. The shape of the flute ensures bubbles fizz for as long as possible.

Collins glass: A tall glass with a heavy base, quite similar to and often interchangeable with a highball glass.

Dirty: A word typically associated with martinis. Dirty refers to serving the drink with an olive and some vinegar-based brine.

Dry: Like wine, cocktails can be sweet or dry. Cocktails that are dry tend to include dry vermouth.

Frosted glasses: Glasses that are kept in the freezer so cocktails can be served very cold. This technique works well for martinis and drinks that include gin, vodka and/or vermouth.

Highball: A highball is a spirit served on ice with carbonated soda as a mixer.

Infusion: Spirits that have a special flavoring or ingredient added to them are known as infusions.

Neat: In the world of cocktails, "neat" refers to a single spirit or liqueur served on its own without ice, water or any other ingredients.

TASTY MEAL GETS KIDS COOKING IN THE KITCHEN

Cheddar Beef Enchiladas are a meal that can be prepared and enjoyed by the entire family. Featuring familiar ingredients presented in a new way, they can satisfy even the pickiest of eaters. Getting children to try new foods is not always easy. Kids have a tendency to be picky when it comes to the foods they eat, and many youngsters are reluctant to try all but the most familiar foods.

Getting kids to embrace a variety of foods may take time, but such a noble effort can produce successful results. Dining on different foods helps to develop the palate and also ensures that children are being exposed to an array of nutrients and vitamins that are essential for growing bodies.

One way to help children be more receptive to new foods is to involve them when choosing the menu and preparing meals. A youngster who went shopping, picked out foods and assisted in the kitchen may be more eager to try the final product than one who has not.

Mexican-inspired dishes may be one way to put new foods on the dinner table. "Cheddar Beef Enchiladas" from "Casseroles, Slow Cooker & Soups" by Taste of Home editors (RDA Enthusiast Brands) features familiar ingredients combined with some more exotic flavors. Enchiladas can appeal to picky eaters.

CHEDDAR BEEF ENCHILADAS

Yield: 2 casseroles (5 to 6 enchiladas each)

- 1 pound ground beef
- 1 envelope taco seasoning
- 1 cup water
- 2 cups cooked rice
- 1 can (16 ounces) refried beans
- 2 cups shredded cheddar cheese, divided
- 10 to 12 flour tortillas (8 inches), warmed
- 1 jar (16 ounces) salsa
- 1 can condensed cream of chicken soup, undiluted

In a large skillet, cook beef over medium heat until no longer, pink; drain. Stir in taco seasoning and water. Bring to a boil. Reduce heat; simmer, uncovered, for 5 minutes. Stir in rice. Cook and stir until liquid is evaporated.

Spread about 2 tablespoons of refried beans, 1/4 cup of the beef mixture and 1 tablespoon cheese down the center of each tortilla; roll up. Place seam-side down in two greased 13x9x2-inch baking dishes. Combine salsa and soup; pour down the center of the enchiladas. Sprinkle with remaining cheese. Bake one casserole, uncovered, at 350 F for 20 to 25 minutes or until heated through and cheese is melted. Cover and freeze remaining casserole for up to 3 months.

To use frozen casserole: Thaw in the refrigerator overnight. Cover and bake at 350 for 30 minutes. Uncover; bake 5 to 10 minutes longer, or until heated through and cheese is melted.

Cheddar Beef Enchiladas are a meal that can be prepared and enjoyed by the entire family. Featuring familiar ingredients presented in a new way, they can satisfy even the pickiest of eaters.

A FRESH TAKE ON MEATBALLS

Meatballs are a dish beloved by many. Some people prefer their meatballs atop a plate of steaming pasta, while others can't resist a meatball hero slathered in sauce.

Even those who aspire to eat less meat can enjoy meatballs thanks to the following recipe for "Albóndigas" (Spanish for "meatballs") from Joy Manning and Tara Mataraza Desmond's "Almost Meatless" (Ten Speed Press). Calling for only a half-pound of meat, this dish employs steel-cut oats to substitute for additional meat and to soak up flavor. Try it out and see if your guests can tell just how little meat this tasty dish contains.

ALBÓNDIGAS

Serves 4 to 6

1/2 cup steel-cut oatmeal
1/2 cup loosely packed fresh cilantro leaves, chopped, plus more for garnish
4 cloves garlic, minced (about 2 tablespoons), divided
1 chipotle in adobo sauce, seeded and chopped into a paste
4 teaspoons ground cumin, divided
2 teaspoons ground coriander, divided
Kosher salt and freshly ground black pepper
1/2 pound ground lamb
2 teaspoons olive oil
1 small onion, cut into 1/4-inch dice (about 1 cup)
1 28-ounce can crushed tomatoes
1 cup water
Juice of 1 lime

Mix together the oatmeal, the cilantro, half the garlic, the chipotle, 2 teaspoons of the cumin, 1 teaspoon of the coriander, 1 teaspoon salt, and 1/4 teaspoon pepper in a bowl. Gently work the lamb into the mixture, distributing it evenly. Form balls out of tablespoon-size scoops of the mixture and set aside.

Heat the oil in a Dutch oven or a large pot over medium-high heat. Add the onion and sauté for 5 minutes. Stir in the remaining garlic, cumin and coriander, cooking for an additional 30 seconds. Add the tomatoes and water and stir to combine. Bring the sauce to a simmer and add the meatballs. Simmer partially covered for 45 minutes. Season the sauce with salt and pepper to taste, squeeze the lime juice over the top and serve with extra chopped cilantro.

ADD SOME ZEST TO YOUR DESSERT TABLE

A refreshing dessert makes summer evenings that much more enjoyable. After a good meal, sharing dessert with friends and family can make for the perfect ending to a relaxing night. Those who want to add a touch of the tangy to their summertime dessert table should consider the following recipe for “Jamaica Lime Pie” from Helen Willinsky’s “Jerk from Jamaica” (Ten Speed Press).

JAMAICA LIME PIE

FILLING

- 4 large egg yolks
- 1 large egg white
- 1 14-ounce can sweetened condensed milk
- 1/2 cup fresh lime juice
- 1/4 teaspoon salt
- 1 partially baked 9-inch pie crust, chilled

MERINGUE

- 3 large egg whites
- 1/2 teaspoon cream of tartar
- 6 tablespoons sugar

To make the filling: In a medium bowl, beat the egg yolks and egg white until they are very thick and lemon-colored. Stir in the condensed milk, lime juice and salt until well blended. Pour into the chilled pie shell. Refrigerate for several hours to allow the filling to set.

Shortly before serving, make the meringue. Preheat the oven to 425 F. In a large bowl, beat the 3 egg whites with the cream of tartar until they form soft peaks. Gradually beat in the sugar, and continue beating until it is dissolved. By then the meringue should be stiff and glossy. Spread over the filling, being sure to seal the edges well so that the meringue will not shrink.

Bake for 5 to 7 minutes, or until delicately browned. Let cool away from drafts.
