

“My wish is peace and love toward all our neighbors, especially our immigrant neighbors.”
- Sherry Jordon

Jean: “It’s fairly simple. It’s the thing everybody wants, which is good health and happiness for my family and my kids. Nationally, just less anger, less division, and more unity.”

Noah, a computer science student at North Dakota State University: “I’m finishing up school, so just hopefully that goes well. My friends graduate as well. Find a job. But I don’t know, there’s not a lot to complain about right now, at least personally.”
