Late Laughs

The Late Show With Stephen Colbert

“Cheese Bro” and Powell [two of Trump’s lawyers] are set to testify against Trump, and reportedly that has shattered any sense of invincibility that the former president may be feeling. I would love to be there for that realization. [As Donald Trump] “Wait a second. You’re saying I’m not invincible. So you can see me right now, and you know that I’m in the women’s locker room.”

After the vote this afternoon [Oct. 25], House Republicans held a big self-congratulatory festival on the steps of the Capital. That’s not normal! They celebrated their momentous achievement of having a leader. That’s the sort of ceremony that’s usually celebrating the passage of Medicare or ending the war, instead this was announcing: We have found the key to the executive washroom. By the way, the little soapy thing is empty, but we will fill it!”

The man of the hour [Speaker of the House Mike Johnson] stepped up to the podium and gave a speech that historians will describe as having occurred.

The Tonight Show Starring Jimmy Fallon

The judge in former president Trump’s civil fraud trial fined Trump $10,000 for violating his gag order a second time and warned him not to do it again or it’ll be worse. Trump could be sentenced to jail. Or even worse, a brunch with Eric and Don Jr.

At a Taco Bell in Indiana, an employee was caught giving one of their co-workers a haircut in the kitchen. The only thing worse than finding one long hair in your food is finding 500 short ones, don’t you think? I actually prefer to spend a few extra bucks and get my hair cut at Chipotle.

A new report found that a bunch of chocolate products contain a concerning amount of lead and other heavy metals. In response, Hershey’s put out a statement that said, “You’re supposed to take the tin foil off, you moron.”

Jimmy Kimmel Live!

I wonder if Travis Kelce knows if he ever tries to end this relationship [with Taylor Swift], he’s dead. [Taylor’s fans will] kill him. It’s the dating equivalent of asking the mafia to go in on a restaurant.

This morning [Oct. 24], there was a series of closed-door voting sessions. The GOP whittled the field of nominees down from eight to one, Tom Emmer of Minnesota. They picked him and then they kicked him out in four hours. It was crazy. This morning, I didn’t even know who Tom Emmer was. Now, I still don’t.

After three long weeks with no one driving this filthy Greyhound bus we call America, we finally have a Speaker of the House and the gavel goes to ... Mike Johnson of Louisiana. [Crowd boos] I never heard of him, either.

Taylor Swift has a new Taylor Swift album coming out tomorrow [Oct. 27]. She’s releasing a cover version of her own album “1989.” It’s not just the name of the album, it’s also the number of times Taylor Swift can get people to buy the same album.

Late Night With Seth Meyers

Today [Oct. 23] marks the House’s third week without a Speaker. On the plus side, they’ve accomplished almost as much as when they had a Speaker for three months.

The remaining games of a youth football season in Tennessee were canceled recently after parents of opposing teams got into a fight and one man allegedly brandished a gun. While in Texas, that’s just a five-yard penalty.

Pepsi, over the weekend [Oct. 21-22], unveiled a new diner experience in New York to celebrate its 125th anniversary. Because nothing captures the diner experience more than finding out they only serve Pepsi.

A pest control company has unveiled its annual list of the rattiest cities, and New York City ranks third. We came in third?! Who got first place? 16th-century London?!

Life and death in the Midwest: Hamm, Temple join ' Fargo ' for fifth season

By Dana Simpson
TV Media

As anyone living in or visiting Alberta this past October can testify, the province is a great place to film a snowy series. And while the cast and crew of " Fargo " had long since finished filming by the time Calgary received its most recent unseasonable dumping of snow, TV audiences are just now about to witness the magic (and crime — lots of crime) for themselves. Season 5 of " Fargo " begins Tuesday, Nov. 21, with back-to-back episodes on FX. Episodes are available to stream the following day on Hulu.

Despite filming in Canada, the current season of the series created by Noah Hawley (" Legion ") is set primarily in North Dakota (as indicated by its title). Expected to run for 10 episodes, " Fargo's " fifth season is set in 2019, making it the series' most recent timeframe to date. (For those interested, seasons 1 through 4 take place in 2006, 1979, 2010 and 1950, respectively.)

Those unfamiliar with " Fargo " may not know that the critically acclaimed series is based on the 1996 film of the same name by the Coen Brothers (" Blood Simple, " 1984), which starred William H. Macy (" Shameless ") and Steve Buscemi (" Boardwalk Empire ") alongside Frances McDormand (" Three Billboards Outside Ebbing, Missouri, " 2017) in her Academy Award-winning role as police officer Marge Gunderson. Like the film, FX's " Fargo " is a black comedy, but rather than follow the same storyline as the film, the series opted to present its content as an anthology, jumping through timelines and to various locations in order to tell a series of related tales, each as unsettling — yet somehow inviting — as the next.

Season 5 stars Juno Temple (" Ted Lasso ") as Dorothy (Dot) Lyon, a Minnesota-based housewife who appears to lead a normal, happy lifestyle. But, when Dot ends up getting into trouble with the local authorities, her past comes back to haunt her — a past that is much more sinister than anyone would have expected from this average midwestern woman. As she tries to sort out the best course of action, Dot is pursued by North Dakota Sheriff Roy Tillman (Jon Hamm, " Mad Men "), Deputy Witt Farr (Lamorne Morris, " New Girl ") and a mysterious man named Ole Munch (Sam Spruell, " The Martian, " 2015).

Big names are attached to the project, to be sure, but longtime viewers of the series will have come to expect nothing less from " Fargo, " which cast the likes of Billy Bob Thornton (" Goliath "), Allison Tolman (" Why Women Kill "), Colin Hanks (" Life in Pieces ") and Martin Freeman (" Breeders ") in Season 1; Kirsten Dunst (" Melancholia, " 2011), Jesse Plemons (" Love & Death "), Patrick Wilson (" Insidious, " 2010), Jean Smart (" Hacks ") and Ted Danson (" The Good Place ") in Season 2; Ewan McGregor (" Trainspotting, " 1996), Mary Elizabeth Winstead (" 10 Cloverfield Lane, " 2016), Carrie Coon (" The Gilded Age ") and Davis Thewlis (" Landscapers ") in Season 3; and Chris Rock (" Spiral, " 2021), Jason Schwartzman (" The Darjeeling Limited, " 2007), Ben Wishaw (" Mary Poppins Returns, " 2018) and Jessie Buckley (" The Lost Daughter, " 2021) in Season 4.

With that said (or written, as the case would have it), Jennifer Jason Leigh (" The Woman in the Window, "

Jennifer Jason Leigh in " Fargo "

2021) joins the main cast as Dot's well-off mother-in-law, while " Stranger Things " Joe Keery and " Never Have I Ever's " Richa Moorjani step into the roles of the sheriff's son, Gator Tillman, and Deputy Indra Olmstead, respectively.

Meanwhile, David Rysdahl (" Openheimer, " 2023), Jessica Pohly (" Stalker "), Nick Gomez (" She-Hulk: Attorney at Law "), Lukas Gage (" The White Lotus ") and Dave Foley (" The Kids in the Hall ") star in recurring roles throughout the newest season.

And although the producers and casting directors once again managed to snag some serious star power for " Fargo, " many viewers and critics wondered if the series would be returning at all. On Nov. 29, 2022, the day the Season 4 finale aired, series creator Hawley was asked about his intentions to continue the anthology.

" The danger is always that you're going to stay at the dance a little too long, " Hawley replied, " so I have to put a lot of it in place in my head and really make sure that it's worthy of joining these 41 hours. "

Hawley continued, stating: " I don't want to try and make another one [season] unless I think, ' Oh, we have to make this one. It's the best one yet. " "

No doubt big words for a brand-new season, but hopes are high for all involved, from Hawley and the actors to those viewing each moment from the comfort and safety of their own sofas. But one element that has consistently kept viewers on their toes with Fargo is the tone of each coming season. When it comes to crime-heavy dramedies, it's often difficult to balance the grim and grit with a grin. Even Hawley admits that the tone changes from season to season, based on the content and characters.

" It's always a balance between how dramatic versus comedic it is, and this is the more comedic end of the spectrum, " Hawley said of Season 5 during an interview with The Hollywood Reporter published in August 2022. " I really love it. "

All in all, the biggest question to answer this season is: " When is a kidnapping a kidnapping, and what if your wife isn't yours? " (per the Hollywood Reporter).

Don't miss the most comedic, contemporary season of " Fargo " yet to hit the small screen — Season 5 of the six-time Primetime Emmy-winning series airs back-to-back premiere episodes Tuesday, Nov. 21, on FX.

Order up: Cult classic comedy sequel 'Good Burger 2' premieres

Kel Mitchel and Kenan Thompson star in "Good Burger 2"

By Sarah Passingham
TV Media

Dine in with a blast from the past when "Good Burger 2" premieres Wednesday, Nov. 22, on Paramount+. Stars Kenan Thompson ("Saturday Night Live") and Kel Mitchell ("All I Didn't Want for Christmas," 2022) return to their breakout comedic roles as Dexter Reed and Ed in the long-anticipated sequel to the classic 1997 family comedy film, "Good Burger."

Dexter and Ed first met at their summer restaurant job when "Good Burger" was a hit segment on the teen sketch comedy series from Nickelodeon, "All That," in 1994. Employees at Good Burger, the pair always managed to make a mess of things while trying to serve customers. The first film saw Dexter and Ed contend with a new burger joint in town, Mondo Burger, which employed some questionable tactics to best its competition.

In addition to Thompson and Mitchell reprising their roles, there are some "Good Burger" cast members joining the sequel. Josh Server ("The Final Rose," 2022) is Good Burger co-worker Fizz, Lori Beth Denberg ("Maurice on Mars") is customer Connie Muldoon and Carmen Electra ("Book of Fire," 2016) is former Mondo Burger mastermind Roxanne.

The sequel sees Ed pick Dexter up in a burger-themed ride after his invention proves to be a failure. With a minor fender bender in the rearview, the two pull into Good Burger, where Dexter is welcomed back to his old job with open arms. The happy reunion is short-lived, however, as corporate America has come for Good Burger's business. Eager to upgrade both himself and the restaurant, Dexter's big ideas set Good Burger on a collision course with seemingly unstoppable technological advancements in fast-food customer service.

"Good Burger 2" also stars Lil Rel Howery ("Vacation Friends 2," 2023) as Cecil McNevin and Jillian Bell ("Fool's Paradise," 2023) as Katt Boswell, two slick Mega Corp executives looking to replace human Good

Burger employees with robot replicas. The corporate world once again has it out for Good Burger, leaving Dexter and Ed no choice but to band together with the rest of their co-workers to keep their beloved restaurant the special place that it is.

In the official trailer for the film, Katt menacingly leans in to threaten Ed, saying, "We're going to change the world," at the counter of the robot testing facility. She's promptly hit in the face with a burger by a malfunctioning robo-server, so maybe Dexter and Ed have a chance to save Good Burger after all.

Also featured in the trailer are Ed's numerous mishaps in managing the restaurant. He sticks his hand in a customer's drink, uses janitorial items to fix the milkshake machine, tosses an order in the face of someone inquiring about veggie burgers and confuses the city Hong Kong for several unrelated things in a meeting at the Mega Corp offices.

Joining the sequel are Kamaia Fairburn ("Blockbuster") as Mia, Alex R. Hibbert ("Moonlight," 2016) as Ed2, NBA star Shaquille O'Neal; funk music innovator and Parliament-Funkadelic collective founder George Clinton; and "A Different World" star Sinbad as Dexter's teacher, Mr. Wheat. The official trailer for "Good Burger 2" highlighted the celebs that will roll through the sequel's drive-thru, including actress, comedian and "Nailed It" host Nicole Byer; former New England Patriots tight end Rob Gronkowski; standup comedian and "The Rookie" actor Flula Borg; billionaire businessman and "Shark Tank" panelist Mark Cuban; and social media comedian Matt Friend.

An official teaser trailer for "Good Burger 2" was released by Paramount+ in August and in it, Dexter and Ed are reunited by a near collision, referencing their unlucky meeting from the first film 26 years ago. Ed predictably embarrasses himself at a fine dining restaurant and the Good Burger duo don their paper caps and walk in sync with determination. The whole Good Burger crew joins Ed in his classic line, "Welcome to Good Burger, home of the good burger. Can I take your order?"

Thompson and Mitchell both produced "Good Burger 2" and Adam Conover ("Adam Ruins Everything"), Kevin Kopelow ("Kenan & Kel") and Heath Seifert ("Warped!") wrote the screenplay. The movie was filmed in Rhode Island and production was set up at a former Friendly's location to shoot some scenes.

Hope you're hungry for "Good Burger 2" when it drops on Wednesday, Nov. 22, on Paramount+. And if you can't get enough "Good Burger" hijinks, the original movie and the first four seasons of "All That" are also available on the streamer.

Fabrizio Guido ("Mr. Iglesias") as Mr. Jensen, Elizabeth Hinkler ("Tiny Beautiful Things") as Cindy, Emily Hinkler ("Follow Me," 2020) as Mindy and Anabel Graetz ("The Greatest Beer Run Ever," 2022) as Ruth.

The original movie featured cameos from the always-game former

'Squid Game: The Challenge' is the largest reality competition in Netflix's history

By Caroline Collacutt
TV Media

Green light: In this game, the competition gets deadly — but only in its fictional iteration. Netflix's all-new reality series, "Squid Game: The Challenge," makes its worldwide debut Wednesday, Nov. 22, with all 10 episodes streaming on the platform.

Originally a South Korean series, "Squid Game" premiered on Netflix in September 2021, garnering massive audiences, as the platform boasted that 142 million households worldwide tuned in to watch, totaling at least 1.65 billion hours of viewing within its first month of release.

Since then, fans of the series have debated strategies and statistics to succeed in a real-life iteration of the game, eager to try their hand at participating in the competition — that is, without the deadly consequences of competing in the original, fictional games.

Fear not, eager players, because Netflix has heard you loud and clear: "Squid Game: The Challenge" is here to transform the series into what is said to be the biggest reality competition ever produced, one where the only life-changing consequence is the chance to become a multimillionaire.

"Through a series of games, each player will be pushed to their limits and forced to ask themselves just how far they'll go to win, with opportunistic alliances, cutthroat strategies and timely betrayals to follow," a recent news release from Netflix describes.

Games include many seen in the series itself — like Red Light, Green Light, including the massive (and massively iconic) animatronic doll, Young-hee — but the competition brings new tests to the Squid Games, some of which can be seen in the series trailer, all reminiscent of childhood but cutthroat nonetheless.

Depending on the outcome of each game, players are eliminated, and soon hundreds of contestants are narrowed down to the final few, as the remaining fight for the clear, cash-stuffed piggy bank hanging over their shared dormitory beds.

"I'm going to be your best friend, but I will absolutely double-cross you," one contestant says in the series trailer, another remarking: "People's true colors are starting to come out."

"In the end, only one will walk away with the prize. And to make millions, they'll first have to make friends and even more enemies along the way," Netflix teases.

Bringing the massive, fantastical game to life, "Squid Game: The Challenge" premieres Wednesday, Nov. 22, on Netflix.

Sanders speaks: An Amazon Original sports documentary, this feature delves into the life, career and mysteriously sudden disappearance of one Hall of Fame running back — Detroit Lions player Barry Sanders — who shocked stadiums when he suddenly walked away from professional football in 1999: "Bye Bye Barry" premieres Tuesday, Nov. 21, on Prime Video.

"When NFL superstar Barry Sanders vanished at the height of his career, he left the NFL world in shock," the platform describes. "He was still in his prime, chasing the all-time NFL rushing record when he boarded a flight to England and never stepped foot on the field again. Now, 24 years later, Barry retraces his steps through the streets of London to finally confront the mystery."

Directed by Paul Monusky ("NFL 100 Greatest"), Micaela Powers ("3 Games to Glory VI," 2019) and Angela Torma ("NFL Rush"), the documentary features appearances by Eminem ("The Slim Shady LP," 1999) and Jeff Daniels ("Dumb and Dumber," 1994), alongside, of course, unprecedented access to Sanders himself.

"Over the last year I have been filming the definitive movie on my life with @PrimeVideo & @AmazonStudios — The great mystery of why I walked away will be answered once and for all. Stream #ByeByeBarry on November 21st," Sanders posted to X, back in September of this year.

According to an article written in the Detroit News, "[Sanders] retired with 15,269 rushing yards and was primed to top Walter Payton's all-time rushing record of 16,276 yards before his surprise retirement in 1999." The article also states that he is now No. 4 on the all-time list, listed just below Frank Gore, and Peyton and Emmitt Smith, reminding readers that the 10-time Pro Bowl honoree, six-time All-Pro and four-time NFL rushing leader was elected to the Pro Football Hall of Fame in 2004, his first year of eligibility.

In fact, Sanders is such a beloved player that an eight-foot bronze statue of him now stands outside of Ford Field in Detroit.

According to Forbes magazine, the documentary "features Sanders himself retracing his steps through the streets of London where he flew to after suddenly giving up on his sparkling NFL career, finally explaining why he did what he did."

Produced by USA Hockey executive director Pat Kelleher ("Man in the Arena"), Ross Ketover ("Inside the NFL"), Ken Rodgers ("Hard Knocks"), NFL Network CEO Brian Rolapp, "Bye Bye Barry" premieres Tuesday, Nov. 21, on Prime Video.

Morgan, along with Dr. Kendi, "guide viewers through a searing account of how racist tropes and imagery were developed and enshrined in American culture" (Netflix).

"Hope Street" - Season 3

The mysteries continue when Season 3 of the BBC crime drama "Hope Street" premieres Wednesday, Nov. 22, on the BritBox Prime Video channel. Set in the fictional town of Port Devine on the coast of Northern Ireland, the series follows the town's police department as they team up with a series of outsiders to solve mysteries in the area. Along the way, local law enforcement gets caught up in the exploits of Port Devine's locals. While Season 1 starred Amara Karan ("Lucky Man") as mysterious outsider DC Leila Hussain and Season 2 featured undercover agent DC Al Quinn (Stephen Hagan, "Lucky Man"), Season 3 introduces Karen Hassan ("Vikings") as Jo Lipton, a new detective inspector who arrives in town alongside new police constable Ryan Power (Finnian Garbutt, "Casualty"). As the new season revisits the old trials and tribulations of the Port Devine police department, the newcomers do their best to join ranks and put crimes to rest. The series' returning cast includes Ciarán McMenamin ("Primeval") as Insp. Finn O'Hare, Kerri Quinn ("Three Families") as Sgt. Sometimes friendships can come from the strangest of places. This Friday, Nov. 24, on Prime Video, get into the holiday season with "Elf Me." This Italian film follows Elia (Federico Ielapi, "Pinocchio," 2019), a shy boy that suffers endless bullying. One fateful evening, Elia meets Trip (Pasquale Petrolino, "D.N.A.: Decisamente non adatti," 2020), an unconventional elf with a knack for making weapons instead of toys. As outcasts in their communities, the two come together to discover the value of true friendship. In addition to Ielapi and Petrolino, Anna Foglietta ("Perfect Strangers," 2016), Giorgio Pasotti ("Abbi Fede," 2020), Caterina Guzzanti ("Tutta la vita davanti," 2008), Claudio Santamaria ("Casino Royale," 2006), Fabio Rovazzi ("Il vegetale," 2018), Vincenzo Sebastiani ("L'ultima volta che siamo stati bambini," 2023), Giulietta Rebergiani ("Bad

Tommaso Arrighi ("Christian"), Jacopo Saraceni ("Freaks Out," 2021) and Serena Sostegni ("18 Presents," 2020) are executive producers.

Once a spy, always a spy. Pierce Brosnan ("The World Is Not Enough," 1999) returns to international espionage in "The November Man," which joins the Prime Video catalogue Saturday, Nov. 25. Based on the seventh book in Bill Granger's series of spy novels of the same name, Brosnan plays former CIA agent Peter Devereaux. Devereaux's retirement is cut short when his former boss (Bill Smittrovich, "Ted," 2012) requests his services to protect Natalia Ulanova (Mediha Musliovic, "Twice Born," 2012), the aide to the Russian President-elect. While protecting Natalia, Devereaux comes into the crosshairs of his protégé, David Mason (Luke Bracey, "Point Break," 2015). What ensues is a deadly

Oppenheimer

The leading scientist on the Manhattan Project, J. Robert Oppenheimer (Murphy) reflects on his life, family and career when wrestling with the complicated implications of his life's work. A genius physicist, tasked by Gen. Leslie Groves (Damon) to develop a weapon capable of concluding World War II, Oppenheimer and his team travel to Los Alamos, New Mexico, in turn reshaping the course of human history. In the aftermath of the war, his reputation now marred by political rivals, including U.S. Atomic Energy Commission member Lewis Strauss (Downey Jr.), Oppenheimer solemnly ponders whether humanity's greatest scientific accomplishment is secretly the key to humanity's destruction. *Director: Christopher Nolan. Julia Child takes the cake in 'Chopped'

By Caroline Collacutt
TV Media

Sixteen chefs, one iconic kitchen: an all-new season of this fan-favorite cooking competition honors one of the greatest names in cooking, as "Chopped" returns with new Julia Child-inspired episodes. "Chopped: Julia Child's Kitchen" airs new episodes Tuesdays on Food Network.

"Julia Child was a chef, instructor, author and legend! Even today she influences modern chefs to achieve greatness and push themselves to be their best," Food Network recently shared. "In this competition, four Julia Child fans compete in a preliminary battle with baskets inspired by Julia's recipes."

Keeping to the same format as usual "Chopped" seasons, this "Child-ish" competition features three rounds, in which four chefs must use random and often unusual "mystery basket ingredients" to complete a tasty dish. Each round, one chef is eliminated until only two remain, together facing the judges in the final dessert round, where one is finally crowned the winner.

This — "Chopped's" 55th season — will feature a panel of rotating judges, said to include the likes of Scott Conant (chef, host of "24 Hour Restaurant Battle"), Susan

Ted Allen from "Chopped: Julia Child's Kitchen"

Feniger ("Too Hot Tamales"), Amanda Freitag ("Iron Chef America"), Alex Guarnaschelli ("Ciao House"), Nilou Motamed ("Top Chef"), Michael Voltaggio ("Bobby's Triple Threat") and Isabella Rossellini (who stars in "Julia," premiering its second season two days later on Max). Each episode will also see the arrival of four new chefs, with each winner moving on to the tournament's finale, where the final four will fight for a grand prize of $25,000 and a Julia Child-themed dream trip to France.

Upcoming episodes of the series feature bright and bold flavors — some Julia herself would never approve of — as the series' second episode promises that "citrus and a salad are part of the puzzle in the appetizer round, and the three chefs who make it to the entrée round must make use of some unusual powder and fancy mushrooms," while a description for the third episode shares that: "The chefs get an unusual piece of chicken and a potato product that would have made Julia cringe."

However, in a season featuring fish stew, veal, processed cheese and more, host Ted Allen learns that the stinkiest thing of all might just be his cohorts' Julia Child impressions.

As the chefs continue their journeys to France — and practice their accents — "Chopped: Julia Child's Kitchen" premieres an all-new episode, Tuesday, Nov. 21, on Food Network.

Monday Best Bets

Reba McEntire from "The Voice"

CONCACAF Nations League Soccer

TNT 7:00 PM

It didn't look like a fair fight the last time Trinidad and Tobago faced the United States Men's soccer team in July as the U.S. won 6-0. This time, from Q2 Stadium in Austin, Texas, the U.S. hopes things go the same way behind captain Christian Pulisic.

The Voice

5 8:00 PM

Before the playoffs begin, this special episode revisits Season 24's best moments, from the blind auditions through the knockout rounds. Some hilarious never-before-seen footage is included, spotlighting moments with both the coaches and the singers.

NFL Football

22 ESPN 8:00 PM

It's a rematch of Super Bowl LVII and could very well be a preview of Super Bowl LVIII as the red-hot Philadelphia Eagles visit Arrowhead Stadium in Kansas City, Kan., to take on the defending champion Kansas City Chiefs and quarterback Patrick Mahomes.

Holiday Baking Championship

FOOD 8:00 PM

You can bet Thanksgiving means food and football to Jesse Palmer, so he challenges the bakers to create holiday seven-layer desserts inspired by his favorite snack. Then, the bakers make pies to win over judges Carla Hall, Duff Goldman and Nancy Fuller.

“Spellbound” - Season 1, Part 2

Embrace the magic of the action fantasy tween series “Spellbound” when it premieres the second installment of its first season Monday, Nov. 20, on Hulu. When 15-year-old Cece Parker Jones (new talent Hailey Romain) relocates from a small town in the U.S. to France to study at the Paris Opera Ballet School, she’s on top of the world. But, things turn upside down for Cece when she discovers a book of family spells in the back room of her aunt’s apothecary — and unknowingly casts an antidote to a spell that has been keeping her safe her whole life. Learning that she is descended from a line of powerful witches called the Wizens — and that her rivals, called the Mystics, are after her magic — Cece must now juggle the pressures of an elite ballet school, intense academics, friendships and crushes, all while learning how to handle her incredible, newfound ability to activate magic and keeping it a secret from her friends. From “Find Me in Paris” creators Jill Girling and Lori Mather-Welch, “Spellbound” also stars Rik Young (“Find Me in Paris”), relative newcomer Margherita Barbieri (“Love Sarah,” 2020), Sam Darius (“Coroner”), Zac Gabriel Werb (“The Stand Up Sketch Show”), Raven Dauda (“Star Trek: Discovery”), Malou Beauvoir (“Imani’s Story,” 2022), Cameron James-King (“Miss Peregrine’s Home for Peculiar Children,” 2016), Imogen Mackie Walker (“Karen Pirie”) and new talents Abigail O’Regan, Etienne Moana and Gomolémo Tsaгаé.

“Elf” (2003)

Do you know your food groups? Candy, candy canes, candy corn and syrup, of course. Celebrating 20 years of Christmas magic, John Favreau’s (“Iron Man,” 2008) “Elf” (2003) will be available to stream on Hulu as of Thursday, Nov. 23. Starring Will Ferrell (“Barbie,” 2023) as the titular elf — Buddy — this film follows as one of Santa’s (Edward Asner, “The Mary Tyler Moore Show”) many helpers learns he has been adopted, and travels from the North Pole to New York City in order to find his human parents. There, Buddy meets his curmudgeon of a biological father, Walter (James Cann, “The Godfather,” 1972), and learns that Walter — along with the city at large — could benefit from his joyful Christmas spirit. With a screenplay written by David Berenbaum (“The Haunted Mansion,” 2003), “Elf” also stars Bob Newhart (“Newhart”), Zooley Deschanel (“500 Days of Summer,” 2009), Mary Steenburgen (“Time After Time,” 1979), Daniel Tay (“American Splendor,” 2003), Peter Dinklage (“Game of

“National Lampoon’s Christmas Vacation” (1989)

The jolliest bunch this side of the nuthouse: Keep the holidays hilarious with the Griswolds, as “National Lampoon’s Christmas Vacation” (1989) will be available to stream, Thursday, Nov. 23, on Hulu. Now a Christmas classic, this Jeremiah Chechik (“Benny & Joon,” 1993) directed, John Hughes (“The Breakfast Club,” 1985) produced film was based on Hughes’ own short story, “Christmas ‘59,” published in the National Lampoon magazine in 1980. Within the decade, Hughes’ piece came to life, as the magazine developed the story into the third installment of their “Vacation” film series. “Christmas Vacation” follows the Chicago-based Griswolds, led by patriarch Clark (Chevy Chase, “Caddyshack,” 1980) and his wife, Ellen (Beverly D’Angelo, “Violent Night,” 2022), as the group prepares to celebrate an unforgettable Christmas, complete with over-the-top gifts thanks to Clark’s incoming Christmas bonus. When the couple’s parents arrive, however, soon followed by Ellen’s cousin and her unusual family, chaos erupts for all — including the Griswold’s neighbors — making the holidays a whole new kind of “unforgettable.” This “Vacation” installment also stars Juliette Lewis (“Yellowjackets”), Johnny Galecki (“The Big Bang Theory”), Randy Quaid (“Independence Day,” 1996) and Julia Louis-Dreyfus (“Seinfeld”).

Hollywood Q&A

By Adam Thomlison
TV Media

Q: I watched a movie a couple of years ago about two brothers who get away from a cult but decide to go back. Horror stuff ensues. I want to watch it again, but I can't remember the name.

A: Your search is at an "end": The movie you're looking for is 2017's "The Endless."

It's not surprising that it made such an impression on you. "The Endless" is one of those very rare examples of a low-budget sci-fi/horror movie that actually got excellent reviews.

It debuted at New York's Tribeca Film Festival, where it was nominated for a jury award — also uncommon for this kind of genre movie.

Most of this praise landed on two heads: Justin Benson and Aaron Moorhead, who directed, produced, wrote, edited and starred in the movie. (They said they multitasked like that to rein in the costs of the independently financed film.)

Now that you know the name of the movie, there's more good news: as is often the case with indies like this, it's available to watch on a lot of streaming services.

While you're there, you could also look up some of Benson and Moorhead's other work. Most notably, 2012's "Resolution" got similarly strong reviews and is actually set in the same "world," according to the creators.

Q: I just started rewatching "Moonlighting" and it's made me wonder what Cybill Shepherd is doing these days.

A: Cybill Shepherd, the former cover model who became a film star who then became a sitcom star, is in the midst of the longest, quietest phase of her phoenix-like career: freelance star for hire.

Her resume is basically a series of fast rises to prominence and equally fast falls from it. But after recovering from the last drop — after the cancellation of her once-celebrated sitcom “Cybill” in 1998 — she’s now settled into a more sustainable kind of profile. She pops up in sitcoms and TV movies every so often, but always in a featured role that befits her fame.

Her most recent gig, for example, was the Lifetime movie “How to Murder Your Husband” (2023), a very notable film by Lifetime standards. It co-starred fellow ‘80s icon Steve Guttenberg (“Police Academy,” 1984) and was based on the true story of a novelist convicted of killing her own husband in a way that was reminiscent of the plots of her books.

Prior to that, she popped up in one episode of the buzzy Paramount+ drama “Guilty Party” in 2021, playing the protagonist’s mother.

Those are the kinds of roles that have characterized this phase in her career: They’re not landing her on the front pages of the trade magazines, but that’s not necessarily a bad thing. Those front pages haven’t always been kind.

After she shot to fame in the ‘70s with leads in classics “The Last Picture Show” (1971) and “Taxi Driver” (1976), those entertainment magazines found glee in writing about the series of flops that followed. The cycle repeated itself a decade later when, after returning to the spotlight in hit series “Moonlighting” and “Cybill,” she fell from grace again, with reports of difficult on-set behavior.

With all that behind her, a calmer career phase filled with lower-profile, well-received performances is probably a welcome change.

Q: What is Jamie Lannister from “Game of Thrones” doing now? He was everywhere for a while, but now he’s kind of disappeared.

A: There were a lot of options available to the cast of HBO’s “Game of Thrones” after the smash-hit series ended in 2019. Nikolaj Coster-Waldau chose to go home.

Coster-Waldau played Jamie, a villain-turned-antihero character who became a fan favorite.

Like just about everyone else in the cast, Coster-Waldau was mostly unknown in North America before joining the show, though he was an established star in his native Denmark. But soon, he was being offered major Hollywood parts.

He took a few of them in the show’s lengthy off-seasons, including big-budget dramas such as “Oblivion” (2013) and “Gods of Egypt” (2016).

But whether it was the (relative) lack of success of those films or because he just got homesick, after “Thrones” ended, Coster-Waldau returned to Scandinavia to resume his film career there.

He’s since starred in a couple of films there, including the oddball restaurant-biz drama “A Taste of Hunger” (2021) and the historical drama “Against the Ice” (2022), which he also produced and wrote.

That’s not to say he’s sworn off North America entirely. Earlier this year, he had a tiny cameo as a pizza guy in the comic book movie “The Flash” — that’s about as Hollywood as it gets.

And he’s currently doing pre-production work on a Canadian series
