Late Laughs

The Tonight Show Starring Jimmy Fallon (R)

A JC Penney in Pennsylvania had to be closed temporarily after a deer entered the store and got into a dressing room. That story again: JC Penney is so empty, it's actually being reclaimed by nature.

Costco is selling the world's largest jigsaw puzzle. It's 29 feet long, eight feet tall and 60,000 pieces. Yup, the bottom left corner goes on your coffee table, the bottom right goes in Zimbabwe.

Essentia water has teamed up with a boxed wine company to sell water and wine in one box. ... In a related story, they're currently being sued by Jesus.

President Biden pardoned all people convicted of possessing marijuana under federal law, signaling a major step towards legalization. I'm pretty sure Biden's approval rating is about to get high for the first time.

In the aftermath of hurricane Ian, President Biden traveled to Florida and met with Gov. Ron DeSantis, even though DeSantis has been highly critical of Biden. It's like that special episode of a Disney sitcom where the school bully realizes he needs help with his math homework. He's like, "I'm sorry I called you those names ..."

Jimmy Kimmel Live! (R)

Biden fulfilled a campaign promise and pardoned all prior federal offenses for marijuana possession. The move stops short of full decriminalization, which will probably have to wait until we have a President Woodrow Harrelson or something. ... I, for one, am just glad Willie Nelson is alive to see this happen.

Herschel Walker, if you don't know, is the very pro-life former football star running for Senate in Georgia. ... The Daily Beast reported that he paid for an abortion in 2009. ... At this point, Herschel Walker has misrepresented so much of his life they should give him the "Lies-man trophy."

Congresswoman Marjorie Taylor Greene [is] getting divorced. She and her husband, Perry Greene, filed for divorce after 27 years. ... His original sentence was 30 years, but the judge shaved three years off for good behavior. In the space where he had to state the reason for the divorce, he wrote "I am married to Marjorie Taylor Greene."

NASA went full "Armageddon" (1998) and successfully hit an asteroid with a spacecraft, in what is — they say — the world's first planetary defense mission. Which is exciting news for everyone other than the Space Force. They were like, "Can't you let us have anything?"

Late Night With Seth Meyers (R)

The car company Rezvani has announced a new $250,000 SUV called the Vengeance, which has options for body armor, explosive protection and night vision. So, come hell or high water, your kids will get to soccer!

Al Pacino is reportedly closing a deal with a publisher to write a book. It will be the first autobiography written in all caps.

According to a new book, former president Trump would tell White House visitors that he had a secret bathroom. And visitors would tell him, "Sir, that's just a closet."

After receiving criticism from viewers, Netflix removed the LGBTQ tag from its new series about serial killer Jeffrey Dahmer. On the downside, they left the food and travel tag.

President Biden's plan to forgive $10,000 per borrower in Federal Student Loan debt will cost nearly $400 billion, or in student loan terms, $27 per month for 30 billion years.

Republican Congressman Matt Gaetz announced that he is starting his own Twitch streaming channel and tweeted, "I'm joining Twitch to bring my America-first message to a new generation of voters." Previously, the only way he reached a new generation of voters was on Venmo.

Beyond time and space: 'Loki' returns with uncontrollable powers

By Sarah Passingham
TV Media

We've all done the time warp and explored the multiverse, but it's high time to sort out the timeline. A brand-new season of "Loki" premieres Friday, Oct. 6, on Disney+. Tom Hiddleston ("The Essex Serpent") returns as the God of Mischief, everyone's favorite troublemaker, Loki, who has developed a mysterious problem this season.

Owen Wilson ("Haunted Mansion," 2023) is back as Mobius M. Mobius, the Time Variance Authority agent tasked with helping Loki right his wrongs across the multiverse. The first season of "Loki" saw the Norse God meet his match in an alternate version of himself. Sophia Di Martino ("The Electrical Life of Louis Wain," 2021) is Sylvie, a variant of Loki who interrupts the Sacred Timeline. After coming together to set things right across space and time, Loki returned to what he thought would be the TVA headquarters he left before his mission, but something still wasn't right.

In the official trailer for the upcoming season, Mobius brings Loki to a repair shop of sorts, manned by TVA repair guy OB, portrayed by Ke Huy Quan ("American Born Chinese"). Before the pair have time to explain what's brought them there, Loki suddenly, uncontrollably disappears in a timeslip, leaving Mobius looking to OB for an answer. "It's impossible to timeslip in the TVA," is all he can say, though they just watched it happen.

"Loki" executive producer Kevin Wright told Entertainment Weekly in September that "[OB's] job is basically every piece of tech, every computer, every thing that is running at the TVA. ... He either designed it or he fixes it and keeps it running." Having recently picked up an Academy Award for Best Supporting Actor in 2022's "Everything Everywhere All At Once," Quan is well suited to help repair another multiverse.

While Quan's character is the latest to join Loki's crew as he chases chaos across the multiverse, several cast members return for the new season, including Gugu Mbatha-Raw ("Surface") as Ravonna Renslayer, an ambitious judge in the TVA who oversees Loki's case. Literally backing up Loki at one point in the season's trailer alongside Mobius, Sylvie and OB is Wunmi Mosaku ("We Own This City") as Hunter B-15. Eugene Cordero ("Star Trek: Lower Decks") returns as Hunter K-5E, former TVA receptionist.

The upcoming seasons also star Neil Ellice ("Halo 4: Forward Unto Dawn") as Hunter D-90, Jonathan Majors ("Creed III," 2023) as He Who Remains and Tara Strong ("Teen Titans Go!") as the voice of Miss Minutes. Rafael Casal ("Blindspotting"), Kate Dickie ("Annika") and Liz Carr ("Silent Witness") all join the cast this season in as-yet-named roles.

Odd couple Mobius and Loki unsurprisingly have different approaches to their world-saving mission spanning space and time. While the former admits in the "Loki" teaser trailer that he prefers his "slow, deliberate, cerebral approach" honed by years in the bureaucracy of the TVA, while the Norse god is "a man of action, which is fine." Unconvincing, given Loki is the source of the destruction that they are trying to stave off.

While Disney has remained characteristically tight-lipped about the new season of "Loki" ahead of its premiere, Mbatha-Raw promised in a December 2022 interview with Entertainment Tonight that fans "are gonna be in for a real treat because the show is bolder and more surreal." She added that the upcoming season "goes to some bigger, bolder places than Season 1, which is really exciting." Wright promised something similar in his September EW interview, saying, "We made a weird show [in Season 1], and people responded to how weird it was ... so, we wanted to push it further."

Marvel introduced the multiverse in the 2016 movie "Doctor Strange," and since its release, it has opened up a far-reaching world of timelines and possibilities within the Marvel universe. The later so-called "phases" of the Marvel Cinematic Universe following the 2016 film utilize time travel to connect Marvel films and TV series.

Following the wildly successful first foray into a Marvel live-action TV series with "WandaVision" in 2021, Disney and Marvel architects have been turning to the episodic format to expand on stories that simply can't be done justice in the films. Wright told EW, "In our [Marvel] movies, sometimes you have to keep moving forward very rapidly to get to the next thing."

Embracing the extra hours in a season of TV that you can't fit into a theatrical release works for a complicated, expansive story like the one in "Loki," Wright adds, "Here it's like: 'No, we can sit in these moments.' And dramatically, that's an exciting thing."

Though Majors currently faces allegations of domestic violence, his character, Kang the Conqueror, is seen in the "Loki" trailer as variant Victor Timely, and Wright confirmed that he is "a big part of the show" in the upcoming season.

Plant yourself firmly onto the couch, try not to timeslip and tune in to the "Loki" Season 2 premiere when it drops on Disney+, Friday, Oct. 6.

Missing no more: Procedural drama takes sinister turn in 'Found'

By Dana Simpson
TV Media

According to NamUS's October 2022 report, in the United States, approximately 600,000 people are reported as missing annually — no doubt a much higher number than many of us might expect.

As true crime aficionados and law enforcement can likely attest, only a fraction of these missing people are ever found, and with each passing hour, their cases become more and more dire. Thankfully, there are a handful of people in the world who are equipped with the skills and knowledge to help, and one such person — on screen, at least — is Gabi Mosely, the leading character in NBC's newest procedural drama "Found," premiering Tuesday, Oct. 3.

Played by "Shameless" star Shanola Hampton, Gabi is a hard-working, determined public relations expert who specializes in finding Americans who have been reported as missing. As she leads a team of professionals in their shared noble work, Gabi does her best to parse her own past as a missing person. That said, Gabi's methods for dealing with her demons could arguably use a bit of work.

As viewers quickly learn, Gabi has turned the proverbial tables on her former captor and has taken him hostage for a change — not exactly legal, but certainly satisfying. Now, despite her outwardly calm and put-together exterior, Gabi must hide the fact that she has a man, known only as "Sir" (played by "Saved by the Bell's" Mark-Paul Gosselaar), tied up in her very own basement while she seeks justice for the remainder of the missing Americans on the register.

To make matters even more intriguing, Gabi has a plan for Sir.

Convinced that, as a former abductor himself, Sir knows the ins and outs of the criminal psyche and its various resulting behaviors, Gabi enlists his help as a consultant. With each new case she brings home, Sir is forced to help her find the victims of these heinous abductions and turn the kidnapers over to the authorities for investigation, (hopefully) a guilty verdict and sentencing.

While "Found" was originally scheduled for a Feb. 19 premiere this year, NBC announced the show's postponement in mid-January, believing it to be better suited to an autumn release.

"After watching the first few episodes of 'Found,' it quickly became clear that our love for this show has continued to grow and grow with each step of the process," Susan Rovner, chairman of entertainment content for NBCUniversal television and streaming, said in a January news release.

"Our goal is always to find the absolute best home for all our series, and it's particularly the case with one as important as this," Rovner continued. "By moving it to fall, we're able to better leverage our resources, including lead-in and marketing muscle, enabling us to launch 'Found' to the largest possible audience across all our platforms."

As a result of this shift, "Found" premieres immediately following a new Season 24 episode of the hit singing competition "The Voice" and joins other series on NBC's fall docket, including Season 2 of the sci-fi reboot "Quantum Leap," Season 5 of the Hawaii-set procedural "Magnum P.I." (both premiering Oct. 4), Season 3 of the Canadian medical drama "Transplant" (premiering on NBC Oct. 12) and new episodes of "The Wall" (beginning Nov. 3).

A new season of "Dateline" also premieres on the network, alongside new series "The Irrational" (which premiered Sept. 25) and broadcasts of the One Chicago and Law & Order franchise procedurals.

As for "Found," the series is expected to do well in the ratings while hopefully drawing some much-needed attention to the shocking number of people still registered as missing in the United States. Despite 2021 being marked by Statista Research Department as the year with the "lowest number of missing person files in the U.S. since 1990," the June 2023 report still noted more than 521,000 people missing by the end of 2021, many of them people of color.

It is also important to note that this number is once again on the rise, as last year alone, "546,568 missing person records were entered into National Crime Information Center," according to the FBI website.

The cast and crew of "Found" certainly have their work cut out for them with such an important topic. Thankfully, series stars Hampton and Gosselaar have some help bringing awareness to the subject. Kelli Williams ("The Practice"), Brett Dalton ("Agents of S.H.I.E.L.D."), Arlen Escarpeta ("The Oath"), Gabrielle Walsh ("9-1-1") and Karan Oberoi ("Counterpart") star as cohorts of Gabi's, helping her in her hunt for justice, while Azaria Carter ("P-Valley") stars as teenaged Gabi in flashbacks.

Bill Kelly ("True Detective"), Sterling Jones ("Barbie," 2023), Rena Maliszewski ("CODA," 2021), Mike Whaley ("Under the Dome") and Monique Grant ("Swagger") also star.

Don't miss the series premiere of "Found," NBC's newest and arguably most poignant procedural, when it airs Tuesday, Oct. 3, on the network. Those who wish to stream the series on Peacock can find it the following day on the platform.

'AFV' nears 900 episodes with premiere of 34th season

By Caroline Collacutt
TV Media

Caught on tape: With countless hosts, more than 850 episodes and decades of history on broadcast television, "America's Funniest Home Videos" returns with new episodes when Season 34 premieres Sunday, Oct. 1, on ABC.

As we prepare for the return of funny animal videos and pranks gone wrong, Season 1 of this series — the network's longest-running prime-time entertainment show — often feels like it aired in the not-so-distant past. "AFV," however, is now legally old enough to drive, to vote, to rent a car — and no matter how it changes and grows, it tickles our funny bones just the same way.

What started as a television special in 1989 (itself based on the Japanese variety show "Fun TV with Kato-chan and Ken-chan") quickly became a regular weekly series, as Bob Saget ("Full House") took the lead as host and welcomed American viewers to the quirky world of "AFV." Since its inception, the show's format has stayed mostly the same, shining a spotlight on everyday people as viewers, fans and pranksters alike submit hilarious home videos involving everything from outrageous physical comedy and wildly intelligent toddlers to "trick shots" gone wrong and marriage proposal mishaps.

The submitted clips are played in front of a live studio audience who then vote on the funniest videos of the week. Each episode, the first palace winner is awarded a cash prize and offered the opportunity to return for the series' next competition round, where they vie for a much larger prize — now, a purse set at $100,000. This continues until the end of the season, when previous winners compete for even more cash and an exclusive, all-inclusive vacation package.

Some little details, however, have changed. Saget retired after Season 8, when "AFV" then ran occasional special episodes hosted by various actors and comedians. Two years later, Tom Bergeron ("Hollywood Squares") took on the role, then acted as the face of "AFV" for the next 15 years.

Current viewers would recognize "Dancing with the Stars" alum Alfonso Ribeiro (also of "The Fresh Prince of Bel-Air") as the series' latest steadfast captain. Ribeiro hosted through the series' historic 30th season and saw the show make history as it pivoted to operate during the COVID-19 pandemic, introducing a new segment called "AFV@Home."

Now back in the studio for a second year, Season 34 continues offering larger-than-ever cash prizes, knee-slapping hilarity and more. "America's Funniest Home Videos" returns with new episodes, premiering Sunday, Oct. 1, on ABC.

Lucrative lovers: "Desperately Seeking Soulmate: Escaping Twin Flames Universe" premieres Friday, Oct. 6, on Prime Video.

Directed by two-time Primetime Emmy-winning filmmaker Marina Zenovich ("Lance," 2020), the series is inspired by journalist Alice Hines' investigation and subsequent Vanity Fair article, "Everywhere I Went, They Went With Me, Because They Were on My Phone," this three-part documentary series unveils the dark and twisted truth behind the Twin Flames Universe — an "alleged online love cult," as Prime Video describes it.

The Twin Flames Universe — a group run by a pair of Michigan suburbanites, YouTube influencers Jeff and

Alfonso Ribeiro from "America's Funniest Home Videos"

Shaleia Divine — is a site that promises to match members with their perfect partner. Throughout her investigation, however, Hines went on to discover a much more complicated truth, as former participants described the extreme measures expected of them in order to claim their "twin flame" (their soulmate, so to speak).

In her article, Hines described: "Students shared their relationship problems while Jeff and Shaleia extracted sublime truths about their hopes and traumas. Subscriptions to the full run of this therapeutic reality show, and its offshoots, currently cost $4,444. The appeal of Twin Flames Universe was that you could have what Jeff and Shaleia apparently had, what Shaleia called 'a deeper level of oneness,' a Harmonious Twin Flame Union." The manipulation — financial, emotional, spiritual and otherwise — continued from there, according to past subscribers.

On the surface, the group offered benefits to patrons that seemingly outweighed the cost. Hines shared: "Twin Flames Universe yielded perks beyond romance. Students shared stories of miraculous transformations. Some made money, found new careers, healed their depression. They did it without visiting Jeff and Shaleia in person. These were miracles that could be accessed from the comfort of your computer chair" — comforts that cost some upwards of $10,000 in program fees alone. For others: a much larger, personal cost.

A series description from Prime Video shares: "With real-life testimony from former members, exclusive video footage with the group's leaders Jeff and Shaleia, as well as sit-downs with families of those who remain involved, this spellbinding docuseries recounts the origin story of Twin Flames Universe through the present day — where the group remains active. From encouraging rabid pursuit of exes to attempting to influence members' sexual orientations and gender identities, each episode uncovers a new shocking truth behind this online community."

Love is a battlefield — for these singles, more than most. The series premiere of "Desperately Seeking Soulmate: Escaping Twin Flames Universe" airs Friday, Oct. 6, on Prime Video.

"Lupin" - Part 3

The high-stakes adventure continues when "Lupin" Part 3 premieres on Netflix, Thursday, Oct. 5. The French crime thriller continues along with the story of Assane Diop (Omar Sy, "Jurassic World," 2015), a gentlemanly burglar inspired by the adventures of Arsène Lupin, who set out on a mission to avenge his father's death and take down the wealthy family behind his murder at the beginning of the series. Now, in hiding, Assane must learn to live far from his wife and son. But with the whole family suffering because of his actions, Assane can't stand it any longer and returns to Paris to make his family a life-altering proposal: leave France entirely and start a new life elsewhere. In order to earn their fresh start, they'll have to outrun the ghosts of Assane's past. From creator and writer George Kay ("Criminal: UK"), "Lupin" is directed by Ludovic Bernard ("The Climb," 2017), Podz ("Cardinal") and Xavier Gens ("Frontier(s)," 2007). Ludivine Sagnier ("The Young Pope"), Antoine Gouy ("Inside"), Soufiane Guerrab ("Step by Step," 2016) and Shirine Boutella (Miskina, la pauvre") also star.

"Everything Now" - Season 1

Make the most of life with the new British teen comedy-drama series "Everything Now" when it premieres Thursday, Oct. 5, on Netflix. The show follows 16-year-old Mia (Sophie Wilde, "Talk To Me," 2022), who is thrust right back into the chaotic world of sixth-form school after months away in recovery for an eating disorder. With a new lease on life, three best friends and a new crush, Mia throws herself head-first into a world of dating and parties — armed with a creative and ever-evolving bucket list — discovering that not everything in life can be planned for. Created by new talent Ripley Parker, the series is written by Parker, Roanne Bardsley ("Hollyoaks"), Dylan Brady ("Get Even") and Glenn Waldron ("Fracture"), and is directed by Alyssa McClelland ("One Step Closer to Home"). The cast of "Everything Now" also includes Niahm McCormack ("The Magic Flute," 2022), Sam Reuben ("Trust Me"), George Greenland ("Muse," 2021) and Kiran Krishnakumar ("Jamie Johnson").

"Fair Play" (2023)

Chloe Domont's ("Ballers") feature debut — both written and directed by the filmmaker — stars Phoebe Dynevor ("Bridgerton") and Alden Ehrenreich

Sophie Wilde stars in "Everything Now"

("Hail, Caesar!," 2016) as a young couple on the brink of a horrific breakup. The 2023 erotic thriller, "Fair Play," will be available to stream Friday, Oct. 6, on Netflix. Emily (Dynevor) and Luke (Ehrenreich) are newly engaged and seemingly happy, but an unexpected promotion at a cutthroat hedge fund causes them to unravel and pushes them to make decisions neither thought possible. Having premiered at the 2023 Sundance Film Festival before being acquired for distribution by the streaming platform, "Fair Play" received high praise from reviewers, earning an impressive 90% rating on the review aggregator website Rotten Tomatoes. Described as a "steamy, razor-wired, barking-mad movie" by IndieWire, the film also stars Eddie Marsan ("Happy-Go-Lucky," 2008), Rich Sommer ("The Devil Wears Prada," 2006), Sebastian De Souza ("The Great"), Sia Alipour ("Tehran"), Yacine Ramoul ("Extinction"), Brandon Bassir ("The Batman," 2022), Jamie Wilkes ("Living," 2022), Freddy Sawyer ("Life After Life"), Geraldine Somerville ("Gosford Park," 2001), Patrick Fischler ("Mad Men"), Laurel Lefkow ("The Diplomat"), Buck Braithwaite ("Flowers in the Attic: The Origin"), Jim Sturgeon ("The Witcher"), Linda Ljoka ("If I Stay," 2014), Leopold Hughes ("Glass Onion," 2022) and many more.

"Beckham"

The new, four-part sports documentary, "Beckham," makes its debut on Netflix Wednesday, Oct. 4. Telling the story of the international football star, who has become a cultural icon, the series takes an inside look at the man behind the talent, including unprecedented access to David, his family, his friends and his teammates. Digging deep into David Beckham's life — from his humble working-class beginnings in east London to his high-profile family with Victoria Beckham, a.k.a. Posh Spice — "the series takes you on that rollercoaster and builds a surprising, personal and definitive story of one of the most recognizable and scrutinized athletes of all time" (per Netflix). Directed by Fisher Stevens ("Palmer," 2021), the series is executive produced by Beckham himself, along with Stevens and John Battsek ("Searching for Sugar Man," 2012).

"Totally Killer" (2023)

It's a terror-filled blast from the past in Prime Video's new horror comedy film, "Totally Killer," premiering on the Amazon streaming platform Friday, Oct. 6. Thirty-five years ago, the infamous "Sweet Sixteen Killer" (Adrian Persad, "X-Men: Days of Future Past," 2014) murdered three teens before fading into the background. Now the killer makes his return on Halloween night to claim a fourth victim. When 17-year-old Jamie (Kiernan Shipka, "Mad Men") ignores her overprotective mom, Pam's (Julie Bowen, "Modern Family"), warning and comes face to face with the masked maniac, she accidentally time travels back to 1987, the year the original killings took place. Teaming up with her teen mom (Olivia Holt, "Cruel Summer"), Jamie and Pam must take down the killer once and for all before she's stuck in the past permanently. Also starring Charlie Gillespie ("Julie and the Phantoms"), Lochlyn Munro ("Riverdale"), Troy L. Johnson ("Big Sky"), Liana Liberato ("Scream VI," 2023), Kelcey Mawema ("To All The Boys I've Love Before," 2018), Stephi Chin-Salvo ("Critters: A New Binge"), Anna Diaz ("Our Christmas Journey," 2021), Ella Choi ("Dare Me"), Jeremy Monn-Djasngar ("Cruel Summer"), Nathaniel Appiah ("Ghosts"), Jonathan Potts ("The Strain") and Randall Park ("Fresh Off the Boat"), the film is directed by Nahnatchka Khan ("Fresh Off the Boat"), with a screenplay by David Matalon ("The Clearing," 2020), Sasha Perl-Raver ("Let's Get Merried," 2021) and Jen D'Angelo ("Workaholics").

"2001: A Space Odyssey" (1968)

Stanley Kubrick's ("The Shining," 1980) iconic, cinematic masterpiece from 1968, "2001: A Space Odyssey," is now available to stream on Prime video. Having won Kubrick Academy awards for Best Director and Special Visual Effects, the film documents the epic journey of a spacecraft sent to Jupiter in search of the origin of an inexplicable artifact found buried beneath the Lunar surface. The craft – the Discovery One – is manned by astronauts David "Dave" Bowman (Keir Dullea, "David and Lisa," 1962) and Frank Poole (Gary Lockwood, "Model Shop," 1969), who must obey a strict schedule of 12-hour shifts, allowing one to sleep while the other keeps watch. While awake, the men's only company is that of HAL 9000 (voiced by Douglas Rain, "Universe," 1960), the supercomputer in control of the ship's every operation, responsible for keeping the pair alive. With every word, "HAL" bridges the gap between human and machine, gaining consciousness and abilities the astronauts never expected. Based on the short story "The Sentinel" – written by Arthur C. Clarke, published in 1951 – "2001: A Space Odyssey" stars William Sylvester ("Gorgo," 1961), Daniel Richter ("The Revolutionary," 1970), Margaret Tyzack ("Match Point," 2005), Robbery Beatty ("Labyrinth," 1986), Sean Sullivan ("The Dead Zone," 1983) and more.

"10 Things I Hate About You" (1999)

There are so many things to hate – but this film isn't one of them. The beloved, 1999 romantic comedy, "10 Things I Hate About You" is now available to stream on Prime Video. Starring Julia Stiles ("Save the Last Dance," 2001), Heath Ledger ("The Dark Knight," 2008), Joseph Gordon-Levitt ("Inception," 2010) and Larisa Oleynik ("Erin & Aaron"), this Gil Junger ("Black Knight," 2001) directed film is a modernization of William Shakespeare's "The Taming of the Shrew," retold through the eyes of American teenagers. A timeless story, the film follows as new student Cameron (Gordon-Levitt) finds himself infatuated with his fellow classmate, Bianca (Oleynik). In order to bypass her father's strict dating rules, Cameron enlists the school's bad boy, Patrick (Ledger), asking him to date Bianca's anti-social (and highly uninterested) sister, Kat (Stiles). With a cult following that remains over two-decades later, this film, written by Karen McCullah ("The House Bunny," 2008) and Kirsten Smith ("Trinkets"), also stars David Krumholtz ("Oppenheimer," 2023), Andrew Keegan ("Independence Day," 1996), Susan May Pratt ("Drive Me Crazy," 1999), Daryl Mitchell ("Inside Man," 2006), Allison Janney ("The Help," 2011) and more.

Prey
Worlds collide when a violent alien predator (DiLiegro) stalks a Comanche tribe, pushing young warrior Naru (Midthunder) to her limits in a test to determine the ultimate warrior. Raised in a family of skilled Great Plains hunters, Naru unknowingly draws the target of a vicious alien-hunter, out on pilgrimage seeking worthy warrior opponents to battle. As the technically advanced predator stalks his prey, Naru must use her wilderness expertise to best her alien adversary in a violent showdown. Director: Dan Trachtenberg. Stars: Amber Midthunder, Dakota Beavers, Michelle Thrush, Stormee Kipp, Julian Black Antelope, Dane DiLiegro, Stefany Mathias, Bennett Taylor, Nelson Leis. 2022. 100 mins. Action.

Mob Land
Local sheriff Bodie Davis (Travolta) is thrown into a storm of criminal jealousy and revenge when two desperate locals incite the ire of a New Orleans mobster. Pushed to his limit, struggling family man and aspiring race car driver Shelby (Fernandez) plots to rob a criminal stash-house, teaming up with his brash brother-in-law, Trey (Dillon). When the initially easy score goes haywire, the pair flee to protect their family. Alerted by the robbery, a relentless mafia enforcer, Clayton Minor (Dorff), sets out to track down the pair and reclaim his rewards. *Director: Nicholas Maggio. Sunday Best Bets

Homer Simpson from "The Simpsons"

America's Funniest Home Videos

(22) 7:00 PM
Host Alfonso Ribeiro is back for the season premiere of the show that makes groin shots and animal antics a lucrative scenario. From babies saying the darnedest things to once-in-a-lifetime moments caught on film, one videographer can earn $20,000.

Yellowstone

(3) 8:00 PM
Kevin Costner stars as patriarch John Dutton in an episode from Season 1. While Kayce (Luke Grimes) and Monica (Kelsey Asbille) deal with a death in the family, a secret about John is revealed. Meanwhile, Tate (Brecken Merrill) has a close call.

The Simpsons

(44) 8:00 PM
The Season 35 premiere brings back Homer, Marge, Bart, Lisa, and baby Maggie — Springfield's favorite banana-hued family — for more insanity. America's longest-running animated series is back with biting satire and an uncanny ability to tell the future.

Heist 88

show 9:00 PM
Timing is everything. Buddha Ray (Keith David) is a criminal mastermind who decides to pull one last job before going to prison. So he recruits a bright young group of bank employees to steal millions in a clever raid that rocks the banking system.

'Outrageous Pumpkins' searches for its next jack-o-lantern champion

By Caroline Collacutt
TV Media

Damaris Phillips ("Food Network Star" winner, Season 9) expands her search for the greatest of Great Pumpkin carvers as Season 4 of "Outrageous Pumpkins" continues, airing new episodes Sundays on Food Network.

During the season premiere — which aired Sunday, Sept. 24 — eight talented pumpkin carvers joined Phillips on the series' spooky carving stage, all eager to become the next "Outrageous Pumpkins" champion. The artists immediately began their first challenge: creating the most elaborate porch display in the neighborhood, showing off their unique artistic view in order to introduce themselves to judges Ralph Attanasia ("Cake Boss") and Terri Hardin ("Men in Black, 1997"). Only the most distinct, creative and downright spooky will continue, as eliminations take place following each round.

This week's episode — the second of four — follows the remaining carvers as they try their hand at defying gravity. A summary listed on Food Network describes: "Host Damaris Phillips is all about everyone's favorite Halloween decoration, the jack-o-lantern, so she tasks the carvers with creating topsy-turvy, gravity-defying stacks of jacks. Then in the 'Big Carve,' the competitors must impress judges

Damaris Phillips from "Outrageous Pumpkins"

Ralph Attanasia and Terri Hardin with a spooky jack-o'-lantern skeletal structure to stay safe from elimination."

As the season continues, Phillips challenges the artists to carve three-dimensional pop culture pumpkins and sculptures that highlight iconic fashion eras — even watching on as the final few bring (according to Food Network) "common literary phrases with a deadly twist to life for the judges."

From 3D to DC, the final five carvers must call for superhuman strength as they attempt to depict a scene from DC's "Batman," with the titular crime-fighter facing off against one of his iconic enemies as he tries to save Gotham City.

By the grand finale, only half of the competitors will remain, as the final four carvers must impress Attanasia and Hardin in not one, but two rounds. First, Phillips tasks the group with "creating the winning monster entry in the Miss/Mr. Underworld Pageant, complete with pageant talent," says Food Network, continuing: "Then, it's time for giants on parade as the competitors transform 2,000-pound Atlantic Giant pumpkins into a spooktacular Halloween parade float."

Whoever can complete this last, massive feat and impress judges best earns the championship title and all its glory, including a $25,000 cash prize and the coveted "Outrageous Pumpkins" championship belt — a worthy feat for any Halloween heavyweight.

Season 4 of "Outrageous Pumpkins" continues through October, with new episodes airing Sundays on Food Network.

Mia (Wilde), brother Riley (Bird) and her best friend, Jade (Jensen), encounter a severed, embalmed hand at a party. Partaking in a game where spirits can temporarily possess the living by holding the mysterious hand, Mia and her friends take turns channeling the dead. Fascinated with this supernatural rush, they push things too far and exceed the limits of safe possession. Unleashing evil spirits that target them back, Mia must save her family when the ghosts don't appreciate being played with.

Monday Best Bets

Jaime Camil from "Loteria Loca"

Kitchen Nightmares

(12) (44) 8:00 PM

Here's Gordon! After a (seemingly) never-ending hiatus, celebrity chef Gordon Ramsay has returned to his most volatile series, sharing cold hard truths with struggling restaurant owners across the country as he hits the road and tries to help them thrive.

Lotería Loca

(3) 9:00 PM

This series premiere (based on the traditional Latin game of chance Loteria) features two contestants going head-to-head by choosing random cards that either add up to large prizes or, with a "Loca Card," reveal a twist in the form of new challenges.

The Irrational

(5) 10:00 PM

Season 1 continues with a new episode, following world-renowned behavioral science professor Alec Mercer as he utilizes his unique expertise in psychology, body language, emotion and human decision-making to help solve difficult, high-stakes cases.

Cursed Films

AMC 11:00 PM

The film was a masterpiece, but the tragic aftermath of Roman Polanski's "Rosemary's Baby" was more than most could handle. First came the death of a young composer. Then came the rise of the Manson Family, who killed Polanski's wife and unborn child.

Tuesday Best Bets

John Legend from "The Voice" The Voice

⑤ 8:00 PM
The 24th season of everyone's favorite singing competition is set to dazzle — with one difference, however, as long-time coach Blake Shelton has retired from his role, now welcoming country superstar Reba McEntire to take over his vocal responsibilities.

Inside the NFL

WPIX 8:00 PM
On the air for nearly five decades — originally airing in 1977 — this series showcases weekly highlights, behind-the-scenes content and exclusive footage, allowing unprecedented access to players as they take part in lively discussions of the game.

Becoming Frida Kahlo

③③ ⑤⑦ 9:00 PM
In this finale, Frida Kahlo's later life is explored, including her affair with Leon Trotsky, her trip to Paris on the eve of World War II with Andre Breton, and her return to Mexico where she divorces, then remarries, Diego Rivera before her death.

FBI True

③ 9:00 PM
Offering an in-depth look at cases investigated by real-world FBI agents, this episode delves into the harrowing story of a five-year-old boy who was held captive by an armed killer — a man keeping the boy in a bunker filled with dangerous explosives.

Wednesday Best Bets

Raymond Lee and Francois Arnaud in "Quantum Leap"

Quantum Leap

8:00 PM

The present day revival of the beloved '90s sci-fi adventure series returns with its Season 2 premiere. Dr. Ben Song (Raymond Lee) is currently lost in the time stream. He must correct history in order to make the world a better place and get back home.

Chucky

USA 9:00 PM

Our favorite red-headed murderous cabbage patch is back in this Season 3 premiere and he's headed to the Beltway to take Washington, D.C., by storm. When you're a short doll, your access to power is only as limited as the reach of your knife.

The Spencer Sisters

9:00 PM

During the first episode of this new series, Darby's (Stacey Farber) friend is accused of plagiarism, and Darby and Victoria (Lea Thompson) must put aside their differences to investigate, uncovering a wide-ranging scandal and their future as detectives.

American Horror Story: Delicate

FX 10:00 PM

After multiple failed IVF attempts, actress Anna Victoria Alcott (Emma Roberts) wants nothing more than to start a family. As the buzz around her recent film grows, she fears that something may be targeting her and her pursuit of motherhood.

“Ash vs. Evil Dead” – Complete Series

Can you say “Necronomicon”? On second thought, maybe don’t. It’s best to let sleeping zombies lie... unless you’ve got a chainsaw on hand. All three seasons of “Ash vs. Evil Dead” will be available to stream on Hulu as of Sunday, Oct. 1. Having aired from 2015 - 2018, this series brought the “Evil Dead” franchise from big screen to small, expanding on the apocalyptic adventures of one seemingly invincible man: Bruce Campbell (“Army of Darkness,” 1992) reprises his role as Ashley “Ash” J. Williams, a character first introduced during the franchise’s first film (“The Evil Dead”) back in 1981. Fast forward 30 years, and Ash is skillfully avoiding everything – responsibilities, maturity, his terrifying past encounters with the undead. That is, until a Deadite plague threatens the future of mankind, he must confront his past demons (both literal and metaphorical) once and for all. From creators Sam Raimi (“Spider-Man,” 2002), Ivan Raimi (“Drag Me to Hell,” 2009) and Tom Spezialy (“The Leftovers”), this re-animated reboot also stars Ray Santiago (“Meet the Fockers,” 2004), Dana DeLorenzo (“Tacoma FD”), Lucy Lawless (“Xena: Warrior Princess”), Lee Majors (“The Fall Guy”), Ted Raimi (“Twin Peaks”) and many more.

Emily Hampshire stars in “Appendage”

“Appendage” (2023)

What began as a six-minute short has grown into something far more gruesome – filmmaker Anna Zlokovic’s (“Shorty,” 2016) debut feature, “Appendage” (2023), premieres Monday, Oct. 2, on Hulu. This horror stars Hadley Robinson (“Little Women,” 2019) as twenty-something-year-old Hannah, a driven and aspiring fashion designer who finds herself in an awful predicament when her boss’ biting critiques – often mirroring of her own dark thoughts – manifest into something much more sinister... something that comes from deep within. A Hulu Original film, “Appendage” also stars Emily Hampshire (“12 Monkeys”), Deborah Rennard (“Dallas”), Kausar Mohammed (“Monster High”), Annie Pisapia (“Fresh Kills,” 2023), Pat Dortch (“Sam & Kate,” 2022), Carrie Stauber (“Brave New World,” 1998), Adam Butterfield (“A Kid Like Jake,” 2018), Ashley Rose Rolino (“Living with Yourself”), Daniel Chioco (“Switched,” 2020) and Craig Kolkebeck (“Three Bad Men,” 2005).

“Undead Unluck” - Season 1

The stars align for some of the planet’s unluckiest inhabitants in the anime series “Undead Unluck,” premiering on Hulu, Friday, Oct. 6. Based on the Japanese manga series of the same name, written and illustrated by Yoshifumi Tozuka, “Undead Unluck” follows Fuuko Izumo (voiced by Kahara Moe, “How a Realist Hero Rebuilt the Kingdom”), who is fed up with her special ability, unluck, unintentionally killing people. But when she meets Andy (voiced by Yuichi Nakamura, “My Hero Academia”), a man who longs for death but can’t die, she finds a reason to live and he finds someone capable of giving him the death he’s been longing for. The series voice cast also includes Aoi Yuki (“Erased”), Natsuki Hanae (“Demon Slayer: Kimetsu no Yaiba”), Tomokazu Sugita (“Gintama”), Nobuhiko Okamoto (“My Hero Academia”), Rie Kugimiya (“Fullmetal Alchemist: Brotherhood”), Rikiya Koyama (“Detective Conan”), Mariya Ise (“Hunter x Hunter”), Kenji Nomura (“Golden Kamuy”) and Koji Yusa (“Ergo Proxy”).

Sophie Thatcher and Vivien Lyra Blair in “The Boogeyman”

“The Boogeyman” (2023)

Starring Sophie Thatcher (“Yellowjackets”), Vivien Lyra Blair (“Obi-Wan Kenobi”), Chris Messina (“Argo,” 2012), David Dastmalchian (“Dune,” 2021) and more, the 2023 horror film, “The Boogeyman,” will be available to stream on Hulu as of Thursday, Oct. 5. From director Rob Savage (“Host,” 2020), this supernatural flick is based on a short story of the same name (written by Stephen King in 1973) and follows as the remaining members of the Harper family – sisters Sadie (Thatcher) and Sawyer (Blair), alongside their therapist father, Will (Messina) – struggle to overcome the sudden and unexpected death of their mother and wife. In the midst of their grief, a troubled man visits Will’s office and explains that a sinister entity caused the deaths of his own three children... and that the same entity, “The Boogeyman,” may now be attached to the Harpers as well.

Hollywood Q&A

By Adam Thomlison
TV Media

Q: When is "The Great" coming back?

A: All screen biographies have to struggle with how (and whether) to age their heroes. Catherine the Great ruled Russia for decades, into her late 60s. But Hulu's "The Great" has seemed determined to only tell the story of a young Catherine (played by Elle Fanning, "The Beguiled," 2017), and so it has decided now is as good a time as any to end.

Of course, it likely wasn't just a storytelling decision. The show has played fast and loose with historical facts so far, so it could have carried on as long as it wanted. And so Hulu's decision seems certainly to have been at least partly business-driven.

We don't really know how popular it was (the streamers don't often release viewership data), but we do know it remained beloved by critics.

The show's third season (now its last) earned great reviews, some saying it was even better than the first two — L.A. Weekly's Erin Maxwell said it took the show to "new heights." And that's saying something, as the first two seasons brought the show a stack of Emmys and other awards.

But it was a good time in another way: Though the writers didn't know "The Great" was being canceled ahead of this most recent season, they nonetheless ended it with a bit of closure. It ended with Catherine showing some growth, with a new haircut to reflect it, and with no kind of cliffhanger to keep viewers on the hook.

And given the show was always built around Catherine's struggle to develop as a ruler, and to build a working marriage with the emperor (Nicholas Hoult, "Mad Max: Fury Road," 2015) — and given that she made progress on both fronts in the third season — it was becoming clear the show couldn't go on forever.

Q: Is Mariska Hargitay doing anything besides "Law & Order: SVU"? Some actors take other roles in the off-season.

A: Det. Olivia Benson keeps Mariska Hargitay busy enough as it is.

Hargitay has played Benson on "Law & Order: Special Victims Unit" since all the way back in 1999, but she also plays her on the various spinoffs, related shows and even a few comedy shows that bring her in for a gag.

She's appeared on three of the "Law & Order" spinoffs — most recently doing 13 episodes of "Organized Crime," which features Benson's old partner, Elliot Stabler (Christopher Meloni). She's also done two of the "One Chicago" shows, "Chicago P.D." and "Chicago Fire," thereby merging the two televised universes created by mega-producer Dick Wolf.

Her character is, of course, deadly serious, but Hargitay has been able to have fun with it a few times. She appeared in character on the short-lived Pop TV comedy series "Nightcap" in 2017, and then in 2019 on the more venerable "Saturday Night Live."

It's possible Hargitay feels like she already showed her range before joining "SVU." She appeared in dozens of TV shows and a few movies before landing the role.

For example, she did a lengthy arc on the prime-time soap "Falcon Crest" in 1988, starred in the short-lived sitcom "Can't Hurry Love" in 1995, and did an arc on the smash-hit med show "ER" in 1997. The big-screen roles were less prestigious, though she broke into the scene in a big way in 1984, with a role in the cult-classic gross-out film "Ghoulies" (1984).

Q: Why haven't I seen Michael Fassbender in anything lately?

A: Because you haven't been keeping up on your American Samoa soccer history, apparently. And also because he's been taking a bit of a break.

Michael Fassbender's ("Steve Jobs," 2015) only on-screen role in the past four years has been in the independently produced sports comedy "Next Goal Wins," about the American Samoan soccer team.

But in his defense, that came after a lengthy run of mega-budget movies, which included being part of three huge franchises. He was young Magneto in the X-Men universe starting with "First Class" (2011), he became part of the Alien franchise via its prequel, 2012's "Prometheus," and he starred in 2016's "Assassin's Creed," based on the smash-hit video game.

After all that, it seems he wanted to take a breather. But now, having caught his breath, he's about to be very high-profile again.

In just a few weeks, Netflix will release "The Killer," an assassin drama directed by action auteur David Fincher ("Se7en," 1995), with Fassbender as the titular assassin.

And he's also reportedly going to appear in the next film by rom-com
