Late Laughs

The Late Show With Stephen Colbert

One problem: you're [Donald Trump] asking for the endorsement of someone you almost got killed [Mike Pence]. That's like if Jigsaw's victims left a Yelp review: "Very challenging escape room! Two thumbs up, if I still had thumbs!"

According to the literature, the [proposed Noah's Ark] museum is a place where children can learn that dinosaurs were passengers on the Ark. Yes, many early humans had dinosaurs as pets. It's right there in the Book of Hanna-Barbera: "And the Lord spake to Hezekiah: have thou a yabba dabba doo time, a dabba doo time, we'll have a gay old — wait not that part!"

When kids come to my door and just hold out their bag silently. I say, "What do you say?" And if they say, "Please," I shut the door cuz that's not how any of this works, okay? There was a clear social contract. You are there to represent a spirit and demons sent to terrify me with eldritch horrors. And I will fend you off with a supplication of sweets, representing earlier cultures' animal sacrifices to the Elder Gods. A "treat" to stop your "trick." How hard is that for children to understand? I'm not the bad guy here; you get raisins.

The scandal is that DeSantis isn't wearing the boots for fashion. No, America's top cobblers believe that inside his boots, DeSantis is probably wearing height-boosting insoles. No, this is a true scandal! This is the greatest political height scandal since we found out Lincoln wore that hat to hide his stove pipe forehead.

President Biden has been busy this week. On Monday [Oct. 30], he signed an executive order to oversee AI. And there is no one I trust more to save us from the rise of the machines than Joe Biden, as long as none of those machines is a bicycle.

The Tonight Show Starring Jimmy Fallon

Over the weekend [Oct. 28-29], Mike Pence officially suspended his 2024 presidential campaign. Which raises an interesting question: can you stop something that never started?

Yesterday [Oct. 30], Florida Gov. Ron DeSantis denied rumors that he's been wearing lifts in his boots to make himself taller. Maybe that's why he hates Disney. They won't let him ride any of the rides.

I read that Marvel has been struggling for the past few years and is considering bringing back the original cast of "The Avengers" for a new movie. Yeah, but this is smart: to make sure the movie's a hit, the Avengers will assemble at a Taylor Swift concert.

Today [Nov. 2], The Beatles released a new song called "Now and Then," [which] features all four members of the band. For younger viewers who don't know how huge The Beatles were, just imagine four Taylor Swifts in matching suits.

Late Night With Seth Meyers

Former Vice President Mike Pence announced on Saturday [Oct. 28] that he is ending his presidential campaign, and said, "This is not my time." But only because his time is the 1950s.

Ahead of Donald Trump Jr.'s testimony in the Trump Organization's ongoing civil fraud trial, former president Trump attacked the judge in an early morning post today on Truth Social and warned him to "leave my children alone," adding, "you know, like I did."

In a new podcast interview, Florida Gov. Ron DeSantis was asked if the cowboy boots he is often photographed wearing have heels, and he would have walked straight out of that interview if his arches weren't killing him.

The Texas Rangers defeated the Arizona Diamondbacks last night [Nov. 1] to win the World Series, which came as a shock to Mets fans who thought baseball ended in August.

According to an analysis of his personal financial disclosures, House Speaker Mike Johnson does not have a bank account. He keeps trying to open one, but no one at the bank will believe his name is Mike Johnson.

Picking up speed: MI-5 agents ramp up in third season of 'Slow Horses'

By Dana Simpson
TV Media

Christopher Chung in "Slow Horses"

The phrase "You can't teach an old dog new tricks" may or may not be true, but Apple TV+ has proven that at least when it comes to horses, even the slowest ones can gain speed. Based on the Slough House book series by English novelist Mick Herron, "Slow Horses" begins its third season with two fresh episodes Friday, Dec. 1, on Apple TV+.

The first season of the series, led by Gary Oldman ("Darkest Hour," 2017), kicked off on the streamer in April 2022 and made good use of Herron's first Slough House novel, "Slow Horses," for which the show is named. Season 2 continued the author's saga, taking its plot details from the literary series' second book, "Dead Lions." Now, heading into its third season to be released within a year and a half, the newest installment will follow the tradition of pulling content chronologically from the novels, this time focusing on Herron's "Real Tigers," the third book in the series.

On screen, the spy dramedy follows a group of aging and/or disgraced MI-5 agents, who all appear to have lived out their usefulness within the high-ranking British espionage organization. As such, the agents have been relegated to another department, "known un-affectionately as Slough House," where a large part of their job involves sitting behind a desk and pushing papers, a low-stakes operation for agents who have made "career-ending mistakes."

For those who have found themselves interested in the series but have not yet made the multi-season commitment, the show's biggest star was happy to give somewhat of a rundown on the overall vibe of the series in a recent interview with Deadline's senior awards editor, Antonia Blyth. Oldman, whose interview can be heard in full on the March 13, 2023, episode of Deadline's podcast "20 Questions: On Deadline," said that "Slow Horses" is a bit like "'Tinker Tailor Soldier Spy' meets 'The Office.'"

Slough House is headed up by "brilliant but misanthropic leader" Jackson Lamb (Oldman) and also acts as a sort of workplace home to recovering alcoholic Catherine Standish (Saskia Reeves, "Luther"); former activist Roddy Ho (Christopher Chung, "Waterloo Road"); Louisa Guy (Rosalind Eleazar, "Uncle Vanya," 2020), assigned to Slough House following a botched tailing job; and River Cartwright (Jack Lowden, "Dunkirk," 2017), whose desire to redeem himself in the field set the tone for the premiere season.

Other agents have come and gone over the seasons, including Jed Moody (Steven Waddington, "Jamestown"), Struan Loy (Paul Higgins, "Apostle," 2018), Min Harper (Dustin Demri-Burns, "Cardinal Burns"), Shirley Dander (Aimee Ffon-Edwards, "Peaky Blinders"), Marcus Longridge (Kadiff Kirwan, "This Is Going to Hurt") and Sidonie "Sid" Baker (Olivia Cooke, "Bates Motel"), the last of whom was a competent MI-5 agent assigned to Slough House for seemingly unknown reasons.

Headed into Season 3, many Season 1 and/or 2 characters are expected to return, including Lamb, Cartwright, Ho, Guy and Standish, along with MI-5 director general and head of operations, Diana Taverner (Kristin Scott Thomas, "Gosford Park," 2001); Cartright's grandfather, retired intelligence officer David Cartwright (Jonathan Pryce, "Pirates of the Caribbean: The Curse of the Black Pearl," 2003); and MI-5 agent James (Spider) Webb (Freddie Fox, "Victor Frankenstein," 2015). Supporting characters Harper, Dander and Longridge are also scheduled for a Season 3 return.

In terms of plot, Apple TV+ notes that the newest season of "Slow Horses" features "a romantic liaison in Istanbul [that] threatens to expose a buried MI-5 secret in London. When Jackson Lamb and his team of misfits are dragged into the fight, they find themselves caught in a conspiracy that threatens the future not just of Slough House but of MI-5 itself."

Some of the best news for fans of the show, however, is that Season 4 is also confirmed. Renewed for back-to-back seasons in June 2022, the Season 4 confirmation could mean a more dramatic end to Season 3, as writers know that the show is definitely returning. Beginning strong with a two-episode premiere, the third season releases episodes weekly until Dec. 29. While the Season 4 release date has yet to be announced, entertainment sites expect it to arrive sometime in 2024.

"Slow Horses" is created from the source material by "Medici" writers Mark Denton and Jonny Stockwood, "Damned" writer and actor Morwenna Banks, and "Veep" and "The Tick of It" writer Will Smith. Across its two seasons to date, the spy dramedy has earned a total of five BAFTA nominations, "including Oldman's first for Best Lead Actor" and a Best Supporting Actor nod for Lowden.

According to the Apple TV+ news release, "the series has also been recognized with BAFTA nominations for Best Editing: Fiction (Katie Weiland); Best Original Music: Fiction (Daniel Pemberton and Mick Jagger); and Best Sound: Fiction (Martin Jensen, Joe Beal, Duncan Price, Craig Butters, Sarah Elias and Andrew Sissons)."

New cast members joining "Slow Horses" for Season 3 include Sope Dirisu ("Gangs of London"), Katherine Waterston ("Perry Mason"), Hugo Weaving ("V for Vendetta," 2006) Joanna Scanlan ("How to Talk to Girls at Parties," 2017), Ruth Bradley ("Ted Lasso"), Tom Brooke ("The Death of Stalin," 2017) and James Callis ("Bridget Jones's Baby," 2016).

Don't miss the opportunity to catch a few "Slow Horses" when Season 3 releases its first two episodes Friday, Dec. 1, on Apple TV+. After all, the horses may be slow, but they won't stay that way forever.

Revisiting 'Australia': Film gets a revamp in new series 'Faraway Downs'

By Sarah Passingham
TV Media

Nicole Kidman in "Faraway Downs"

We all roll our failures over in our minds from time to time, so it would make sense that even blockbuster film directors are no different. In cultural memory, the 2008 epic drama "Australia" has remained a dim corner in director Baz Luhrmann's spectacular filmography, which includes massive hits such as "Romeo + Juliet" (1996) and "Elvis" (2022). Luhrmann went back to the drawing board to give "Australia" a second chance and came away with the new miniseries "Faraway Downs," premiering Sunday, Nov. 26, on Hulu.

Using additional footage cut from the original movie, "Faraway Downs" spans four hours, split into six episodes, adding new layers to the story told in "Australia." The series, like the film, stars Nicole Kidman ("Special Ops: Lioness") as Lady Sarah Ashley, a British widow who inherits her late husband's sprawling cattle station, called Faraway Downs, on the cusp of the Second World War in 1939. Having made the trip to Australia to convince her husband to sell the property before he died, Lady Sarah has a man known simply as The Drover (Hugh Jackman "The Son," 2022) lead the cattle to Darwin for sale.

The pair lead a team and the cattle on a risky adventure across the outback and manage to thwart a rival rancher looking to achieve a meat monopoly in the region of Northern Australia. Lady Sarah and Drover find love on their trip to Darwin and return to Faraway Downs intent on making the station the success that her late husband couldn't. Trouble comes for them when the well-being of Nullah (Brandon Walters, "Operation Buffalo"), the Indigenous Australian boy that the two have been caring for like an adoptive son, is threatened and acts of war loom over Northern Australia.

When the reworked miniseries was announced in June 2022, Luhrmann shared in a statement the intent behind both the original film and "Faraway Downs," saying, "I originally set out to take the notion of the sweeping, 'Gone With the Wind'-style epic and turn it on its head — a way of using romance and epic drama to shine a light on the roles of First Nations people and the painful scar in Australian history of the 'Stolen Generations.'"

In the film, Nullah is left orphaned after his mother dies trying to evade police, who are attempting to forcibly separate him from his family. The Stolen Generations of mixed-race Indigenous children were removed from their homes to live in church-run missions throughout the latter half of the 19th and into the 20th century, as late as the 1970s in some parts of Australia.

Luhrmann added in his statement: "While 'Australia' the film has its own life, there was another telling of this story; one with different layers, nuances and even alternative plot twists that an episodic format has allowed us to explore." Luhrmann alludes quite clearly to what "Faraway Downs" will expand on with its longer runtime and segmented installments. More depth will be paid to Indigenous history in the series and Luhrmann's original ending, cut in favor of a happier final act in "Australia," will finally be seen by audiences.

The first episode of "Faraway Downs" screened at SXSW Sydney Screen Festival in October, and The Guardian reported that the soundtrack was "given a contemporary First Nations overhaul," including a song from Budjerah ("Ready for the Sky"), whose music plays over an opening credits sequence animated by Indigenous artists.

"Faraway Downs" also stars Bryan Brown ("Darby and Joan") as Lesley (King) Carney, a rival cattle farmer; David Wenham ("Pieces of Her") as Neil Fletcher, the station manager at Faraway Downs who is secretly working with King Carney; Jack Thompson ("High Ground," 2020) as Kipling Flynn, accountant of Faraway Downs; David Gulpilil ("The Leftovers") as King George, an elder and Nullah's grandfather; and David Ngoombujarra ("The Circuit") as Magarri, Drover's brother-in-law.

The trailer for the series is a real blast from the past, seeing Kidman and Jackman as they were a decade and a half ago. Kidman's Lady Sarah promises to "bring Faraway Downs back to life" while beauty shots show off the incredible landscapes of Australia. Lady Sarah and Drover protect Nullah from officers and spruce up the station, meanwhile, the Second World War is on Darwin's doorstep.

While Kidman has spent most of the last decade starring and receiving nominations for her performances in critically acclaimed TV series, such as "Top of the Lake," "Big Little Lies" and "The Undoing," alongside her Hollywood film projects, Jackman hasn't been seen on the small screen since his career beginnings outside of voice acting gigs like in Netflix's "Human Resources."

Book a return trip down under and see "Australia" as you've never seen it before when the premiere episode of "Faraway Downs" drops Sunday, Nov. 26, on Hulu.

'Assembled' docuseries releases new special for 'Loki' Season 2

By Caroline Collacutt
TV Media

Making the Multiverse: Pack your bags — we're headed to the Multiverse. From dimension hopping to costume making to casting, an all-new episode of "Marvel Studios' Assembled" dives into "The Making of Loki," exploring the vast universe of "Loki" Season 2. The tell-all documentary premieres Wednesday, Nov. 29, on Disney+.

"Assembled" is described by the streamer as "a comprehensive documentary series of specials that goes behind the scenes of the shows and movies of the MCU, following the filmmakers, cast and crew, and Marvel heroes every step of the way, [taking] us behind the scenes with the cast and creative team who brought the [series] to life.

"Through candid interviews with the creative minds behind the show, and exclusive on-set footage, discover how the talented team that powered 'Loki: Season 2' raised the stakes for this latest MCU adventure," Disney went on to explain, sharing that this upcoming special allows viewers to "witness imaginative costumes, elaborate environments, and far-out variants, [to] meet new allies and foes, and time-slip across the Multiverse," as they unravel secrets behind the highly-popular series.

Season 2 of "Loki" follows the aftermath of last season's shocking finale, as Loki (Tom Hiddleston, "War Horse," 2011) finds himself fighting for the soul of the Time Variance Authority. In its description for the upcoming season, Disney also shared that, "Along with Mobius (Owen Wilson, "The Royal Tenenbaums," 2001), Hunter B-15 (Wunmi Mosaku, His House," 2020) and a team of new and returning characters, Loki navigates an ever-expanding and increasingly dangerous multiverse in search of Sylvie (Sophia Di Martino, "Flowers"), Judge Renslayer (Gugu Mbatha-Raw, "Belle," 2013), Miss Minutes (Tara Strong, "Teen Titans Go!") and the truth of what it means to possess free will and glorious purpose."

While Justin Benson ("The Endless," 2017), Aaron Moorhead ("Something in the Dirt," 2022), Dan DeLeeuw ("Eternals," 2021) and Kasra Farahani ("Star Trek Into Darkness," 2013) act as directors for the six-episode season, Marvel Studios' "Loki" was created by Michael Waldron ("Doctor Strange in the Multiverse of Madness," 2022). The character of Loki was created by comic book writers Jack Kirby, Larry Lieber and Stan Lee. The series also stars Eugene Cordero ("Kong: Skull Island," 2017), Neil Ellice ("I'm Dying Up Here"), Ke Huy Quan ("Everything Everywhere All at Once," 2022) and Lauren Revard ("American Made," 2017).

See how the team brought this super-series to life when "Assembled: The Making of Loki" airs its Season 2 spectacular, Wednesday, Nov. 29, on Disney+.

40 years of funk: Telling the legend of a supernatural talent and his most iconic, immortal album, Showtime premieres the feature-length documentary from director Nelson George ("Brooklyn Boheme," 2011), "Thriller 40," Saturday, Dec. 2, on the network, on Paramount+ with Showtime and on MTV.

"Released Nov. 30, 1982, 'Thriller' — Jackson's sixth studio album — spawned seven top 10 singles on the Billboard Hot 100 including two No. 1s: 'Beat It' and 'Billie Jean,'" Billboard magazines explains, praising the album in question. "In addition to winning eight Grammys, ['Thriller'] has been RI-

Tom Hiddleston

AA-certified at 34 times platinum and amassed more than 100 million in sales worldwide, making it the biggest-selling album globally of all time."

Now, 40 years after the album's release, Nelson welcomes music fans on a trip back in time, allowing them to experience — first hand — the making (and aftermath) of Jackson's biggest record-breaker, as Paramount promises the film also examines the album's accompanying short films, said to "forever [redefine] the music video format."

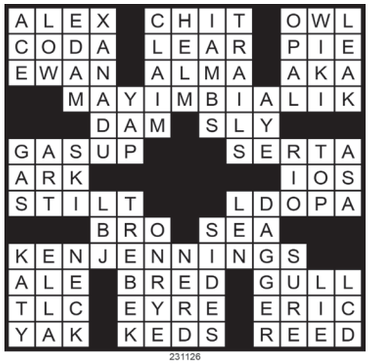

Featuring never-before-seen footage and exclusive interviews," Paramount says, "'Thriller 40' chronicles the creation of a pre-internet global phenomenon unlike anything before it or since. 'Thriller' launched Michael Jackson into mega-stardom and to this day continues to influence all aspects of culture and entertainment, including the worlds of music, dance and fashion."

Music and entertainment luminaries, including Paul McCartney ("Let It Be"), Usher ("Yeah"), Mary J. Blige ("My Life"), Misty Copeland ("The Nutcracker and the Four Realms," 2018), John Landis ("The Blues Brothers," 1980), Brooke Shields ("The Blue Lagoon," 1980) and more are all said to be featured in the documentary, each sharing the personal and professional impact "Thriller" has had on them throughout the years.

"Thriller 40" also promises to share never-before-seen archival footage, including the likes of Vincent Price ("House on Haunted Hill," 1959), Quincy Jones ("The Color Purple," 1985) and Jackson himself.

From Optimum Productions and Company Name — with Colin Hanks ("Say Hey, Willie Mays!," 2022), Sean Stuart ("Willie Nelson & Family"), John Branca ("This Is It," 2009) and John McClain ("Bad 25," 2012) serving as producers — Nelson George's 2023 film, "Thriller 40," celebrates the "funk of forty (thousand) years" when it makes its international debut, Saturday, Dec. 2, on Showtime, Paramount+ and MTV.

"May December" (2023)

The past refuses to stay buried for one unlucky couple in the new black comedy film "May December," premiering Friday, Dec. 1, on Netflix. It's been 20 years since the notorious relationship between Gracie (Julianne Moore, "Still Alice," 2014) and Joe (Charles Melton, "Riverdale") exploded in the tabloids, with their scandalously large age gap at the front and center of the scrutiny. Now, the pair are living a quiet, suburban life together, outside of the glaring pressure of the limelight. When Hollywood actress Elizabeth (Natalie Portman, "V for Vendetta," 2005) arrives in their tight-knit community to research her upcoming film role as Gracie, the couple's domestic bliss is disrupted and the picture-perfect facade begins to crumble, as Elizabeth digs deeper and long-buried emotions bubble back up to the surface. Directed by Todd Haynes ("Carol," 2015), "May December" features a screenplay by Samy Burch ("Bev," 2016) and a story by Burch and Alex Mechanik ("All You Can Eat," 2013), both making their feature-length film writing debuts. The film also stars new talent Gabriel Chung, Elizabeth Yu ("Somewhere in Queens," 2022), Chris Tenzis ("Big Touch," 2020), Andrea Frankle ("The Burial," 2023), Jocelyn Shelfo ("XO, Kitty") and newcomer Mikenzie Taylor.

"American Symphony" (2023)

Heralded as "an intimate portrait of two artists at a crossroads and a meditation on art, love, and the creative process" by Netflix, the new documentary, "American Symphony," premieres Wednesday, Nov. 29, on the streamer. In an incredible year that saw musician Jon Batiste ("FREEDOM") walking away with 11 Grammy nominations and five wins, including Album of the Year, the artist also embarked on his most ambitious and challenging project to date: composing an original symphony. With both bachelor's and master's degrees in music from Juilliard and the history of the Batiste family music dynasty behind him, Jon Batiste looked to compose "an original symphony that thrillingly reimagines the classical traditions of the form, bringing together an expansive and inclusive diaspora of music for a performance at storied Carnegie Hall" (per Netflix). However, this timeline is derailed when his life partner, bestselling author Suleika Jaouad ("Between Two Kingdoms: A Memoir of a Life Interrupted"), learns that her long-dormant cancer has returned, and the couple's priorities must change to adjust to this new development in their lives. Directed by Matthew Heineman ("The Trade"), this moving documentary is produced by Heineman, Lauren Domino ("Time," 2020) and Joedan Okun ("Transition," 2023), with Batiste and Jaouad on board as executive producers.

"Family Switch" (2023)

It's "Freaky Friday" for the whole family in the new comedy flick "Family Switch," premiering Thursday, Nov. 30, on Netflix. As their children get older and more independent and new additions to the brood divide their attention, parents Jess (Jennifer Garner, "Alias") and Bill Walker (Ed Helms, "The Office") are doing their best to keep their family connected through their changing dynamic. But after a chance encounter with an astrological reader has the whole family waking up to a full-body switch — mom, dad, son (Brady Noon, "The Mighty Ducks: Game Changers"), daughter (Emma Myers, "Wednesday"), baby and dog included — on one of the most important days of each of their lives, they're forced to get closer than ever. Forced to walk a day in each other's shoes (literally), the Walkers will have to work together to make it through a promotion, a college interview, a record deal and a soccer tryout. Based on the book "Bedtime For Mommy" by Amy Krouse-Rosenthal, "Family Switch" is directed by McG ("Charlie's Angels," 2000), with a screen story by Victoria Strouse ("Finding Dory," 2016) and a screenplay by Strouse and Adam Sztykiel ("Black Adam," 2022). The cast also includes Rita Moreno ("West Side Story," 1961), Matthias Schweighofer ("Oppenheimer," 2023), Pete Holmes ("Crashing"), Paul Scheer ("The League"), Dan Finnerty ("Dumlpin'," 2018), Ned Bellamy ("Blonde," 2022) and Sebastian Quinn ("Based on a True Story").

"Candy Cane Lane" (2023)

Comedy legend Eddie Murphy's ("The Nutty Professor," 1996) first-ever holiday film, "Candy Cane Lane," makes its debut Friday, Dec. 1, on Prime Video. The film stars Murphy as Chris Carver, a man on a mission to win his neighborhood's annual Christmas home decoration contest. Unknowingly making a deal with a mischievous elf named Pepper (Jillian Bell, "22 Jump Street," 2014) to better his chances of winning, Chris soon finds that she has cast a magic spell that brings the 12 Days of Christmas to life — with truly chaotic consequences. Teaming up with his wife, Carol (Tracee Ellis Ross, "Black-ish"), and their three kids, Nick (Thaddeus J. Mixson, "Reasonable Doubt"), Joy (Genneya Walton, "Never Have I Ever") and Holly (Madison Thomas, "9-1-1"), the Carver family must race against the clock and battle a host of deviously magical characters to break Pepper's spell and save Christmas for everyone. From director Reginald Hudlin ("Sidney," 2022) and writer Kelly Younger ("Muppets Haunted Mansion," 2021), "Candy Cane Lane" also stars Nick Offerman ("Parks and Recreation"), Chris Redd ("Popstar: Never Stop Never Stopping," 2016), Robin Thede ("A Black Lady Sketch Show"), Ken Marino ("Childrens Hospital"), Anjelah Johnson-Reyes ("Enough Said," 2013), Lombardo Boyar ("Dawn of the Planet of the Apes," 2014), Timothy Simons ("Veep") and Danielle Pinnock ("Ghosts").

"Pretty Hard Cases" - Season 3

Female detectives Samantha "Sam" Wazowski (Meredith MacNeill, "Baroness Von Sketch Show") and Kelly Duff (Adrienne C. Moore, "Orange Is the New Black") are back for one final season of chaotic cases that will test them both personally and professionally in Season 3 of "Pretty Hard Cases." All 10 episodes of the fan-favorite buddy-cop drama will be available to stream Wednesday, Nov. 29, exclusively on Amazon Freevee. The new season begins as the two detectives are reunited in the Guns and Gangs division after eight long months apart. Despite their relationship being stronger than ever, Sam and Kelly need to prove their worth to the new Unit Commander Gloria Ballard (Wendy Crewson, "Air Force One," 1997). As if things aren't stressful enough with work, the duo deals with huge changes in their personal lives. Namely, Sam's efforts to reignite a past romance and Kelly's want to take her relationship with Nathan (Daren A. Herbert, "This Means War," 2012) to the next level. However, the appearance of a deadly new synthetic drug on the streets of Toronto threatens the duo's advancements in their career and personal lives. "Pretty Hard Cases" also stars Karen Robinson ("Schitt's Creek"), Al Mukadam ("Miss Sloane," 2016), Amanda Brugel ("The Handmaid's Tale"), Trevor Hayes ("The Girlfriend Experience"), Amanda Walsh ("Ghosts of Girlfriends Past," 2009), Tricia Black ('Summer Memories"), Miguel Rivas ("The Beaverton"), Brendan Beiser ("The X-Files"), Marlee Sansom ("Bystanders," 2023) and Jonathon Malen ("Wild Kratts"). As a joint production between the CBC — Canada's national public broadcaster — and Universal International Studios, the series was created by co-showrunners Tassie Cameron and Sherry White (who both produced "Rookie Blue").

"A Good Person" (2023)

From the mind of Zach Braff, writer, director and star of "Garden State," "A Good Person" premieres Tuesday, Nov. 28, on Prime Video. The movie follows aspiring musician Allison Johnson (Florence Pugh, "Midsommar," 2019) and ex-cop Daniel Adams (Morgan Freeman, "Mikllion Dollar Baby," 2004) as they find hope in the place they least expected. Allison and Daniel were once connected through Nathan (Chinaza Uche, "Dickinson"), Allison's ex-fiancé and Daniel's son. However, when Allison causes an accident which kills her former brother- and sister-in-law, they understandably go their separate ways. One year later, both find themselves in stressful situation; Allison has turned to pain killers to help deal with her guilt and severe depression, while Daniel takes care of his orphaned granddaughter, Ryan (Celeste O'Connor, "Ghostbusters: Afterlife," 2021). After reuniting at a therapy group, the two find a chance to move forward in each other. In addition to the main cast, "A Good Person" also stars Molly Shannon ("Superstar," 1999), Zoe Lister-Jones ("Band Aid," 2017), Nichelle Hines ("The Resident"), Toby Onwumere ("Sense8"), Ignacio Diaz-Silverio ("Primo"), Oli Green ("The Mosquito Coast"), Alex Wolff ("Hereditary," 2018), Brian Rojas ("Sharper," 2023), Ryann Redmond ("The Good Fight") and Sydney Morton ("Manifest").

Selena Gomez joined by celebrity chefs in new cooking special

By Caroline Collacutt
TV Media

Selena Gomez from "Selena + Chef: Home for the Holidays"

Have a huge holiday meal upcoming and no idea what to cook? No problem — just ask Selena. The brand-new series special, "Selena+Chef: Home for the Holidays," is a seasonal cooking extravaganza, premiering Thursday, Nov. 30, on Food Network.

This upcoming holiday-centric series is set to feature four weekly, all-new episodes led by global superstar Selena Gomez ("Only Murders in the Building"), who will be joined by her best friend, Raquelle Stevens ("Giving Back Generation"), and some expert celebrity chefs as together, they learn how to prepare perfect holiday meals for visiting friends and family.

The network has shared that the season's guest chefs include Eric Adjepong ("Tournament of Champions"), Alex Guarnaschelli ("Alex Vs. America"), Michael Symon ("Symon's Dinners Cooking Out") and Claudette Zepeda ("Top Chef"), offering fans a taste of what's to come with brief descriptions of each episode.

"In 'Selena + Alex,'" they share, "chef Alex Guarnaschelli and Selena prepare roast beef and 'Chantilly' mashed potatoes for a tree-trimming party." Next: "Michael Symon pops by for a 'Surf & Turf' Christmas as he and Selena tackle steaks and lobster" and "chef Claudette Zepeda plans a Mexican feast with a traditional Latin Christmas dish of tamales and a unique twist on a historic salad."

During the final episode — "Selena+Eric" — the group make some resolutions and ring in the new year, as chef Eric Adjepong helps Selena (along with Gomez's grandparents and younger sister, Gracie) prepare a special brunch, including shrimp & banana grits and his own take on malva pudding — redefining what it means to "take the cake."

When asked about the upcoming series, Gomez shared her excitement, saying, "the holidays have always meant so much to me. It was an honor to have these amazing chefs in my kitchen to introduce some of their favorite foods and what makes the holidays special for them."

From showrunners Shauna Minoprio ("Top Chef") and Melissa Stokes ("Craftopia"), the series is produced by Gomez for July Moon Productions, alongside producers Eli Holzman ("Undercover Boss") and Aaron Saidman ("American Idol") of Sony Pictures Television's The Intellectual Property Corporation (IPC).

Make the holidays delicious with "Selena + Chef: Home for the Holidays," premiering Thursday, Nov. 30, on Food Network, and streaming simultaneously on Max.

"The Artful Dodger" - Season 1

The classic Charles Dickens novel "Oliver Twist" takes off on a grand adventure in "The Artful Dodger," the new series spinoff of the story, premiering Wednesday, Nov. 29, on Hulu. Set in 1850s Australia, this irreverent follow-up takes place in the lively colony of Port Victory. Now an adult, Jack Dawkins (Thomas Brodie-Sangster, "The Maze Runner," 2014), the Artful Dodger, has transferred his skillset as a nimble-fingered pickpocket to the precise and exacting hands of a surgeon. But, when his past returns to haunt him in the form of Fagin (David Thewlis, "The Sandman"), who lures him back into a world of crime, the once-prince of thieves finds himself on an adventure packed with everything from "heists to life-and-death surgeries, from soirées to street violence," in a "tale of reinvention, betrayal, redemption and love with a twist" (per Hulu). Co-created by James McNamara ("The Outrageous True Story of Milky Moore"), David Maher ("Supernova") and David Taylor ("The Code"), the series also stars Maia Mitchell ("The Fosters"), Damon Herriman ("Justified"), Damien Garvey ("Rake"), Lucy-Rose Leonard ("Crazy About You," 2019), Martin Cohen ("Box: Metaphor," 2023), Nicholas Burton ("Pieces of Her") and Vivienne Awosoga ("Wentworth").

"Jingle Bell Bride" (2020)

Directed by Allan Harmon ("If I Had Wings," 2013) and written by Marcy Holland ("A Biltmore Christmas," 2023) and Scarlet Wilson (based on Wilson's book of the same name) 2020's "Jingle Bell Bride" makes its Hulu debut Thursday, Nov. 30. This rom-com follows NYC-based wedding planner Jessica Perez (Julie Gonzalo, "A Cinderella Story," 2004) travels to a remote town in Alaska to find a rare flower — the Jingle Bell Flower — for her celebrity client, pop sensation Renee Donna Benedicto, "Supergirl"). While there, Jessica finds herself charmed by the small town and one of its handsome locals, Matt (Ronnie Rowe, "Star Trek: Discovery"). The film also stars B.J. Harrison ("Must Love Christmas," 2022) as Mary, Keenan Mentzos ("The Christmas Waltz," 2020) as Landon, Lucia Walters ("Virgin River") as Amanda, Lindsay Gibson ("The Whispers") as Mayor Margaret, Alison Araya ("Julie and the Phantoms") as Kara.

"Five Star Christmas" (2020)

Secrets are plentiful in "Five Star Christmas," streaming Thursday, Nov. 30, on Hulu. This Christie Will Wolf ("Eat, Play, Love," 2017)-directed holiday film follows Lucy Ralston (Bethany Joy Lenz, "One Tree Hill") and her siblings as they head to their family home from Christmas. Upon arrival, the siblings are shocked to discover that their dad has turned the house into a B&B. Once past their initial upset, the family ralley's together to make the B&B look like a roaring success to a famed travel writer who is coming to stay. As the Ralstons play cat and mouse with their VIP guest, Lucy finds herself falling for Jake (Victor Webster, "Workin' Moms"), another one of their guests, who has a secret of his own. Written by Stephen Witkin ("Love-Struck," 1997), Alfonso H. Moreno ("NCIS") and newcomer Michael Elliot, "Five Star Christmas" also stars Robert Wisden ("Watchmen," 2009), Laura Soltis ("Hiccups"), Jay Brazeau ("Garage Sale Mysteries"), Grace Beedie ("Zero Chill"), Blair Penner ("A Sugar & Spice Holiday," 2020), Barbara Patrck ("Hailey Dean Mystery"), Sarah Edmondson ("The Little Prince") and Paula Shaw ("Mr. Young").

"A Timeless Christmas" (2020)

Based on the book by Alexis Stanton, "A Timeless Christmas," directed by Ron Oliver ("Falling for Christmas," 2022) is available to stream on Hulu Thursday, Nov. 30. Written by Duane Poole ("Sugar Plum Twist," 2021) and Oliver himself, this time-traveling tale follows Charles Whitley (Ryan Paevey, "General Hospital"), who magically transports himself from 1903 to the year 2020, completely by accident. In his stately home, which is now a museum created in his honor, he meets Megan (Erin Cahill, "Cut to the Chase," 2016), the museum's curator, who is determined to help him experience his first Christmas in the 21st Century. Along the way, the pair might just discover a love that transcends generations. "A Timeless Christmas" also stars Brandi Alexander ("Fifty Shades of Grey," 2015), Zahf Paroo ("Altered Carbon") and Nelson Wong ("Riverdale").

Hollywood Q&A

By Adam Thomlison
TV Media

Q: Is Dolly Parton going to do another Christmas special this year? I loved "Christmas on the Square" and I'm hoping for a sequel.

A: Country music legend Dolly Parton ("9 to 5") doesn't seem to have any Christmas special plans for this year, but if you're only thinking of Netflix's "Christmas on the Square" (2020), you may have missed one.

Last year, she released a special on NBC called "Dolly Parton's Mountain Magic Christmas." It certainly had a lot in common with "Christmas on the Square," in that it was a very loose story that just existed to let Dolly be Dolly — breaking into song periodically and charming us with heartwarming, homespun wisdom the rest of the time.

And those are just the most recent ones. She's made a number of other, similar specials over the years, including the Hallmark Channel's "Christmas at Dollywood" (2019), Lifetime's "A Country Christmas Story" (2013) and "Dollywood's a Christmas Carol" (2013). Plus, of course, the long-beloved "A Smoky Mountain Christmas" (1986), which basically created the template.

Unfortunately, the lack of new Dolly Parton content this year seems to be related to the talent strikes that rocked the screen biz this year. It's not a Christmas special, but a new movie that Parton produced and co-wrote — "Run, Rose, Run" — was set to go into production this spring, but nothing's been heard of it since.

Q: What happened to the guy who played Abed on "Community"? I've seen all the other stars in new shows and movies, but not him.

A: You may not have seen him, but there's a pretty good chance you've heard him: Danny Pudi pivoted pretty quickly to voice work after "Community" ended in 2015.

Most notably, he voiced Huey on "DuckTales," the revival of Disney's '80s cartoon that ran from 2017 to 2021.

He also had a central role in the tween-targeted series "Harvey Girls Forever" on Netflix, and more recently, he's been voicing Bumblebee on "Transformers: Earthspark," yet another "Transformers" series, this one debuting last year on Nickelodeon.

But he hasn't stopped showing his face entirely. Post-"Community," his biggest on-screen role has been on the similarly edgy Apple TV+ sitcom "Mythic Quest," playing one of the employees of the titular, fictional video game company.

And at least for a while, everything he does will continue to be discussed in terms of when it happened in relation to "Community" — the series that made him (along with almost all of his fellow regulars) a star.

The sitcom ran from 2009 to 2015 on NBC and was so beloved by its fans that they're still lobbying for a followup movie to be released (the idea of doing a movie became something of a meta-joke on the show, as did the fact that "Community" was constantly on the verge of being cancelled).

Their bond is such that Pudi and his fellow "Community" alumni often appear in each other's projects. For example, earlier this year Pudi had a role in "Somebody I Used to Know," a romantic comedy written by and starring Alison Brie, who played Abed's study buddy and roommate Annie on "Community."

Q: I caught part of an old movie the other day where Jim Belushi was an aggressive and unethical school principal. It looked really good, but I don't know what it was called.

A: The title was hiding in plain sight, so to speak. The movie you're thinking of is "The Principal" (1987).

It was part of a wave of movies dramatizing the panic America felt at the state of "inner city" schools at the time — other examples include "Lean On Me" (1989), "The Substitute" (1995) and "Dangerous Minds" (1995). But even these were all following in the footsteps of better-remembered films such as "Blackboard Jungle" (1955) and "To Sir, With Love" (1967).

"The Principal" takes a somewhat more fanciful approach to the topic. While the critically acclaimed entries in the category went for gritty realism, "The Principal" instead made star Jim Belushi ("According to Jim") into a reluctant action hero. He beats one of his students unconscious, and the film's climax plays out as a sort of Wild West-style showdown between Belushi's Principal Latimer and the head of the school's dominant gang.

There's also a weird bit of trivia to distinguish this one. Three years later, Belushi (maybe, technically) reprised his role in the wacky, B-grade sci-fi flick "Abraxas, Guardian of the Universe" (1990). It's a brief cameo, but he is indeed playing a school principal named Latimer.

He reportedly only took the role because he was married to "Abraxas's" star, Marjorie Bransfield, at the time.
