

Quad-City Memories II

The 1940s, '50s, '60s and '70s • A Pictorial History

Announcing a special book: Due to the overwhelming popularity of “Quad City Memories: The Early Years,” The Quad-City Times is proud to partner, once again, with the Davenport Public Library, The Rock Island County Historical Society, The Rock Island Arsenal Museum and our readers on a new hardcover pictorial history book, “Quad-City Memories II: The 1940s, '50s, '60s and '70s.” This heirloom-quality coffee-table book offers a glimpse of the Quad-City area in the 1940s, '50s, '60s and '70s with a brief reprise of the early years through stunning and historic photos. In addition, we are thrilled to include photographic memories of years gone by from our readers once again.

Share your historic photos!

We are pleased to give our readers the opportunity to participate in this unique project. If you have photographs that meet our guidelines, please bring them to one of our scanning sessions listed below. Because we expect a large turnout, we advise you to download and complete a photo submission form prior to the scanning session. Forms are also available at the Quad-City Times (500 E. 3rd Street, Davenport). Please print and fill out one form for each photo you'd like to submit.

SUBMISSION GUIDELINES
