

Springtime in WASHINGTON D.C.

APRIL 22-29, 2026

There's truly no better time to visit Washington, D.C. than spring, when cherry blossoms soften the skyline and the nation's capital comes alive with color. Travel with us during this beautiful season as we enjoy guided sightseeing of iconic monuments and memorials, including powerful patriotic landmarks that tell the story of our country's history and sacrifice. Stroll along tree-lined walkways framed by blooming cherry trees, explore historic neighborhoods, and spend time at world-renowned Smithsonian museums where art, history, and culture come together. With thoughtfully planned touring, comfortable motorcoach travel, and time built in to explore at a relaxed pace, this Springtime in D.C. tour offers a meaningful blend of history, reflection, and seasonal beauty—an inspiring getaway filled with memorable moments at every stop.
