Natty Bouquard-CITY TIME

A perfect day

The Quad-City Times Bix 7 celebrated its 17th birthday with a perfect day. A race-time temperature of 63 degrees greeted a record number of 18,124 runners and walkers.

Two first-time runners win

Ken Martin and Uta Pippig had an enjoyable time at their first Quad-City Times Bix 7. Martin, of Santa Fe, N.M., won the men's title and Pippig, of Berlin, Germany, raced to victory in the women's division. In the masters' divisions, John Campbell won his second straight Bix title and Laurie Binder won her third title.

Mike Hoening walked the Quad-City Times Box 7 alone Saturday in honor of Bobbi Baumann. She had walked with him in years past but died of cancer this year.

Blind man remembers friend as he walks alone

Mike Hoening never has seen a Quad-City Times Box 7 even though he has participated in the race for the past five years.

The blind Mohave man walked the Box 7 alone for the first time Saturday.

"The other four years I walked the Box 7, I walked with many people. But I know I can do it. I can walk it alone. I know I can."

He said he knows many *Quad-City*ans who live the streets and watch the race.

"When they see me coming down the street, they start cheering me on," he said.

"That helps quite a bit, knowing no more people want to encourage me.

"Why do I do this? Well, that's just what I have to do. I love to hear the crowd and hear all the people cheering. It just pumps me up," he added.

As the elite runners head back toward the finish line, hundreds of walkers cheered them on.

Some "runners" were not in the Quad-City Times BIK 7, but instead participated in the BITS — Bix Invitational Trumpet Stumble or Shuffle. Leading the pack of non-athletes around a median were James Pearson and Natalie McCorbis.

Non-athletes stumble

through their own race

The Quad-City Times Box 7 wasn't the only race being run Saturday in Davenport.

For Quad-City non-athletes, there was the 1991 Tramont Stumble or Shamble. This is an annual competition held during the festivities at 3 and 4 on Grand Avenue in Davenport on McClellan Boulevard.

"If you make a fool of yourself, you get a T-shirt," the host said. "We were going to have a mile race, but the rain was ruining it and we were ruining it."

As instead, competitors jog, walk or crawl around the creek in front of his house.

"The rules are: you can drink a Bloody Mary before, after, or if you're really coordinated, during the race," he said. Participants pass off an old corn crier instead of a baton.

Once you're invited, you're always invited," Gardner said. "There are people here I don't even know."

Like many, he came in to town Friday night to take in the "ice cream." "We have a great time," he said, leaving no doubt he will be back—probably tonight and early.

oode to the pack

Here's to the losers
God bless 'em
without 'em our triumphs would lessen
you couldn't be fast
if no one was slow
you couldn't be rich
if no one was po'
you couldn't be high if no one was low
so, here's to the losers
God, bless 'em once nu'.

x 7 was a blast

By Barb Arland-Fye
QUAD-CITY TIMES

In 1978 Quad-City Times Box #7 will go down in regional history book as one of the best.
The weather was spectacular, the crowd was enormous and the runners were so courteous than I remember in past years.
It was a pretty impressive contest that more than 18,000 runners and walkers were jockeying for position.
At 11th Box 7 began making its last lap. I picked my spot starting chute, shuffled in and waited for the first runner that would signal the pack had taken off.
After about a year's time it was pure pleasure because I didn't trouble making my way up Brady Street Hill.
Runners seemed so part when I wanted to pass. I knew they passed me tried to avoid bumping and blowing.
I was so thrilled when someone from the crowd near me yelled out my name.
I immediately checked the number and fast. For some time ever, I checked the clock at the finish line later said: 54:11.00. That was one of my better times.

Another woman about my age, 33, cruised in at 56 minutes and told me she put her hands to mouth and told me to pass. I said, "No, you'll have to pass me." She kept asking, "you're going to be there?"
I kept telling her she would be OK. She miked it.
