Since November 22, 1952, real home cooked meals at a reasonable price has always been the Harlan's philosophy.

On Thanksgiving Day, November 23, 1953, Harlan Hagberg opened what was then called the Triangle Truckport. Highway 6 was then the main road through the United States. Truckers came from all over the country to enjoy the real home cooked meals. This picture was taken by a photographer with the Davenport Times newspaper, on February 26, 1960. He won a Pulitzer Prize for the picture, and ended up working for the New York Times. In 1962, Interstate 80 opened and not being located close to the Interstate, Harlan decided to become a family restaurant. It was then that the name changed to Harlan's. Many restaurants say that they have home cooked meals now that it's fashionable, but we've been doing it from the first day Harlan opened the doors for business back in 1953. From our fresh cut steaks, homemade salad dressings, homemade soups, fresh hash browns, fresh baked dinner rolls, homemade gravies, to our real mashed potatoes, everything we do is for you.
