Jason Takes the Slasher

Dressed like Jason, the knife-wielding maniac who slashed his way through the "Friday the 13th" movies, Doug Schieman of Calhoun, Iowa, cut a wide swath in the 7th row.

Doug, who carried an extra log to use when his others got used, was planned to run, but he sprained his ankle the night before the race.

But, like the movie monster who never gives up, Doug decided to join the race anyway—walking and in costume.

He said he chose "Jason" because he likes the horror movies.

—Kathie Kinrade

OPINION — Carl Beason, left, of Davenport went the distance to show his support for riverboat gambling in Scott County. He ran half the race, then pulled Tiana Gierke, R, in this makeshift riverboat for the finale Iowa Rep. Tom Foy, D Davenport, who pushed for its legalization, congratulated him.

The 15th QCT BIX 7: Here's

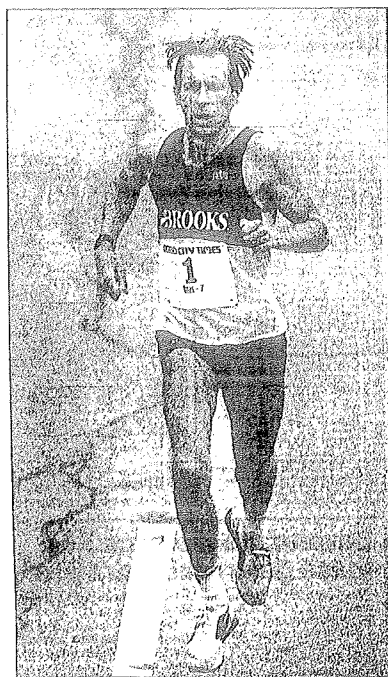

JUL 30 1989

BOWLERS — Costumes are always a big part of the Bix and this group of runners dressed up as a bowling ball and bowling pins. (QUAD-CITY TIMES photo by Phil Cunningham)

TAKING IT EASY — To get a good seat along the course you have to show up early and there's no better way to spend your time than reading a newspaper, like Cliff Fugua of Moline. (QUAD-CITY TIMES photo by Phil Cunningham)
