

Center For Voter Information

R-C-R-MI
2004

February 26, 2024

Notice:

According to our review of publicly available records, someone at this address might not be registered to vote.

If you have already registered at this address, thank you! Don't leave anyone behind. Make sure everyone in your home who is eligible is registered to vote at their current address.

Registering to vote is simple! All you have to do is:

To check your current voter registration status or to register or update your registration online, please visit: mi.gov/vote

Or, use this QR code to easily register or update your registration online. →

Sincerely,

Gail L. Kitch, Board Chair
Center for Voter Information

PS. We have already filled in some of your information on the enclosed form. If it is incorrect, please cross it out and enter the correct information. Complete the form and send it in the enclosed pre-addressed, postage-paid envelope.

There may be an April 16th Special Election in your District. April 1st is the deadline to mail your registration form in order to vote in that election. You can also register online through April 1st or in-person at your city or township clerk's office through 8 p.m. on Election Day. For more details, visit mi.gov/vote and click on "Your voter information."

If you wish to be removed from our mailing list, call (800) 292-3142 or email unsubscribe@centerforvoterinformation.org and provide this code: MI1KJQS91134.

This mailing has been paid for by the Center for Voter Information (CVI). CVI is a non-government, nonprofit, and nonpartisan 501(c)(4) organization. www.centerforvoterinformation.org. CVI is not affiliated with any government agency or state/local election office. ©2016-2024 The Center for Voter Information. All Rights Reserved.