

RUTLAND HERALD

We updated and overhauled our ePaper on Tuesday, Sept. 18, 2018. The improvements include a “Story Stream” which allows readers to scroll through the articles on a given page in text form; and increased reliability for the digital publication.

Here's our guide:

1. To get to the e-Paper, please find it on our home page of the web site, by clicking on the right-hand side of the site as shown here.

The screenshot shows the Rutland Herald website homepage. At the top, there is a weather widget showing "69° Cloudy". To the right is a search bar with a magnifying glass icon. The main header "RUTLAND HERALD" is displayed with a "ONLINE" badge. Below the header, the date "Thursday, October 4, 2018" is shown. A navigation bar with links to "HOME", "NEWS", "OBITUARIES", "OPINION", "SPORTS", "FEATURES", "EVENTS", and "CLASSIFIEDS" is visible. The main content area features a large image of field hockey players with the caption "Raiders, 'Canes battle to stalemate" and "By Chuck Clarino CORRESPONDENT". To the right, a "LATEST E-PAPER" section is highlighted with a yellow arrow. This section shows a preview of the e-Paper with various news articles and images.

2. If you are on a mobile device, please see our guide to the ePaper on mobile devices and tablets.
3. Once you're into the ePaper, you can toggle between text view (which allows you to scroll through all the articles in text format) and page view (which allows you to see the articles on the page).
