Prospect Elementary library dedicated to late teacher Cindy Mohr

By Kellie M. Quickley

Proctors Elementary

Prospect Elementary’s library was dedicated to late teacher Cindy Mohr on Monday in her honor. The recently renovated room filled with books exploring fantastical stories, exciting people and extraordinary events and place from around the world is now known as the Cindy Mohr Library.

Mehr tragically died in June 2020 from complications due to COVID-19, just as her name and mother did two weeks prior. At one point that May, all three were in Olm Medical Hospital struggling to breathe as complications took one life after another.

The library dedicated to late teacher Cindy Mohr at Prospect Elementary School.

Friends of ASP awarded $23K grant to replace Red House sawmill roof

By Deb Everts

Press Reporter

RED HOUSE — Friends of Allegany State Park, Inc. has been awarded a $25,000 matching grant from the Environmental Protection Fund to Phase II of their Index 1100 Partnership Grant program to replace the roof on the historic Red House sawmill.

The grant is one of 30 awards totaling $990,000 for organizations dedicated to the restoration and promotion of New York State’s parks and historical sites, trails and public lands.

‘Crafty Ladies’ benefit those in need with needlework donations

By Deb Everts

Press Reporter

The Crafty Ladies who meet at the Salamanca Arts Center have been busily creating their beautiful needlework to beautify selected charities.

About eight to 10 group members gather together every Thursday from 1:30 to 7:30 p.m., to share their passion for knitting and crocheting while helping those in need.

The creative ladies include organizers Lorraine Pawlowski, Mary Ann Wujastyk, Rose Strock, Linda Lynder, Virginia Smith, Joan Budnicki, Kathy Riddle, Nancy See Crafty, A1

The Crafty Ladies who meet at the Salamanca Arts Center to make needlework.

Randolph Arts & Crafts Festival returns Saturday

By Kellie M. Quickley

Managing Editor

The Randolph Arts & Crafts Festival returns Saturday as a juried fine art show.

The event will be held from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. at Evergreen Park in Kane, PA.

Painting, Wood turning & Carving, Jewelry, Glass, Sculpture, Fiber Arts, Pottery and Much More

The Friends of Allegany State Park has been awarded a $25,000 matching grant from the Environmental Protection Fund to Phase II of their Index 1100 Partnership Grant program to replace the roof on the historic Red House sawmill.

The grant is one of 30 awards totaling $990,000 for organizations dedicated to the restoration and promotion of New York State’s parks and historical sites, trails and public lands.

Former Catt. Co. man heading to Africa for Big Five Marathon

By Kellie M. Quickley

Managing Editor

STIKKRIVIER, South Africa — It’s the northeast area of South Africa between Johannesburg and Kruger National Park & Kruger National Park & Elephant Safaris Conservancy, where the Big Five Marathon will be held Saturday.

And one of the runners planning to be there is 80-year-old David Bruce, of New Smyrna Beach, Fl., a