Another great ‘Cattaraugus County Fair concludes

By Kellen M. Quigley

LITTLE VALLEY — One of country music’s recent up-hitters delivered on being one of the hottest acts in town this summer when Walker Hayes performed in an enthusiastic crowd Aug. 3 at the Cattaraugus County Fair. The-born crowd believed Hayes from his 2017 album “Roaming” to his hit single “You Broke Up With Me,” but most folks in the crowd — and across the country — are fans of his last viral 2021 No. 1 release, “Fancy Like.”

Either way, plenty is attended these events to show their support for the 4C year-old. Hayes fans knew Hayes from his 2017 album “Roaming” to his hit single “You Broke Up With Me.”

What’s new? New York! He was added after his opening performance, earning a loud roar from the packed pit and grandstand of the Little Valley fairgoers. “I’ve never seen a crowd like this in my life.”

Singing with plenty of enthusiasm and playfulness, Hayes turned up the evening’s setlist with crowd favorites “Drinkin’ Songs,” “Country Girl (Shake It for Me),” “This is the Best Job in the World,” “Heartbreak on the Dance Floor,” “Where It’s at,” “Fancy Like,” and many others. He even sang to his wife, Laney, who

Walker Hayes performs personal, fun-filled concert for fair crowd

By By Miller

LITTLE VALLEY — The 2022 Cattaraugus County Fair closed Saturday was a great one, said John Charlesworth, Cattaraugus County Agricultural Society president.

“With so much uncertainty in the world these days, it’s good to know our friends and neighbors can still count on one county fair,” Charlesworth said in summed up the fair. “Great weather, super entertainment and love for you fans rubbed off on the folks. People have really enjoyed. We’ve seen a couple of visitors that look like our county fair was worth it. It’s amazing how we’ve held onto a couple of the day shows.

Charlesworth said in the fair’s board and grandchildren every day. Since last fair, more lackluster has been added. The grandstand parking lot has been improved, and the new roof is going to be on one of the shows

We’re happy to be able to continue with the best events and shows, but we’re still a small county, folks like to see all kinds of shows. Folks who visited, worked, volunteered, exhibited and otherwise enjoyed the fair this year.

Next year’s Cattaraugus County Fair is tentatively set for July 30 through August 5, 2023.

Savor the flavors at taste of Ellicottville

By By Everts

Ellicottville — A village of tiny homes is popping up in Ellicottville as development of a 1.2 million square foot project from Buffalo attorney Robert Carbone and partners Yossi Poznitski, Joseph Johnson, Bill Mahoney and Joe Marraccini, who jointly own the property.

Carbone, a partner at DeGennaro, Holzman, Pantaleo & Green LLP law firm and spokesperson for the group, said construction began almost two months ago. They have poured footings and the foundations are underway.

See Tanya Hines, A5

Ellicottville future site of tiny homes village

By By Everts

Ellicottville — Commissioner of finance and people who just love to eat good food will flock to taste of Ellicottville, Saturday and Sunday for the 16th annual Taste of Ellicottville. Presented by Sysco

Food lovers from all over the area and beyond will flock to the 36th annual Taste of Ellicottville Aug. 13 and 14 to sample the delicious offerings offered by 21 local food establishments.

By By Everts

Ellicottville — A village of tiny homes is popping up in Ellicottville as development of a 1.2 million square foot project from Buffalo attorney Robert Carbone and partners Yossi Poznitski, Joseph Johnson, Bill Mahoney and Joe Marraccini, who jointly own the property.

Carbone, a partner at DeGennaro, Holzman, Pantaleo & Green LLP law firm and spokesperson for the group, said construction began almost two months ago. They have poured footings and the foundations are underway.

See Tanya Hines, A5

Ellicottville future site of tiny homes village

By By Everts

Ellicottville — Commissioner of finance and people who just love to eat good food will flock to taste of Ellicottville, Saturday and Sunday for the 16th annual Taste of Ellicottville. Presented by Sysco

Food lovers from all over the area and beyond will flock to the 36th annual Taste of Ellicottville Aug. 13 and 14 to sample the delicious offerings offered by 21 local food establishments.

By By Everts

Ellicottville — Commissioner of finance and people who just love to eat good food will flock to taste of Ellicottville, Saturday and Sunday for the 16th annual Taste of Ellicottville. Presented by Sysco

Food lovers from all over the area and beyond will flock to the 36th annual Taste of Ellicottville Aug. 13 and 14 to sample the delicious offerings offered by 21 local food establishments.