Sunday's son: 'Jesus Christ Superstar' gets Legend-ary treatment

By K.A. Taylor

TV Media

n the late 1960s, musical theater was getting a complete makeover. For years, the genre did its best to avoid serious subjects, keeping joy and whimsy in the forefront. While it seemed for a time that interest in this form of theater was waning, a new breed of musical theater would resurrect the genre. Rock was woven into the pages of fresh, new takes on biblical narratives and, in 1970, "Jesus Christ Superstar" was born. On Sunday, April 1, NBC brings this legendary rock musical to audiences across North America, when "Jesus Christ Superstar Live in Concert" takes over prime time.

Initially a concept album, "Jesus Christ Superstar" delves into the last days of Jesus Christ, with particular focus on the relationships between Jesus and some wellknown biblical figures, including Judas, Mary Magdalene and King Herod. The show plays fast and loose with depictions of these figures, as the musical's creators, Andrew Lloyd Webber and Tim Rice, look to humanize them and make them relatable. The lines between God and man are blurred, with Jesus unafraid to confront modernday social issues.

While the musical has no doubt been performed in countless high schools and independent theaters around the globe, its professional runs have been consistent since the concept album's creation, with more than 19 productions, including four on Broadway.

For NBC's live, prime-time adaptation, some major star power has been recruited. In the titular role of Jesus Christ is singer, songwriter and actor John Legend ("La La Land," 2016). Not only is Legend the star of the production, he is also co-producer. When asked by The Paley Center for Media to express why he was intrigued by the opportunity, Legend's answer was amusingly simple: "Bottom line is, they offered me the chance to play Jesus Christ ... I was like, let's do it."

While this is Legend's first leading role in a televised musical, it's not his first screen gig — he played the role of Keith in the multiple award-winning feature musical film "La La Land" in 2016. He also co-wrote and recorded a song with the film, "Start a Fire," enjoying a rare opportunity to contribute to a musical's score.

Joining Legend onstage — and on screen — is singer-songwriter Sara Bareilles as Mary Magdalene, a notable follower of Jesus, according to biblical records. Sadly, she was known less for her witnessing of Christ's crucifixion and resurrection and more so for her profession as a sex worker, a depiction not entirely present in the gospels or other biblical texts. Another key player in the musical, one well familiar with its story and lyrical content, is legendary rocker Alice Cooper. Cooper takes on the role of King Herod, a ruler who lives for excess and decadence and fails to see the divinity of Christ, declaring him a liar.

This isn't Cooper's first time in the role: a 1996 cast recording of "Jesus Christ Superstar" also featured him as the king. Sitting at The Paley Center's discussion on this anticipated televised production with his fellow cast and crew, Cooper expressed his feelings about returning to the role. According to Cooper, Tim Rice is an "old friend of [his]," and it was Rice who long believed Cooper had the "[cynicism] and dangerous" nature required for the part.

Despite finding the same appeal as Legend with regard to being cast as Jesus, Cooper admits that "[he] never gets cast as Jesus," though he's not surprised and fairly certain he knows why. His stage persona as a rock musician doesn't really give that Christlike vibe.

This all-new, one-time production of "Jesus Christ Superstar Live in Concert" is not the first television special of its kind. Many viewers may be familiar with recent small-screen live adaptations of other musicals by NBC, including "The Sound of Music Live," "The Wiz Live," "Hairspray Live!" and "Grease: Live."

While these offerings may seem to be a recent phenomenon, NBC is no stranger to the teleplay. Both 1955 and 1956 found the musical adaptation of J. M. Barrie's classic "Peter Pan" making waves on TVs across America — notably the first time that a Broadway musical had ever been televised as a complete production, at that time also including almost the entire stage cast. Fittingly, "Peter Pan Live!" was also a recent NBC production, with the adaptation airing Dec. 4, 2014.

"Jesus Christ Superstar" made a name for itself in the early '70s for its infusion of rock 'n' roll with the Bible's foremost narrative. At once daring and mesmerizing, the production, which also received cinematic treatment in 1973, wasn't afraid to challenge preconceived notions and depictions of Christ and the figures that surrounded him.

At its core, though, much like the variability of the characters portrayed and the depths of their personas, Legend sees the production's music as not merely onenote. To him, the musical is "kind of a genre-bending and expanding piece," one that, "for those ... who love music and those ... who love to perform," does not have "as many boundaries as some would suggest."

Take a break from the quiet contemplation of Easter weekend and rejoice, for a renowned rock musical is about to shake up prime time. Catch John Legend, Sarah Bareilles and Alice Cooper as they're joined by an incredible cast for "Jesus Christ Superstar Live in Concert," airing Sunday, April 1, on NBC.

Lin Shaye in "Insidious: The Last Key"

Insidious: The Last Key

Horror hits close to home when paranormal investigator Elise Rainier (Shaye) investigates a haunting in her own childhood house. When the home's current owner (Acevedo) begins experiencing paranormal activity in the house, Elise returns to confront the demon that terrorized her as a child and drove a rift between her and her family. As she and her team investigate the strange goings-on within the walls, however, they begin to uncover a secret that proves that sometimes the demons can be far more familiar than they might first appear. Director: Adam Robitel. Stars: Lin Shaye, Leigh Whannell, Angus Sampson, Kirk Acevedo. 2018. 103 min. Horror.

Father Figures

When adult twin brothers Peter (Helms) and Kyle (Wilson) learn from their mother (Close) that their father did not, in fact, die when they were young, they set out on a lengthy road trip to track him down and finally meet him. With the additional revelation that their mother was promiscuous in her youth, meaning their dad could be any one of several men, they meet with a number of potential fathers who all share their memories of the twins' mother. Director: Lawrence Sher. Stars: Ed Helms, Owen Wilson. 2017. 113 min. Comedy.

'The Crossing' gives a serious subject a sci-fi twist

By Andrew Warren TV Media

Time-twisted drama: War, it seems, never changes, and ABC's new sci-fi drama is ready to shine the spotlight on a deeply human by-product that conflict has created since the beginning of history: refugees fleeing the horrors of fighting.

"The Crossing" premieres Monday, April 2, and while the subject may be a heavy one, that doesn't mean that the series is all doom and gloom. Steve Zahn ("Diary of a Wimpy Kid," 2010) leads the cast as the sheriff of a small fishing town in Oregon. A recent transplant from Oakland, he's looking to put his past behind him and build new lives for himself and his young son. The sleepy town's tranquility is shattered soon after his arrival, when dozens of refugees fleeing war wash up on shore and request asylum.

Of course, there's a twist to this: that war-torn country from which the refugees have fled is the United States, and the war is occurring 180 years in the future.

Natalie Martinez ("APB") costars as asylum seeker Reece, but unlike the other refugees, she's a genetically enhanced soldier with superhuman mental and physical abilities. Although she was engineered to eliminate her enemies, she's come to the past — our present for a very different mission altogether: to find safety for her daughter, from whom she was separated during their flight and whom she is now desperate to find. Also starring is Sandrine Holt ("House of Cards") as the Homeland Security agent in charge of the investigation.

At its core, "The Crossing" is a sci-fi mystery. What is this war from which these people have fled, and why have they come to our time, specifically? With the feds also involved and a horrific virus from the future on the loose, the new sheriff has his work cut out for him as he conducts his own investigation while also dealing with his dark past.

Unlock the mysteries of this new sci-fi drama when "The Crossing" premieres Monday, April 2, on ABC.

Star power: HBO delves into one of the darker chapters in college football's long history, and the network has turned to an Oscar winner to really bring the story to life.

"Scent of a Woman" (1992) star Al Pacino headlines the cast in HBO's biographical film "Paterno," which premieres Saturday, April 7. In it, he plays the titular role of Joe Paterno, a coach renowned for the most wins ever in college football but whose legacy was tarnished in the wake of a sexual abuse scandal that involved his former defensive co-ordinator. As is the expectation for an HBO film, a quality ensemble cast has been assembled to really bring the story to life on screen. Riley Keough ("Logan Lucky," 2017) plays young journalist Sara Ganim, the woman who first broke the story of the abuse of minors that was taking place. Kathy Baker ("Picket Fences") stars as Paterno's wife, Sue, while Larry Mitchell ("Hostages"), Greg Grunberg ("Heroes") and Annie Parisse ("Person of Interest") play his three children.

'Paterno" is just the latest collaboration that Pacino has had with HBO, and all three have been with Oscar-winning director Barry Levinson. The actor starred in 2010's "You Don't Know Jack," about controversial pathologist Jack Kevorkian, an outspoken proponent of doctor-assisted suicide. The role netted Pacino both an Emmy and a Golden Globe Award, and Levinson an Emmy nomination. In 2013, Pacino played the title role in "Phil Spector," a film about the murder trials of the notorious record producer.

Pacino and Levinson have a successful history when making HBO films together, which bodes well for their latest project. "Paterno" premieres Saturday, April 7, on HBO.

All that ever was: Fasten those seatbelts — the Ship of the Imagination is fueling up, its captain is plotting out its next course and we're all invited to come along for the trip through space, time and everything in between.

A new season of "Cosmos" is in the works at Fox, this time with the subtitle "Possible Worlds." The original 1980 series, "Cosmos: A Personal Voyage," starred astronomer and cosmologist Carl Sagan as he took viewers on a journey through a vast array of scientific subjects, from humanity's place in the universe to the origins of life itself. In 2014, astrophysicist Neil deGrasse Tyson hosted a followup, "Cosmos: A Spacetime Odyssey," which won critical acclaim and several awards, including four Emmys.

"Cosmos: Possible Worlds" is in the works for a spring 2019 premiere, and will reunite Tyson with executive producer Seth MacFarlane ("Family Guy"), who was instrumental in getting "A Spacetime Odyssey" made.

Just what the focus of the new series will be remains shrouded in mystery, but don't expect a rehashing of the subjects visited in "A Spacetime Odyssey." The team behind it has promised that previously unexplored subjects will be examined, and in an age when the terms "fake news" and "alternative facts" have become part of the lexicon, a little dose of some cutting-edge science explained in an easy to understand way may be just what the astrophysicist ordered.

Q: I just heard that Abby is leaving "NCIS." Why is she leaving? What is she doing next? What will "NCIS" do without her?

A: Unfortunately, all we really have so far is a growing list of things that are not making her leave. No. 1 on that list is a skincare line.

Last year, Pauley Perrette's likeness was used in ads for a skincare product. It was later revealed the ads were frauds — the product's producers had used a number of celebrity names without their permission. Unfortunately, the timing of the ads, which were making the rounds shortly before Perrette announced her departure from the show, fed rumors that she was leaving to pursue a career as a skincare shill.

Apparently the rumors have persisted. The scam was exposed in November, but Perrette was still denying it in January, when she posted on Twitter, "Just for the BILLIONTH TIME! I do NOT HAVE A SKIN CARE LINE! ... And that's not why I'm leaving the show."

Another thing that's not a factor is her relationship with the show's producers and CBS. When she first announced her departure (again on Twitter), she made a point of saying (again in all-caps), "NO MY NETWORK AND MY SHOW ARE NOT MAD AT ME!"

Indeed, the producers said they've known since 2016 and are planning a "special sendoff" for her at the end of this season, the show's 15th.

Despite a huge amount of fan consternation, "NCIS" star Mark Harmon was generous and upbeat about the decision. "Fifteen years is a long time. People do what they do, and they move on and they do other things and that's part of life," he told Entertainment Tonight. "It's given us, as a show, an opportunity for rebirth, to rejuvenate, to try new things, to grow. We adjust."

Q: Whatever happened to the reboot of "Cash Cab"?

I've seen three episodes and nothing else.

A: How you take the answer to your question will say a lot about whether you're a glasshalf-empty or glass-half-full kind of person. "Cash Cab" came and went from the Discovery schedule over the course of three weeks, but that was the plan all along.

An optimist will hear this and think it's good news because it means the show wasn't canceled (again). But a pessimist will hear this and be disappointed there are no more episodes in the immediate future.

However, there's a chance you don't have to be either. You say you've seen three episodes, but in fact six were produced for this new season. They aired over three nights, though, so it's possible you took the evening's two half-hour episodes as a single one-hour episode. But it's also possible you somehow only saw three and have three more new ones still to go.

Brace yourself for some undeniably bad news, though: the ratings for the new season were ... not great.

The show was once a mighty fixture on Discovery's schedule, running for seven years (from 2005 to 2012), airing more than 200 episodes and raking in multiple Emmys. However, the new season, which the network clearly had high hopes for, did poorly against its competition.

None of its final four episodes (which aired on Dec. 10 and 17) drew even a million viewers, and they were beaten in their time-slots by such ratings lightweights as HGTV's "Beachfront Bargain Hunt" and Investigation Discovery's "People Magazine Investigates" (no offense to either of those shows — indeed, congratulations to them on beating a well-known TV brand).

This is bad news for "Cash Cab's" chances of getting another season, though perhaps those past years of success will make Discovery a little more patient. And perhaps it will realize that three nights might not have been enough to get people back into the "Cash Cab" habit.

Empire

WFXT 13 8:00 p.m.

While on the brink of nailing down an important tech deal, Eddie (Forest Whitaker) realizes that Empire needs to be rebranded in a new episode of "Empire," airing Wednesday, April 4 on Fox. Meanwhile, a girl group re-unites and threatens to expose long-buried secrets from the past, forcing Cookie (Taraji P. Henson) to spring into action to keep things under wraps.

Terrence Howard stars in "Empire"

Knock, knock: Home renovation and interior design television shows are everywhere these days, but that wasn't always the case. In 2000, TLC debuted a series that would change the television landscape for years to come: "Trading Spaces."

Host Paige Davis ("Home Made Simple") returns to welcome neighbors into each other's houses in the reboot of "Trading Spaces," premiering Saturday, April 7, on TLC. Working in pairs, the neighbors team up with designers to re-imagine a space and get to work with the help of a carpenter. In the first few seasons of the original series, the participants were given just $1,000 to complete the transformations, but the new version features a $2,000 budget. While they have no say in what happens to their own home, participants can influence what happens in their neighbors' houses. They won't get to see their own space until the big reveal on the final day.

It was a formula that inspired millions of viewers to revamp their spaces, and Davis recalled the impact of the original series when speaking to the Television Critics Association in January.

"It made interior design accessible to middle America, instead of [just] the upper echelon of society," Davis explained. "The show has always been about being resourceful, creativity, doing the most for the least amount of mon-

Fans are hoping the magic will continue in the reboot, and TLC is relying on a mix of old and new talent to make it happen. Returning designers include fan favorites Doug Wilson, Vern Yip, Genevieve Gorder, Frank Bielec, Hildi Santo-Tomas and Laurie Smith.
