Feminist television: AMC's biting satire 'Dietland' tackles big issues

By Kyla Brewer

revolution is brewing — a television revolution, that is. While there's no shortage of lighthearted fare in prime time, socially conscious TV shows have been trending as of late, and AMC's latest hit packs a powerful punch with its feminist slant.

Joy Nash ("Twin Peaks: The Return") stars as Plum Kettle, an overweight magazine writer who gets caught between two rival feminist factions in the 10-episode series "Dietland," airing Monday, July 2, on AMC. Based on the bestselling, critically acclaimed book of the same name by Sarai Walker, the show was brought to television by Marti Noxon ("Buffy the Vampire Slayer").

"Dietland" is equal parts drama and comedy as it critiques the beauty industry and society in general for its obsession with weight and the near-impossible ideals imposed upon women. As Plum prepares for the surgery that will give her the socalled "perfect" body, she's torn between old ideas and new extremes when she's approached by an underground organization determined to challenge the status quo. She also learns of a group of feminists bent on getting revenge against sexual predators.

The role requires an actress capable of being both conflicted and funny, and producers put their faith in Nash from the get-go. When it was announced that the actress had taken the lead in the new series way back in August 2017, creator Noxon spoke highly of their new star.

"Joy is everything I hoped we'd find in our leading woman — beautiful, smart and blazing with talent," Noxon said. "When she auditioned, the whole room was electrified."

Nash is in good company. Producers were equally excited to announce the casting of Julianna Margulies of "ER" and "The Good Wife," who plays Plum's boss at Austen Media, magazine editor Kitty Montgomery. Wickedly ambitious, Kitty is sucked into a terrifying news cycle when a feminist organization begins to target those around her.

"Julianna is diabolically talented and beautiful, which makes her perfect to play our Kitty," Noxon said. "I am genuinely honored to have the opportunity to work with her. She's a special human and a rare actor."

The cast also includes Tamara Tunie ("Law & Order: Special Victims Unit") as Julia Smith, an Austen Media employee who manages the beauty closet where they store all manner of makeup, lotions and fadworthy products. However, Plum learns Julie has a hidden agenda as an operative for an underground feminist organization that wants to undermine the messages of Austen Media's beauty magazines and those like them.

On the flipside is Robin Weigert ("Deadwood") as Verena Baptist, the fierce leader of a feminist collective who brings women into a place dubbed Calliope House, a place of acceptance. She hopes to deprogram Plum so she can reject beauty industry thinking and accept herself for who she is now, not who she thinks she should be.

Erin Darke ("Good Girls Revolt") plays Leeta Albridge, who shakes up Plum's world when she tries to recruit her for Baptist, claiming that the leader will change her life. Baptist's other followers include former sitcom star Marlowe Buchannan (Alanna Ubach, "Girlfriends' Guide to Divorce"), who lost her job when she gained a few extra pounds, and Sana (Ami Sheth, "Blindspot"), a disfigured artist who becomes a model of self-acceptance for Plum. Calliope House is also home to Rubi (Jen Ponton, "30 Rock"), a colorful, exuberant and very opinionated woman.

Plum's love interest in the series is NYPD Det. Dominic O'Shea (Adam Rothenberg, "Ripper Street"), who becomes attracted to Plum while investigating a hack at Austen Media. Dominic pals around with fellow cop and former partner, Bobby (Marc Blucas, "Underground").

British actress Rowena King ("Of Kings and Prophets") portrays nononsense newscaster Cheryl Crane-Murphy, who struggles to remain calm as she delivers macabre news sparked by the actions of a feminist terrorist group known only as Jennifer. Austen Media titan Stanley Austen (Campbell Scott, "Royal Pains") has been targeted by the anonymous feminist terrorists. Meanwhile, his wife, Abra (Kelly Hu, "The Scorpion King," 2002), has grown resentful of being regarded as merely Stanley's "trophy wife."

Behind the scenes, Noxon serves as executive producer, writer and showrunner. She also directs several episodes, exploring issues such as patriarchy, misogyny and rape culture in addition to critiquing unrealistic beauty standards.

Filmed in New York City, the series tackles important issues and is likely to spark heated conversations among viewers. In fact, AMC is counting on it. The network has paired the series with an aftershow in the vein of "Talking Dead," the companion series to its mega-hit "The Walking Dead." "Unapologetic With Aisha Tyler" airs immediately after each episode of "Dietland" as Tyler ("Whose Line Is It Anyway?") and her guests talk about the show and the issues it explores. While shows such as "Talking Dead" focus primarily on its companion series, "Unapologetic" digs deeper as Tyler leads discussions about broader "female-centric" issues beyond the themes touched on in "Dietland." The talk show features a mix of series stars and producers, celebrity fans, journalists, comedians, writers and others.

All in all, "Dietland" has been causing quite a stir in the television industry as Hollywood continues to move forward with the Me Too movement against sexual harassment and assault. Follow a beaten and distraught Plum as she takes cover in Calliope House, where she tries to come to terms with who she really is in a new episode of "Dietland," airing Monday, July 2, on AMC, and stick around to check out "Unapologetic With Aisha Tyler."

Leslie Mann and John Cena in a scene from "Blockers"

Blockers

Three high school seniors — Julie (Newton), Kayla (Viswanathan) and Sam (Adlon) — make a pact that on the day of their prom, they'll each lose their virginity before the end of the night. Before the prom, their parents, including Julie's mother, Lisa (Mann), Kayla's overprotective father, Mitchell (Cena), and Sam's absent dad, Hunter (Barinholtz), throw them a party, but when the girls leave an open laptop behind, the secret is spilled to their parents. All three parents become determined to stop their daughters from making a huge mistake and set out to block their "first times" by any means necessary, learning a lot about themselves and their own hang-ups and relationships with their daughters along the way.

Director: Kay Cannon. Stars: Leslie Mann, John Cena, Ike Barinholtz, Kathryn Newton, Geraldine Viswanathan, Gideon Adlon. 2018. 102 min. Comedy.

Drive into the sunset

Matt LeBlanc to leave 'Top Gear' after one more season

By Andrew Warren

TV Media

Drive into the sunset: One of Britain's most iconic TV shows is losing another presenter as it continues to struggle to regain its footing. American actor Matt LeBlanc, best known for his role in the iconic sitcom "Friends" and more recently in CBS's "Man with a Plan," has announced that the next season of the BBC America series will be his LeBlanc has been with the popular motoring series since its 23rd season in 2016. He famously took on the role following a very public dismissal of the show's longtime presenter Jeremy Clarkson and the subsequent departure of several of the show's other presenters, and since then he's become the face of a series that, while still popular, has struggled to come anywhere close to the ratings it boasted during Clarkson's tenure.

Unlike Clarkson's departure, or that of LeBlanc's former co-presenter, BBC Radio host Chris Evans, LeBlanc appears to be leaving on friendly terms and for the most honorable of reasons — he wants to spend more time with his family and friends. "My experience on Top Gear has been great fun. I have thoroughly enjoyed working with the whole team," he said in a statement. "However, the time commitment and extensive travel required to present 'Top Gear' takes me away from my family and friends more than I'm comfortable

Of course, there's still another season with LeBlanc in the works, so his many fans don't have to say goodbye just yet. BBC Two has promised that "Top Gear's" next season will be a special one, and that the search is on for a new co-host to take his place. The most recent season wrapped up this past April and there's no word yet on when the 26th, LeBlanc's der the Dome"), Nikki M. James ("BrainDead"), Russell Hornsby ("Grimm") and Vincent Kartheiser ("Mad Men"). Grammer takes over a role that was played by Brian d'Arcy James

A few casting changes between the pilot and broadcast of a series aren't anything unusual, but picking up an actor of Grammer's caliber is definitely a win for the series. The drama focuses on a young lawyer (Lefevre) who leads an expert team that reopens and re-examines old cases in an attempt to exonerate innocent people who were wrongfully convicted.

Grammer's role — the one played by James in the pilot — is that of state attorney Gore Bellows, whose tough-on-crime outlook often has him going head to head with the scrappy legal team.

Grammer is best known for his role as Dr. Frasier Crane in both "Cheers" and "Frasier," earning five Emmys for his portrayal. He's voiced the recurring villain Sideshow Bob in "The Simpsons" since 1990 and has been in his share of big-budget blockbusters, including "Transformers: Age of Extinction" (2014) and "The Expendables 3" (2014).

The addition of such an acclaimed actor to the cast of "Proven Innocent" will not doubt give it a leg up in the competitive TV drama landscape. The series is in production, with plans for a mid-season premiere next year.

Back to his roots: Mark Burnett is returning to the show that kickstarted his career. The famous television producer is the man behind some of reality TV's biggest hits, such as "Survivor," "The Appren-> 2002 and is often credited with paving the way for reality TV juggernaut "Survivor." For its return, which is currently being shopped around to various networks, Burnett has tapped one of the world's most recognizable survivalists to serve as host and executive producer: Bear Grylls ("Running Wild with Bear Grylls).

mantic comedy from 1994. There's been no official word on whether she'll star in that se-version of "Four Weddings and a Funeral," the big-screen hit ro-ries or just write or produce it, but it's already pretty well stuffed with producers — Tim Bevan and Eric Fellner, who coproduced the original film, will produce the series as well.

Kaling also just did that little movie "Ocean's 8." And by "little," of course I mean one of the most anticipated films of this year. She co-starred in the female-led reboot of the "Ocean's" franchise made famous first by Frank Sinatra and the Rat Pack, and more recently by George Clooney and friends.

Indeed, she's been devoting a lot of her precious time to films lately. She also appeared in the Disney production of the classic children's book "A Wrinkle in Time" earlier this year — opposite Oprah Winfrey, no less.

Q: Is Rocky Carroll coming back for the next season of "NCIS"? The last season finale has me worried.

A: You're not alone. Rocky Carroll sounds a little worried, Without giving too much away, Carroll's character, NCIS Director Leon Vance, ends the season as the captive of a seemingly pretty bad character, and his life is clearly in danger.

The show has been renewed for a 16th season, but no plot details have been released yet. Even the actor himself seems to know no more about his future on the show than we do.

Fans sent messages of support and concern to Carroll's Twitter account after the finale, and in response he only said, "Thanks for the kind words. Keep your fingers crossed for Vance!"

Of course, we all have good reason to worry. Fans are painfully aware that the show is willing to write off major characters — Abby (played in all 15 seasons by Pauley Perrette) left the show last season, and people are still sore at the exit of Ziva (Cote de Pablo) in season 11. If the show is able to survive after the exit of major characters like that, you begin to realize that anyone's expendable.

Indeed, Gibbs (Mark Harmon) and Ducky (David McCallum) are the only two original characters left on the show.

University, the chisel-jawed animal lover started working in a clinic on Sydney's north shore. During his time there, he often traveled to remote Aboriginal communities in the Northern Territory deserts to treat animals in need, many of which had never been seen or treated by a vet

It was during this formative period that the fresh, young doctor was discovered in a pub telling stories by an agent and was selected to be a presenter for the popular lifestyle series, "Harry's Practice." However, Brown's big break came in 2008 when "Bondi Vet" premiered. The hit series chronicled his life and work at a Bondi Junction veterinary clinic where, like his father before him, he treated a wide variety of domestic and exotic animals.

Real talk

By Francis Babin

Bondi Vet goes wild: In 2017, Dr. Chris Brown stepped down as the host of the hit series "Bondi Vet" due to his hectic schedule, yet less than a year later, he's back with a new series chock-full of animal adventures in "Vet Gone Wild." Watch as Brown travels the globe treating animals of all species in need of medical attention in a new episode airing Sunday, July 1, on Animal Planet.

Growing up in the suburbs of Newcastle, Australia, Brown witnessed his veterinarian father treat a backyard menagerie that included chickens, ducks, koalas, kangaroos, horses, cows and donkeys. The constant presence of animals and his dog Claude's sudden illness set the future celebrity vet's future in motion. After graduating from Sydney
