LONDON — North Laurel has turned in its best season in school history to date, and look to be the popular pick to win this year's 49th District championship.

The Jaguars are led by sophomore sensation Reed Sheppard along with Ryan Davidson, Brody Brock, Clay Sizemore, Nate Bruner and Caden Harris.

Is Clay County the team to slow down North Laurel? The Tigers could be but first they'll have to get past a Jackson County team they've beaten twice this season. If a Tigers/Jaguars match-up does happen, look for Clay County to give North Laurel a tough game.

49th District Girls Tournament Outlook No. 1 North Laurel vs. No. 4 Red Bird

The two teams met way back in Jan. 4 with North Laurel coming away with an easy 98-23 win over the Lady Cardinals.

A lot has changed for both teams since then with the Lady Jaguars' leading scorer in that game, Halle Collins, transferring time Knox Central midway through the season.

Collins scored 20 points in the win while Emily Sizemore added 13 points, Chloe McKnight recorded 12 points and 12 rebounds and Hailee Valentine finished with 10 points.

The Lady Jaguars turned in a 40-of-69 shooting effort in the win while also pulling down an impressive 46 rebounds.

Red Bird struggled throughout the game against North Laurel. Leading scorer Alyssa Gibson was limited to three points while Liberty Taylor led the Lady Cardinals with 10

The Cardinals have surprised many this season and has what it takes to win another district crown but another team to look out for is Tony Pietrowski's Corbin Redhounds. They're playing some of the best basketball in the 13th Region currently. The Redhounds are stocked with offensive weapons and will be a hard team to knock off.

Glenn Gray's Tigers are a perfect 2-0 against Jackson County this season, recording wins of 75-59, and 85-58.

Connor Robinson had a huge game during the first contest, scoring 35 points while finishing with seven rebounds. Tate Farmer (15 points), Raven Abner (11 points) and Connor Farmer (10 points) also scored in double figures.

The Tigers hit 26-of-62 shot attempts, including a 7-of-23 effort from 3-point range.

Clay Akemon led Jackson County with 19 points while Jude Lakes added 17 points and Nicholas Terry finished with 12 points.

The Generals shot 20-of-46 from the floor but was only 1-of-16 from 3-point range.

Connor Farmer led the way for Clay County in the second meeting. He scored 24 points while Robinson and Abner added 22 points apiece. The Tigers shot a red-hot 31-of-50 while hitting 11 3-pointers in the win.

The Jaguars already won one matchup between the two teams, and I expect North Laurel to make it 2-0 after beating the Tigers in the title game.

I do believe Clay County has the talent to hang with the Jaguars but the big question will be if the Tigers can slow down The Jaguars' offensive attack.

North Laurel won the first meeting between the two teams, 99-74, while five players scored in double figures. If the Jaguars have four or five players score in double figures again, it's going to be cruise control for Nate Valentine's team.

The Lady Generals are 2-0 against Clay County this season after coming away with victories of 41-32, and 50-47, respectively.

Abby Gilbert led Jackson County with 12 points in the first meeting while Natalie Carr followed with an 11-point scoring effort. The Lady Generals shot 16-of-50 from the floor, including going 3-of-18 from 3-point range.

Taylor Asher led Clay County with 18 points in the loss while Madison Curry added eight points. The Lady Tigers hit 11-of-38 shot attempts while knocking down 4-of-14 shot attempts from 3-point range.

Kenady Ward came up big during Jackson County's 50-47 win. She scored 16 points and pulled down five rebounds Jenna Creech and Abby Gilbert followed with eight points apiece.

The Lady Generals shot way better from the floor, hitting 21-of-38 shot attempts while pulling down 28 rebounds.

Clay County struggled from the floor once again, hitting only 15-of-40 shot attempts, including a 10-of-27 effort from behind the arc. The Lady Tigers also finished with only 13 rebounds.

Taylor Asher led Clay County with 19 points while hitting five 3-pointers.

Hayden Llewellyn scored 24 points in the win while Josh Hibbitts added 14 points and Brody Wells finished with 10 points.

Prediction

Corbin 66, South Laurel 56

The Cardinals are 2-0 against the Redhounds this season, winning the first matchup 83-64 and the second meeting, 71-62.

With that said, the Redhounds are playing really well right now. Coach Tony Pietrowski has done a fantastic job to rebound from a 3-6 start.

But Jeff Davis has turned in one heck of a coaching effort this season. South Laurel wasn't expected to do much this season, but here they are, ready to defend their district title.

Corbin connected on 22-of-47 shot attempts while finishing with 26 rebounds.

South Laurel's Rachel Presley did all she could to keep her team in the game, scoring 21 points and finishing with 12 rebounds. Brianna Howard added 14 points and Corbin Miller finished with 10 points.

The Lady Cardinals were about to get some payback during the second meeting, going on the road to pick up a 65-48 win.

Presley added 22 points and seven rebounds while Reagan Jones scored 17 points and finished with 13 rebounds. Howard added 14 points and Kyle Clem finished with 10 points. South Laurel shot 23-off-44 from the floor.

Shelby Stewart did all she could to keep her team in the game. She scored 24 points

Chris Souder's squad started the season with a 1-5 start but continued to improve as the season progressed.

If you'd asked me a month ago if I thought South Laurel could win another district title this season, I would have said, 'No.'

But The Lady Cardinals have turned things around, and I'm thinking they'll find a way to beat the Lady Colonels for the second time this season. It won't be easy, but I expect them to get the job done.

The Tigers have dealt with almost everything you can deal with this past season. From having players sick, to also getting injured. If it's not been one thing, it's been another for Cody Messer's Tigers.

Despite all of that, Barbourville did manage to record a 62-54 win over Lynn Camp. The Tigers turned in a solid effort, shooting 26-of-47 from the floor. Matthew Gray led the way with 19 points while Dylan Moore Dddd 18 points and Matthew Warren finished with 15 points.

Knox Central is primed and ready to make another run for a 13th Region championship. But before the Panthers can do that, they'll have to find a way to get a way in the 51st District title game.

I do believe they'll do it in fine fashion. Knox Central just has too much firepower right now.

Lynn Camp's Micah Engle, Gavin Allen, Luke Ledington, Spencer Gilbert and Jace Boggs will have to step up their play to gain close with the Panthers. I believe they will but in the end, Knox Central has too much firepower.

LONDON — The South Laurel Cardinals have been on a roll as of late, and they continued to roll through the competition on Monday, with a 75-44 win against the visiting Wayne County Cardinals.

The win was the fifth straight for South Laurel, who wrapped up their regular season with the victory. Ten different players scored for the Cardinals on Monday, led by Parker Payne with 17. Micah Anders added 16 points, while Rhys England scored eight, and Caden Jones and Brayden Reed scored seven points, apiece.

Coach Jeff Davis was able to clear the floor and let his bench play most of the second half, especially in the fourth quarter.

The game was all South Laurel from the very start.

South Laurel's Eli Gover, and Brayden Reed battled a Wayne County player for possession of a loose ball.

Davis' crew started out with a 23-13 lead at the end of the first. Payne got off to a hot start, scoring six points in the opening period, and Anders added eight, knocking down two three-pointers.

LONDON — No. 6 ranked North Laurel was able to get back to its winning ways on Monday after up-ending Red Bird with ease, 86-19.

The Jaguars (20-2) turned in a 35-of-67 shooting effort, including going 12-of-30 from 3-point range. They outrebounded the Cardinals, 48-19, which led to 36 second-chance points while forcing Red Bird into 22 turnovers, which led to 35 points.

"Tonight was good to get back on the court and get back to work," North Laurel coach Nate Valentine said. "We came in very focused and played hard. Red Bird is obviously outmanned this season but I'm proud of our guys for taking care of business. It will be good to get some practice time to get ready for postseason play."

North Laurel jumped out to a 35-7 lead in the first quarter thanks to four 3-pointers by Brody Brock and LONDON — North Laurel was able to cap off a perfect home record for 2021 after blowing past Evangel Christian on Monday, 95-76.

The Jaguars (21-2) capped off its best regular season in program history by going 12-0 at home while running its win streak at The Jungle to 17 consecutive games overall.

“We really responded tonight, especially in the first half,” North Laurel coach Nate Valentine said. “It capped off a tremendous regular season going 21-2. I’m just really proud of our team for the way they handled this season amid all the restrictions.

They made sacrifices that allowed us to keep playing and avoid shutdowns. We now have to refocus and get ready for post-season play.”

Nate Valentine’s squad hit 11 of their 12 3-pointers during the first half while building leads of 32-15 at the end of the first quarter and 54-34 at halftime.

North Laurel caps off eight-game road trip with 64-53 win over Pulaski Co.

By Les Dixon
Staff Writer

SOMERSET — Eddie Mahan’s North Laurel Lady Jaguars capped off one of the toughest eight-game stretches they’ve been a part of on Saturday by handing Pulaski County a 64-53 loss.

The 11-point win allowed North Laurel to post a 6-2 record during its eight-game road trip which included wins over Jackson County, Whitley County, Rockcastle County, Bell County, Corbin, and Pulaski County. Their two losses were a two-point setback to Holy Cross and a 12-point loss to Southwestern.

“We played with a little more team ownership today and you could really see it in the second and third quarters,” Mahan said. “At the end of the day, teams have to know that their performance is in their own control.”

The Lady Jaguars showed no signs of fatigue even after coming off a hard-fought, 80-72, win against Corbin the night before. They fell behind 18-12 after eight minutes of play but out-scored the Lady Maroons, 55-35, the remainder of the game.

Chloe McKnight led North Laurel with 20 points while Emily Sizemore added 18 points and Hailee Valentine finished with 13 points.

“Chloe McKnight continues to improve every game and you can see our team is learning how to play with a dominate post,” Mahan said. “I think our ability to utilize her will be a big key for us in postseason play.”

LEXINGTON — North Laurel entered the weekend ranked second in the state along with a perfect 19-0 mark, but left a defeated team, twice, by scores of 86-66 to Ashland Blazer on Friday, and 83-51 to No. 1 Lexington Catholic on Saturday, while getting running-clock against the Knights.

The Jaguars (19-2) were a shell of themselves during both games.

The 3-pointers that were falling during their first 19 contests were rimming out, leading to their combined 8-of-31 shooting effort from behind the arc in both games. The Jaguars were outscored a combined 78-24 from 3-point range, including 33-15 against Lexington Catholic.

But the struggles didn't end there. North Laurel combined to turn the ball over an uncharacteristic 30 times in both losses, leading to 51 points for their opponents.

"This was a tough two days for us," North Laurel coach Nate Valentine said. "We are playing programs that have been where we LEXINGTON — North Laurel took one on the chin Friday, leading to the No. 2 ranked Jaguars' first loss of the season.

North Laurel dug itself a 30-17 hole in the first quarter against hot-shooting Ashland Blazer, and never recovered, losing to the Tomcats, 86-66.

It didn't help matters that Ashland Blazer was red-hot from 3-point range.

The Tomcats hit 10-of-14 (71.4 percent) 3-point attempts in the first half to build a 46-27 half-time lead while finishing the game 15-of-26 (56.7 percent) from behind the arc.

"We ran into a buzz saw tonight," North Laurel coach Nate Valentine said. "This was a great learning experience for our guys. I certainly don't like losing, but I wouldn't trade this opportunity. We need games like this to help us get ready for the postseason."

North Laurel (19-1) didn't have an answer for Ashland's Ethan Sellers, who finished with a game-high 37 points while hitting 7-of-10 shot attempts from 3-point range. The Tomcats finished the game hitting 32-of-61 shot attempts from the floor.

CORBIN — Two 13th Region heavyweights battled to the end on Friday with Eddie Mahan's North Laurel Lady Jaguars surviving an 80-72 win over Corbin.

The region's top-ranked team led by double-digits in the second half but had to hold off a furious rally by the Lady Redhounds in the fourth quarter to get the eight-point victory.

North Laurel improves to 18-4 and pushed its record against 13th Region teams to a perfect 8-0 while Corbin fell to 14-9 and 9-7 against regional opponents.

North Laurel's junior duo of Hailee Valentine and Emily Sizemore paced the way for the Lady Jaguars. Valentine scored a game-high 27 points while Sizemore added 19 points. Chloe McKnight finished with 15 points and Brooke Nichelson turned in an 11-point scoring effort.

Kallie Housley kept Corbin close with her 22-point scoring effort while eighth-grader Raegan Walker followed with 18 points and Shelby Stewart tallied 14 points.

Corbin's Lauren Faulkner scores all five of her points in the first quarter to give the Lady Redhounds a 14-11 lead. McKnight added five points for North Laurel during the period while Valentine added four points.

The Lady Jaguars were able to claim a double-digit lead in the second quarter after outscoring the Lady Redhounds, 27-13.

Sizemore scored nine points while hitting a 3-pointer and Nichelson knocked down two 3-pointers during the period. Valentine added five points to push North Laurel's lead to 38-27 at halftime.

Housley's seven points in the third quarter combined with Stewart's two 3-pointers cut the Lady Jaguars' lead to 56-48 going into the fourth quarter. Valentine (10 points) and Sizemore (eight points) combined to score all of North Laurel's points in the third quarter.

The Lady Jaguars did just enough to hold on in the fourth quarter to pull off the eight-point win. Sizemore added eight points during the period while Valentine scored seven points.

Corbin's Walker was able to score nine points in the final eight minutes while Housley added seven points.

the second half. The Cardinals cleared the bench in the fourth. Jeremy Steele scored five points, Tyson Young scored three, and Jacob Steele added two, as South Laurel cruised to the 75-44 win.

The Cardinals finished the regular season with a record of 16-5. They will return to action on Saturday, taking on Williamsburg in the first round of the 50th District Tournament.

PIKEVILLE — The South Laurel Lady Cardinals had a tough outing on Friday night when they traveled to Pikeville to take on the Lady Panthers. South Laurel fell, 77-47, in one of their worst performances of the year.

In all 10 of their losses this season, the Lady Cardinals have shown major struggles on the offensive end of the court. The 47 points scored against Pikeville on Friday were one of South Laurel's lowest scoring outputs of the season.

Coach Chris Souder said he is concerned with his team's poor performance this close to the postseason.

"This isn't the ideal time to decide not to compete. Pikeville punched us early and often, and we never recovered," said Souder. "We are running out of time to figure this out."

The loss is the third in their last five games for South Laurel. Before that, they had won eight of their last nine. With just three games left in the regular season, Souder said his team needs to figure it out in a hurry to prepare for a postseason run.

"Hopefully this time next week, we can figure this out," said Souder. "We have to be tournament ready."

LONDON — Eddie Mahan's North Laurel Lady Jaguars have shown time after time this season they're able to deal with whatever curveball comes their way.

They managed to do it earlier this season, and again during Monday's regular-season finale with junior Hailee Valentine not able to suit up during the Lady Jaguars' matchup against Jackson County due to an injury.

North Laurel was able to persevere, though, picking up a 51-38 win over the Lady Generals.

"Hailee Valentine is a terrific perimeter player and usually is a huge difference-maker against teams like Jackson who clog up the middle," Mahan said. "I believe she had 30 against them last time. So going into the game without her, I knew our team was going to have to rely on our kids to step up, and once again they did it terrifically.

"Their persistence this season, always fighting through adversity has really impressed me," he added. "It's no surprise that Emily Sizemore scored 17 and made so many right decisions tonight but when you see what eighth-graders like Brooke Nichelson, Bella Sizemore and Saige McClure did, you have to be impressed."

Nichelson and Emily Sizemore each scored 17 points apiece in the win while Chloe McKnight added seven points. Bella Sizemore and McClure each got into the scoring action, finishing with five points apiece.

"The girls came out and executed our game plan perfectly," Mahan said. "We did not shoot well but what our girls did today was exactly what I wanted from them. Even before Hailee Valentine's injury, I knew how I wanted to see my girls play this game against Jackson. We needed to be able to change our style and be able to still win when a game slows down.

"It's how you have to win some games in tour-namment time and I thought our execution on offense and defense was stellar," he added. "If we had shot our normal percentages we would have won the game by a much larger margin."

The game was tight throughout with the Lady Jaguars surging to a 15-5 ter but finished knocking down 56.8 percent (25-of-44) of their shots for the game. They even hit 71.4 percent (15-of-21) of their shot attempts in the second half but the damage had already been done. The key stat in the game was North Laurel's 3-of-12 effort from 3-point range. Ashland outscored the Jaguars, 45-9, from behind the arc.

 North Laurel also committed 16 turnovers that led to 23 Tomcats' points.
 Sophomore Reed Sheppard scored a team-high 34 points in the loss while finishing with five assists and four rebounds. Ryan Davidson finished with 12 points and nine rebounds.

North Laurel still sitting atop latest edition of Fear 'Les' 13th Region Boys Rankings

1. North Laurel (21-2 overall, 8-0 vs. 13th Region competition)

The Jaguars took two losses on the chin this past weekend against Ashland Blazer and Lexington Catholic but responded with two big wins over both Red Bird and Evangel Christian.

2. Harlan County (18-4, 5-3)

The three-game losing skid midway through the season looks to be a blessing in disguise for the Black Bears. Harlan County has now won five in a row entering postseason play.

3. South Laurel (16-5, 11-3)

No one would have ever thought the Cardinals would have 16 wins at this point of the season after what the program is graduated the past two years. But here they are, 16-5, with two wins over Corbin, a win over Trinity and Knox Central to just name a few this season.

4. Corbin (12-6, 11-4)

The Redhounds remain the hottest team in the region with a nine-game win streak. Corbin has beaten Clay County, Knox Central (twice), Madison Southern, and Lynn Camp during the streak.

5. Knox Central (13-5, 7-3)

The two-time defending 13th Region champions struggled this past week, going 1-2 with losses to both Corbin and South Laurel. Senior Jevonte Turner turned in a fantastic week, scoring 48 points, 43 points, and 38 points, respectively.

6. Harlan (15-5, 6-2)

going 2-0. Jordan Akal continues to impress, scoring 20 and 42 points, respectively, in the two games.

7. Bell County (16-10, 10-6)

The Bobcats are red-hot, winners of four in a row and 11 of their last 13 games. The duo of Cameron Burnett and Dawson Woolm has almost been unstoppable.

8. Clay County (13-7, 9-5)

The Tigers are 2-2 during their past four games but those losses were against some good teams — Harlan and Covington Catholic. Clay County has enough talent to win the Region tourney, the Tigers just need some consistency and momentum going into postseason play.

9. Barbourville (11-11, 6-8)

Injuries and sickness has slowed Barbourville down but the Tigers have won two of three with wins coming against Burgin and Red Bird.

10. Lynn Camp (11-11, 7-7)

The talent is there but the consistency isn't just yet for the Wildcats. They have one of the best scorers in the region in Micah Engle while shot-blocker Gavin Allen recorded his 100th block of the season last week.

1. North Laurel (20-4 overall, 9-0 against 13th Region competition)

The Lady Jaguars finished regular season play with a 51-38 win over Jackson County on Monday. Now all eyes shift to 49th District Tournament play along with the health of junior guard Hailee Valentine, who missed the Jackson County game due to an injury. She's expected to be back in action next week, and that will be a big boost for North Laurel.

2. Bell County (19-4, 14-3)

The Lady Bobcats got back to their winning ways this past week after losing at home to North Laurel.

Bell County defeated both Williamsburg and Leslie County and has now won two games in a row.

3. South Laurel (15-10, 8-3)

While most teams are playing easier schedules, Chris Souder's squad has been playing some of the best teams in the mountains.

The Lady Cardinals did suffer two setbacks but have also picked up wins over Shelby Valley, Danville, and Jackson County.

4. Corbin (14-10, 9-7)

The Lady Redhounds finished regular season play on Tuesday with a loss and will now shift their focus to Saturday's 50th District matchup against South Laurel. It's a shame both Corbin and South Laurel teams will be facing elimination this week.

5. Whitley County (15-9, 10-5)

The Lady Colonels are playing some good ball and are now focusing on the 50th District Tournament. Whitley County has to talent to make a run in postseason play. The Lady Colonels have a deep roster that can score at will.

6. Knox Central (11-5, 9-3)

The Lady Panthers finished regular season play with a 56-55 victory over Harlan County, but have suffered losses against both Bell County and Jackson County during the past two weeks.

7. Pineville (13-4, 13-2)

The Lady Mountain Lions suffered an 82-72 setback to Whitley County but have reeled off two consecutive wins since. Keep an eye on Pineville.

Emily Sizemore and the North Laurel Lady Jaguars are ranked No. 1 in the latest edition of the Fear 'Les' 13th Region Girls Hoops Rankings.

They have the talent to win the 51 District Tournament next week.

8. Jackson County (11-7, 11-7)

The Lady Generals had a chance to move up in the rankings this week but double-digit losses to both North Laurel and South Laurel dropped Jackson County in this week's rankings.

9. Clay County (12-7, 8-6)

The Lady Tigers are rolling. They've now won eight games in a row after defeating Middlesboro on Tuesday. Clay County isn't and could make a run at the 49th District Tournament.

10. Harlan County (8-11, 5-8)

Just when I thought the Black Bears had turned the corner, they've lost three of their last four games.

LONDON — Jeff Davis' South Laurel Cardinals continue to impress.

After garnering a No. 9 preseason regional ranking, the Cardinals have proven the prognosticators wrong time after time this season.

And now, you can add two-time defending 13th Region champion Knox Central to the list of teams South Laurel has beaten after the Cardinals handed the Panthers a 67-58 loss during Saturday's Raymond Reed Classic Presented by Grace Health.

After both teams scored 10 points apiece in the first quarter, South Laurel slowly began to distance itself from Knox Central despite a 38-point scoring effort from senior Jevonte Turner.

Parker Payne scored nine points in the second quarter for the Cardinals while Micah Anders added six points and a 3-pointer, allowing South Laurel to take a 29-28 advantage into the locker room at halftime. Anders hit three more 3-pointers in the third quarter while adding 11 points to help South Laurel's lead grow to 47-40 with eight minutes remaining.

Knox Central cut its deficit to three points on a couple of occasions in the fourth quarter but Anders and Caden Jones each scored seven points apiece during the North Laurel was able to hang with the Knights during the first six minutes of the first quarter. Sophomore Reed Sheppard scored four points out of the gate while a 3-pointer by Clay Sizemore and a basket by Ryan Davidson gave the Jaguars a 9-6 advantage.

The lead was short-lived, though.

Two 3-pointers and eight points in the first quarter by Mr. Basketball candidate Ben Johnson allowed Lexington Catholic to close the period with a 14-2 run to take a 20-11 lead at the end of the first quarter.

The Lady Generals outscored North Laurel, 13-13, in the third quarter and found themselves only trailing 34-30 before the Lady Jaguars sealed the deal with a 17-8 run in the game's final eight minutes.

"With Knox Central canceling Thursday's game, we have to start to turn our focus onto the district tournament," Mahan said. "While I am continuing to look for someone to play us this week, I know the chances of that is unlikely, so our practices are going to have to be hard and purposeful. "This team has had goals set for this time of year and they are focused on achieving them."

51st District Girls Finals

Prediction

Knox Central 62, Pineville 58

The Lady Panthers handed Pineville a 60-55 loss during their only meeting, and I expect this matchup to be another close one as well.

The key to both team's success will be guard play and post play. This is a toss-up game to be honest, and I'm gonna give Knox Central the slightest edge in this matchup.
