Merry Christmas

And it came to pass in those days, that there went out a decree from Caesar Augustus, that all the world should be taxed.

And Joseph also went up to be taxed with Mary, his espoused wife, being great with child.

A colorful illustration of a nativity scene. Mary is kneeling in prayer, Joseph stands nearby, and three wise men are kneeling and offering gifts to the infant Jesus who lies in a manger. A donkey and two sheep are also present. The background is a warm, golden glow.

And so it was, that, while they were there, the days were accomplished that she should be delivered.

And she brought forth her firstborn son, and wrapped him in swaddling clothes, and laid him in a manger; because there was no room for them in the inn.

*Merry Christmas,
from our family to yours!*

Now when Jesus was born in Bethlehem of Judea in the days of Herod the king, behold, there came wise men from the east to Jerusalem, saying, “Where is he that is born King of the Jews? For we have seen his star in the east, and are come to worship him.”

When they had heard the king, they departed; and, lo, the star, which they saw in the east, went before them, till it came and stood over where the young child was.

When they saw the star, they rejoiced with exceeding great joy. And when they were come into the house, they saw the young child with Mary his mother, and fell down, and worshipped him: and when they had opened their treasures, they presented unto him gifts; gold, and frankincense, and myrrh.

And there were
in the same country
shepherds abiding
in the field,
keeping watch

night.

And, lo,
the angel of
the Lord
came upon them, and the glory of
the Lord
shone round
about them: and they were sore afraid.

And the angel said unto them, Fear not: for, beheld, I bring you good tidings of great joy, which shall be to all people. For unto you is born this day in the city of David a Savior, which is Christ the Lord. And this shall be a sign unto you; Ye shall find the babe wrapped in swaddling clothes, lying in a manger.
