LOCAL LANDMARKS mark the way to fun and the past

SILVER LAKE SAND DUNES (SILVER LAKE STATE PARK)

A vast expanse of living sand dunes spanning nearly 2,000 acres between Silver Lake and Lake Michigan. Now part of Silver Lake State Park (approx. 3,000 acres), the dunes draw over a million visitors each year. This unique landscape was formed by winds off Lake Michigan and accelerated by 19th-century logging that removed stabilizing vegetation. Today the park includes a campground, a day-use beach on Silver Lake, and a 450-acre ORV area where visitors can drive dune buggies or take guided rides, continuing a tourism tradition dating back to the 1930s

LITTLE SABLE POINT LIGHTHOUSE

A historic brick lighthouse on the Lake Michigan shore at Silver Lake. Built in 1874, the tower stands 107 feet tall and once guided ships along the treacherous coastline. Its reddish-brown brick exterior (left unpainted) makes it an iconic landmark against the sand dunes and lake. Located at the Silver Lake State Park (near the end of Lighthouse Drive in Mears), the lighthouse is open seasonally for climbs, offering panoramic views of the dunes and Lake Michigan, is located at 9679 W. State Park Rd, Mears, within Silver Lake State Park.

OCEANA COUNTY HISTORICAL PARK & MUSEUMS (MEARS)

An open-air museum complex preserving the local history of Golden Township and Oceana County. Located at 5809 Fox Road in Mears, this historical park features multiple restored buildings: the Swift Lathers Museum (former home of Swift Lathers, who published the tiny weekly “Mears Newz” newspaper), the Boynton Cottage Museum, a Tool Museum, a Transportation Museum, the historic Robinson House Museum, the Old Golden Township Hall, and the Swedish Mission Church. Each structure reflects a piece of 19th or early 20th-century life – from early settler dwellings to a one-room town hall and a church used by Mears’ Swedish immigrant community. The park is open on summer weekends with free admission, offering a walk back in time through Mears’ lumbering, farming, and small-town heritage.

HART HISTORIC DISTRICT & MUSEUM

A collection of historic buildings preserved in a village-like setting near downtown Hart, 570 E. Lincoln Street. Established in 1987 by local volunteers, the district allows visitors to step back 150 years into Oceana County’s past. Over a dozen structures have been moved here or restored on site, including an authentic log cabin (Chief Cobmoosa’s cabin, home of a 19th-century Native American leader), an 1897 country church (Sackrider Church), a one-room Randall Schoolhouse, a vintage Schaner Feed Mill, and other shops and barns from the late 1800s. These buildings – along with artifacts and exhibits inside them – showcase everyday life of the area’s pioneers, from farming and education to commerce and worship. The Historic District is typically open to the public in summer (Tuesday–Friday) or by appointment, with guided tours available.

WILLIAM FIELD HART–MONTAGUE RAIL TRAIL STATE PARK

Hart is the northern terminus of this historic rail-trail. The trail is a 22-mile recreational path converted from the former Chesapeake & Ohio railway line that once connected Hart to Montague. Today it is Michigan’s first linear state park, popular for biking and hiking, but its route still carries the history of the 1890s railroad era. The trailhead in Hart (near John Gurney Park) features signage about the railroad, and as you travel south you pass through small villages that grew up alongside the old rail line. This rail-trail stands as a living monument to the region’s transportation history, linking present-day outdoor enthusiasts with the path of historic trains.

DISCOVER HART'S TINMAN SCULPTURE

The Tin Man of Hart: A New Landmark of Creativity and Community

In downtown Hart, Michigan, a towering Tin Man sculpture has become a beloved symbol of creativity, resilience, and community spirit. Standing 24 feet tall at Hart Commons Park (206 E. Main Street), the kneeling figure cradles a bright red heart—a tribute to both the classic Wizard of Oz character and the town's name, Hart.

The sculpture was created by renowned metal artist Bill Secunda, known for his large-scale installations and participation in ArtPrize competitions. Inspired after viewing a similar piece at the 2021 ArtPrize in Grand Rapids, Hart Mayor Vicki Platt and city leaders commissioned Secunda to craft a custom version specifically for Hart. The project, which cost approximately $50,000, was funded through a combination of private donations and grants.

Unveiled in June 2023 during the 50th Annual National Asparagus Festival, the Tin Man quickly became a centerpiece of Hart's downtown revitalization efforts. Its installation supports the city's ambitious "25 by 2025" initiative, which seeks to add 25 public art pieces throughout downtown to foster tourism, community pride, and cultural engagement.

More than just an artistic display, the Tin Man reflects Hart's agricultural heritage and its commitment to growth through creative placemaking. Nearby, Hart Commons has expanded with features like interactive chimes, pop-up business chalets, and seasonal events—making the area a vibrant destination for both residents and visitors year-round.

Visitors can enjoy the Tin Man sculpture anytime, surrounded by the scenic beauty of Hart Lake and the welcoming energy of a downtown that's continually evolving. For more information about Hart's public art initiatives, visit takemetohart.org.

ASPARAGUS: OCEANA COUNTY'S CLAIM TO FAME

Oceana County, Michigan, proudly holds the title of the “Asparagus Capital of the World”, a reputation rooted in its significant contribution to the state’s asparagus production. In 2023, Michigan led the nation by producing over 29 million pounds of asparagus, and Oceana County accounted for the largest share of that yield. The county’s success is attributed to its fertile sandy soils and a climate that is exceptionally favorable for asparagus cultivation.

A SEASONAL HARVEST AND COMMUNITY CELEBRATION

Asparagus harvest in Oceana County typically begins in early May and continues through mid-to-late June. During this period, the community celebrates its agricultural pride with the National Asparagus Festival, held annually in Hart. This event is the longest-running asparagus festival in the United States, featuring a lively parade, farm tours, food vendors, and the traditional crowning of the Asparagus Queen. The festival serves as both a tribute to the region’s farming heritage and a tourist draw that brings attention to local growers.

THE FARMING PROCES AND ECONOMIC IMPACT

Asparagus farming remains a labor-intensive practice in Oceana County. Spears are carefully handpicked to maintain quality and freshness. While farmers face challenges such as rising labor costs and international market competition, the county’s deep-rooted farming culture and community support have helped the asparagus industry remain viable and vibrant. The harvest not only supports local jobs and agriculture-based businesses but also contributes significantly to the regional economy.

NUTRITIONAL VALUE OF ASPARAGUS

Beyond its economic and cultural value, asparagus is also celebrated for its nutritional benefits. A one-cup serving (about 134 grams) of cooked asparagus contains:

Calories: 27

Fiber: 3 grams

Protein: 3 grams

Vitamin K: 70% of the Daily Value (DV)

Folate (Vitamin B9): 17% DV

Vitamin A: 20% DV

Vitamin C: 12% DV

Iron: 16% DV

Asparagus is naturally low in calories and fat, yet rich in antioxidants, anti-inflammatory properties, and essential vitamins. It’s especially known for promoting digestive health, supporting a healthy pregnancy due to its folate content, and offering potential heart health benefits.

Oceana County’s leadership in asparagus production is more than just a title—it represents a blend of agricultural excellence, strong community identity, and a celebration of one of nature’s healthiest vegetables. Through events like the National Asparagus Festival and a commitment to high-quality farming, this Michigan county continues to be a vital part of America’s agricultural landscape.

Established in 1974, the NAF was initiated by local farmers to promote asparagus, a crop that was not widely recognized at the time. undergo private interviews with judges, culminating in a crowning ceremony during the kickoff party on June 13. The queen will focus on local events, reducing the number of statewide appearances. She will receive a $1,000 scholarship to support further education or a local nonprofit initiative.

What to know about Silver Lake State Park

Silver Lake State Park, located in Mears, Michigan, is a 2,936-acre public recreation area bordering Lake Michigan and Silver Lake. The park's origins trace back to 1919 when Carrie E. Mears donated 25 acres for public use. Over the years, it expanded through federal land transfers and was officially designated as Silver Lake State Park in 1964.

ACTIVITIES AND ATTRACTIONS:

Sand Dunes Exploration: The park boasts over 2,000 acres of sand dunes, offering opportunities for hiking and sandboarding. Michigan

Off-Road Vehicle (ORV) Area: A 450-acre section is designated for ORV use, allowing visitors to drive their own vehicles or rent from local businesses. Michigan+1listofparks.com+1

Water Activities: Silver Lake and Lake Michigan provide venues for swimming, boating, fishing, and other water sports.

Little Sable Point Lighthouse: This historic lighthouse offers panoramic views of the surrounding area and is open for climbs during the summer months.

ECOSYSTEMS

Coastal Sand Dune Ecosystem:

The most iconic feature of Silver Lake State Park is its expansive sand dune system, which spans more than 2,000 acres. These are active, shifting coastal dunes, shaped by winds off Lake Michigan. The dunes form a dramatic landscape of open, rolling sand hills—some rising over 100 feet high. This type of environment is relatively rare in the United States and provides a unique habitat for specialized dune plants and wildlife.

Lake Michigan Shoreline: The western edge of the park borders Lake Michigan, featuring a wide sandy beach ideal for swimming, picnicking, and sunset viewing. This Great Lakes shoreline supports a variety of shorebirds and dune grasses and plays a crucial role in the park's ecological balance by stabilizing the dunes.

Inland Lake and Wetlands: To the east, Silver Lake offers a more sheltered aquatic habitat. This inland lake supports aquatic vegetation, fish populations, and is used for kayaking, paddleboarding, and fishing. The surrounding areas include wetlands, which are vital for water filtration and provide habitat for frogs, turtles, waterfowl, and other species.

Forested Areas: Portions of the park contain mixed hardwood and pine forests, especially on the outskirts of the dunes and near the campground. These forested zones provide shaded hiking opportunities and are home to deer, squirrels, foxes, and songbirds.

CONSERVATION SIGNIFICANCE

Silver Lake State Park's variety of ecosystems—dunes, beaches, wetlands, lakes, and forests—create a habitat mosaic that is not only beautiful but ecologically important. The park supports rare plant species adapted to sandy, nutrient-poor soil, such as Pitcher's thistle and blazing star, and it plays a key role in preserving Michigan's unique Great Lakes dune system.

For more on the ecological importance and management of Silver Lake State Park, you can visit the Michigan DNR's resource page: <https://www.michigan.gov/dnr>.

ORV opportunities remain popular draw for Silver Lake area

Silver Lake State Park's Off-Road Vehicle (ORV) Area stands as a premier destination for off-road enthusiasts in the Midwest. As the only sand dune riding opportunity east of the Mississippi River, the park attracts a significant number of visitors annually. In 2014, the park recorded approximately 772,231 visitors, with about two-thirds engaging in ORV activities on the dunes. This popularity underscores the park's status as a hub for off-road recreation, drawing enthusiasts from across the nation to experience its unique terrain.

The ORV trails open in April. The Park Ranger for the Silver Lake State Park, Jody Johnston, talked about some of the things people might expect when they visit and use the ORV park.

"A valid Recreation Passport is required on every motor vehicle which enters a state park," Johnston said.

Additionally, Johnston said, both the ORV permit and the ORV Trail permit are required for vehicles entering the dunes.

Johnston said that there are no new rules or regulations for the ORV area, at least not so far.

However, Johnston said, "The Department is always reviewing and considering changes for many different things we manage."

"This can include anything from ORV operation, wildlife management regulation, fishing regulations, forestry practices, etc.," Johnston said.

There is a welcome center located a quarter mile east of the ORV area entrance where people can get permits and information, at 8505 W. Fox Rd in Mears.

Johnston said that the DNR has put safety as a high priority.

"Officers use discretion and have multiple actions they can use depending on the situation," Johnston said. "Routinely, park officers interact with DNR conservation officers, county sheriff deputies, and the Michigan State Police."

ORV AREA OPERATING HOURS

The Off-Road Vehicle (ORV) Area at Silver Lake State Park is open seasonally. From April 1 to May 15, the area operates from 9:00 a.m. to 8:00 p.m. Hours extend from 9:00 a.m. to 10:00 p.m. between May 16 and Labor Day, After Labor Day until October 31, the hours return to 9:00 a.m. to 8:00 p.m. The ORV area is closed from November 1 through March 31.

VEHICLE REQUIREMENTS

For Trucks, Jeeps, UTVs, and Dune Buggies:

All vehicles must have a front-mounted safety flag and seat belts for every occupant. Eye protection is required unless the vehicle has a windshield. Vehicles must have a roll bar or metal roof above and behind the driver. Helmets are required for passengers not protected by roll protection. A valid driver's license is mandatory for drivers, who must be at least 16 years old. Additionally, all vehicles must have a USFS-approved spark arrestor and not exceed a 94 dB noise limit. Required permits include a Recreation Passport, ORV license, and trail permit.

For ATVs, Motorcycles, and 3-Wheelers:

These vehicles must have a rear-mounted safety flag. Passengers are not allowed. Operators must wear ANSI-certified helmets and eye protection. Similar to other ORVs, noise levels must not exceed 94 dB, and a spark arrestor is required. Riders between 12 and 15 years old must have an ORV Safety Certificate. Three-wheeler operators must be at least 16 years old. A valid driver's license is also required for riders aged 16 and older. Permits are the same as for other vehicles.

NOISE AND EXHAUST REGULATIONS

All ORVs must be equipped with a muffler and a USFS-approved spark arrestor with internal baffles. Vehicles are tested for sound emissions at 20 inches from the exhaust pipe at half of the engine's rated RPM. The maximum permissible noise level is 94 dB(A) under these testing conditions.

PARKING LOT VOUCHER SYSTEM

During peak times—weekends and holidays from two weeks before Memorial Day to the Sunday after Labor Day—a free parking lot voucher is required if towing an ORV or needing a staging area.

VOUCHER TYPES:

Dune Ready Vouchers: For vehicles entering the dunes directly without needing the parking lot.

Parking Lot Vouchers: For those requiring parking or staging areas.

Distribution: Vouchers are distributed at the ORV Voucher Center located ¼ mile east of the ORV Area entrance at the corner of Fox and Ridge Roads.

Timing: Distribution begins at 12:00 p.m. on Fridays for Dune Ready Vouchers and at 9:00 p.m. for Parking Lot Vouchers. The center remains open until at least 11:00 p.m. and reopens at 7:00 a.m. on Saturdays, Sundays, and holidays.

TOWING AND SAFETY REQUIREMENTS

Towing: Only one vehicle or trailer may be towed at a time using a rigid towing bar with safety chains.

Licensing: Operators must have the appropriate driver's or chauffeur's license.

Lighting: Towed vehicles or trailers may require reflectors or stop lights.

ALCOHOL RESTRICTIONS

From May 15 to June 10 each year, alcohol is prohibited throughout the entire park, including the dunes and ORV area.

FREE ORV WEEKENDS

Michigan residents and visitors can enjoy two free ORV weekends in 2025: June 7–8 and August 16–17. On these dates, the ORV license and trail permit are not required. However, a Michigan Recreation Passport is still needed for park entry.
