

Milton band gets a boost

See page 2.

Lewisburg boys blank Shamokin

See page 14.

Daily Thought

"A HERO IS NO BRAVER THAN AN ORDINARY MAN, BUT HE IS BRAVER FIVE MINUTES LONGER." — RALPH WALDO EMERSON, AMERICAN POET AND ESSAYIST (1803-1882).

The Standard-Journal

www.standard-journal.com

Today: 88° | 67° Partly sunny

HOME DELIVERY STILL ONLY 50¢ NEWSSTAND 75¢

Miss Pennsylvania visits children's hospital

Goodwill ambassador fills role

BY MATT FARRAND
The Standard-Journal

DANVILLE — Tiffany Seitz, Miss Pennsylvania 2019, visited the Janet Weis Children's Hospital (JWCH) in Danville on Tuesday. Part of her role when named to the honor included serving as goodwill ambassador to the five Children's Miracle Network Hospitals including JWCH.

Though she was too young to remember it, Seitz noted that as a newborn, she was

Ambassador, Page A3

BY MATT FARRAND/THE STANDARD-JOURNAL

Miss Pennsylvania, visits with Katelyn Herman of Newport on a goodwill appearance at Janet Weis Children's Hospital in Danville, one of five Children's Miracle Network hospitals in the commonwealth.

Milton looking at leasing former school

Stadium renovations under consideration

BY KEVIN MERTZ
The Standard-Journal

MILTON — Administrators in the Milton Area School District will be moving forward with negotiating agreements with two separate entities interested in leasing space in the former Montandon Elementary School building.

The board in June voted to close the school beginning with the 2019-2020 school year, consolidating its

Lease, Page A6

Mifflinburg school directors accept separation agreement

BY MATT FARRAND
The Standard-Journal

MIFFLINBURG — Mifflinburg Area School District directors accepted a separation agreement Tuesday of an employee who was not named.

The agreement, with employee 20-004, was accepted by the board 9-0 pending final legal review. The action followed a 45 minute executive session.

Though no name was mentioned, the action followed confirmation last

Agreement, Page A3

WCEC to reflect on 9/11

BY MATT FARRAND
The Standard-Journal

LEWISBURG — William Cameron Engine Company staff had a time of reflection this morning.

WCEC Chief Jamie Blount said company members draped their badges in black to remember the firefighters who died on Sept. 11, 2001.

The 343 New York City firefighters who died as the result of the attacks that day included two paramedics and a chaplain.

The company also restricted non-essential services for a time.

Blount said all on hand used the time from 8:46 to 10:28 a.m. to watch broadcast reports of the 18th anniversary of the attacks and reflect. The time period recalled the time from the first attack to the minute the

Fallen, Page A3

WR to consider new band uniforms

BY CHRIS BRADY/THE STANDARD-JOURNAL

Warrior Run band Director Taylor Rhodes displayed proposed new band uniforms Tuesday for members of the school board.

BY CHRIS BRADY
The Standard-Journal

TURBOTVILLE — Warrior Run's 13-year-old marching band uniforms may soon be retired.

Board members on Tuesday got a look at new uniforms proposed by music Director Taylor Rhodes. The jackets more closely reflect the school colors, she said.

"I want them to look as professional as they sound," said Rhodes, now in her fifth year as band director.

Current uniforms are 13 years old and feature a more navy blue/gray color scheme. Uniforms have outlived the typical 10-year life expectancy, she advised

Uniforms, Page A3

Pennsdale man facing prostitution charge

BY THE STANDARD-JOURNAL
WATSONTOWN — A 76-year-old Lycoming County man has been charged with prostitution and related offenses, and harassment, as the result of an alleged incident which occurred Aug. 23 at a Canal Street apartment which he owns.

Paul Russell Jarrett, of 639 Narber Fry Road, Pennsdale, was charged Tuesday in the office of District Judge Michael Diehl, of Milton, in connection with the incident which occurred at 8 a.m. Aug. 23 at 110 Canal St., Apt. 3, Watontown.

In court documents, Watontown Police Department Lt. Rick Faux said he launched an investigation into the alleged incident after a woman reported Jarrett asked her to lick him in an inappropriate manner in exchange for an outstanding $50 rent payment.

The woman told Faux she

Charges, Page A3

OBITUARIES
DORIS L. RICKERT,
WATSONTOWN

INDEX

LOCAL	2,3,6
OBITUARIES/LOCAL/LOTTERY	4,5
LAW AND ORDER.....	7
OPINION	8
SPORTS	14,15,16
PUZZLES.....	17
ADVICE/COMICS	18,19
CLASSIFIED.....	20,21

For local news and sports directory on your computer or mobile device Subscribe to our

E-edition visit our website at:
www.standard-journal.com